

January

2023

Awareness & Events

January is Cervical Cancer Awareness Month

In the United States about 14,000 women are diagnosed with invasive cervical cancer each year. Women can reduce their risk by addressing risk factors. The two most prevalent risk factors are cigarette smoking and Human Papillomavirus (HPV). Cervical cancer screening via Pap test and/or HPV test are crucial for early diagnosis.

Other awareness months: Firefighter Cancer Awareness Month and National Mentoring Month.

Get cervical awareness information at www.ncccoonline.org/cervical-health-awareness-month/

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
1 Happy New Year!	2	3	4	5	6	7
8	9	10	11	12	13	14
15	16 MLK Day	17	18	19	20	21
22 Chinese New Year	23 Us vs. HPV Prevention Week (January 23-27)	24	25	26	27	28
29	30	31

January Cancer Awareness Resources <https://dfwnavigators.nursingnetwork.com/page/98780-january-awareness>