

AORN RICHMOND CHAPTER MEETING

Monday, October 20, 2025

6:00 pm Arrive and get dinner

6:15 pm Business meeting

7:00 pm Education presentation

St. Mary's Hospital | Room 163

5801 Bremono Rd, Richmond, VA 23226

SCAN TO REGISTER!

PRESENTATION (1 CE)

Advances in Treatment of Resectable Pancreatic Cancer

Dr. Adam Khader, MD, PhD, FACS, FSSO

ALL ARE WELCOME!

Learning Objectives:

1. Explain role of neoadjuvant therapy
2. Discuss intraoperative considerations
3. Discuss management of complications

*This continuing nursing education activity was approved by the Association of perioperative Registered Nurses, INC., an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission in Accreditation. AORN recognized this activity as continuing education for registered nurses. This recognition does not imply that AORN approved or endorsed a product included in the presentation.

Please register using the QR code above
so we have a headcount for food
We look forward to seeing you!

Reach out to Jessica Ooms if you need help signing up for the meeting jessica.richmondaorn@yahoo.com

STUFFED ANIMAL DRIVE!

AORN Richmond is conducting a stuffed animal donation drive for the St. Mary's Pediatric Unit. Please consider supporting this donation drive by buying new stuffed animals.

There will be a collection box in the St. Mary's Main OR Lounge. You can bring items to this chapter meeting or contact Jessica Ooms to coordinate your donation. Items will be donated on October 29, 2025.

AORN