Enjoy the Cedarburg Wine and Harvest Festival when you are in town!!
September 17-18, 2016

Spend a sweet, end-of-summer weekend in the country in Historic Cedarburg during the 44th Annual Wine & Harvest Festival, Saturday, September 17 from 10-6 pm & Sunday, September 18 from 10-5 pm sponsored by BMO Harris Bank.

Both the abundance of Wisconsin's homegrown produce and artisan food products plus the award-winning wines of Cedar Creek Winery are what initiated this free, family-oriented arts and crafts event.

The Festival Food Court located at the Community Center features grilled corn, BBQ, gyros, noodles, fried cheese, brats, burgers, grilled foods and many more savory/sweet delights. Enjoy unique, tasty Olsen's Piggly Wiggly's Original Harvest Apple Brat and Cranberry Turkey Wraps available only at the Official Festival Food Booth.

Purchase some of fall's bounty at the Farmer's Market located on Columbia Avenue. Locally produced foodstuffs such as honey, syrup, cheese, sausage and jellies are available in each Marketplace located at Turner Street, Mill Street and Cleveland Street. Also, the three Marketplaces is your place to find unique handbags, hats, skin care products and so much more.

Festival fans can kick back and listen to Live Music all over town, including Top Forty, Folk and Rock & Roll bands. The Gruber Law Office Main Stage at the food court is featuring local seasoned musicians playing cover music both Saturday and Sunday.

Treasures are just waiting to be discovered at "Art on the Avenue," with more than 250 juried artist booths presented by the Cedarburg Garden Club, Cedarburg Cultural Center, Cedarburg Art Museum, and Ozaukee Art Center along Washington Avenue. Drop in at both the Cedarburg Cultural Center for the Cedarburg Artists Guild's annual juried Fall Show and the Wisconsin Museum of Quilts and Fiber Arts for special exhibits and activities. Take a free haywagon shuttle to their location.
