Sunday Keynote Speaker

Michael Corjulo, APRN, CPNP, AE-C, PMHS

Therapeutic Boundaries, Compassion Fatigue and the Pros & Cons of Caring

Mike has been a nurse since 1983, and a pediatric nurse practitioner since graduating from the Yale School of Nursing in 1998. He is a primary care provider, a certified asthma educator, and a certified primary care mental health specialist. Mike was a site director of a CMS Health Care Innovations community asthma program that received a 2016 EPA Leadership Award for Community in Action. He was the health coordinator for a public school system, and is a Past-President of the Association of School Nurses of CT. He was the school health representative on the 2015 CT legislative Task Force to Study Life-Threatening Food Allergies in School. Mike is a contributing author for the 2025 11th edition of the School Nurse Resource Manual. He has presented at State, Regional, and National conferences on asthma, allergies, mental health, and other pediatric and school health topics.

Sunday Keynote Speaker

Lynn Nelson MSN, RN, NCSN
NASN President

Leadership: Taking Your Place at the Table

Lynn Nelson, MSN, RN, NCSN, has more than three decades of experience in school nursing and currently serves as President of the National Association of School Nurses (NASN). She is the Senior Director of Health Services and Integrated Student Supports at Capital Region ESD 113 in Tumwater, Washington, where she has served since 2002. Lynn is dedicated to advancing equity in health and education and advocates for removing nonacademic barriers to student success through effective school health and reengagement programs. Her professional interests include leadership and health policy. In addition to her NASN presidency, she is a past NASN Director, former Legislative Chair for the School Nurse Organization of Washington, and a former member of the Washington State Nurses Association Policy Council. She also serves on the Thurston County Board of Health and is active in multiple professional associations, including NASN, SNOW, WSNA, and WASA.
