

CA·NURSES
FOR ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH & JUSTICE

School of Nursing
STANISLAUS STATE

SAVE THE DATE

FOOD SYSTEMS, COMMUNITY HEALTH, AND WELL-BEING

Two-Day Conference

OCTOBER 16–17, 2026

STANISLAUS STATE, STOCKTON CAMPUS

DAY ONE • FRIDAY, OCTOBER 16

Environmental Health

Understanding the connections between environment and health

Disaster Preparedness

Strengthening readiness and response
in our communities

Extreme Heat

Clinical and public health approaches to protect communities

Lunch

Breakout Sessions

(Academic, Practice, and Community Health)

Awakening the Dreamer

with Dr. Barbara Sattler

Join us for dinner Friday evening!

DAY TWO • SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17

Farmworker Health and Pesticides

Addressing health and safety for farmworkers and communities

Water Quality and Quantity

Protecting and ensuring access to safe, clean water

Food & Agriculture

Exploring food as medicine, regenerative agriculture, and food systems

Lunch

Farm Tour

Experience local agriculture
in the Central Valley

Reflection

Sharing insights and moving forward together

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS PROVIDED for people traveling greater than 60 miles.

FRIDAY DINNER INCLUDED
Join us for dinner
on Friday evening.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION COMING SOON!

For updates please visit our website: <https://www.calnursesforehj.org/>

Home

About

Blog

Events

Donate