

INDIANA CHAPTER OF AACN NTI 2025 SCHOLARSHIP CONTEST

*"Let us never consider ourselves finished nurses"
"We must be learning all of our lives"
Florence Nightingale*

NTI is the largest, most comprehensive trade show for acute, progressive and critical care nurses, advanced practice nurses, clinical care specialists, nurse practitioners and nurse managers as well as transport and emergency department nurses who treat acutely and critically ill patients. NTI offers camaraderie, education, connection, inspiration and rejuvenation you need to grow in your profession. This year NTI is in New Orleans and is held May 19-21 (with preconference option May 18). The virtual conference is June 9-11.

Scholarship submissions need to focus on the 2025 AACN Theme "Courage to Soar" and describe what it means to you as a nurse. This year CIC-AACN has again decided participants can choose their own medium: Essay (500 words or less) Poetry, Art, Music and Videos. If you decide to submit a piece of art, please provide a summary of how it relates to the theme. Do not identify your submission so we can be objective. Participants are required to hold both local and national membership.

All submissions should be submitted by March 6th (so can take advantage of early bird rate by April 15th) Email to: Victoriacarter1975@gmail.com Victoria will be your main point of contact for any questions, however any board member can assist you as well.

Two winners will be reimbursed for $1000 towards their cost of attending the conference. One winner will be reimbursed the cost of attending the virtual conference ($350). Please provide receipts for reimbursement purposes.

Winners will be announced March 10th.

Note: Plan to request time off for the conference in advance
