

Interest Statement:

I am honored to express my interest in serving as President-Elect of the Maryland Organization of Nurse Leaders. Throughout my career, I have been deeply committed to advancing nursing leadership, improving quality and patient outcomes, and fostering environments where nurses can thrive. MONL plays a critical role in connecting and strengthening nurse leaders across our state, and I am passionate about contributing to that mission in a greater capacity.

If elected, I am committed to supporting the professional growth of current and emerging leaders, strengthening collaboration across healthcare systems, and ensuring MONL continues to be a trusted voice in advancing nursing leadership in Maryland. It would be a privilege to serve and to partner with colleagues in shaping the future of our profession.

Kari Mimnaugh, DNP, RN, NEA-BC, CCRN

Senior Director

Emergency Services and Critical Care

Luminis Health

Anne Arundel Medical Center

Kari Mimnaugh, DNP, RN, CCRN-K, NEA-BC

Dr. Kari Mimnaugh is a seasoned nurse executive with a proven track record of leading complex nursing and ancillary teams across the acute care continuum. Beginning her career in critical care, she has spent the past decade advancing through progressive leadership roles and currently serves as Senior Director of Emergency Services and Critical Care at Luminis Health Anne Arundel Medical Center. She is deeply committed to quality, patient safety, and operational excellence, and has led numerous system-level improvement initiatives focused on clinical outcomes, caregiver engagement, and sustainable performance improvement.

Dr. Mimnaugh earned her Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Chamberlain University, her Master of Science in Nursing with a focus in Nurse Leadership from Wilmington University, and her Doctor of Nursing Practice from Wilmington University. She holds CCRN-K and NEA-BC certifications and is a Lean Six Sigma Green Belt. She recently completed executive coursework through the CNO Institute.

She is an active member of the Maryland Organization of Nurse Leaders (MONL), the American Organization of Nurse Leaders (AONL), the American Nurses Association (ANA), and the American Association of Critical-Care Nurses (AACN). Dr. Mimnaugh has served on AONL committees, is a past AACN Ambassador, and has contributed to the planning and execution of MONL's Annual Gala and networking events.

Dr. Mimnaugh is honored to be considered for the role of MONL President-Elect and is committed to advancing nurse leadership, strengthening professional collaboration, and supporting the development of current and emerging nurse leaders across Maryland.