In 2017 ~ SePA Celebrated our 45th Chapter Anniversary!
About SePA

The Southeastern Pennsylvania (SePA) Chapter of the American Association of Critical Care Nurses (AACN) is one of the largest among 240 national chapters in 49 states and 3 foreign countries. AACN is the world's leading specialty nursing organization which joins nearly 100,000 nurses who care for high acuity and critically ill patients and their families.

The SePA Chapter was first chartered in 1972 and has over 400 active members. We are a nonprofit organization entirely dedicated to our mission which is to:

Support, Educate, Promote, & Advance Nurses...the Key to the Future of Healthcare!

Why Join?

- We offer numerous educational opportunities throughout the year, including the signature TRENDS in Acute & Critical Care Nursing Conference, at significantly discounted prices for members.

- Eligible to be specially recognized and receive annual awards for Excellence in Critical Care Practice, Advanced Practice, Education, and Management.

- Numerous scholarships are available to active members for continuing education, attendance to professional conferences, and pursuit of advanced academic study.

- Research grants for nurses who are conducting either original research, evidence-based practice projects, or clinical projects related to critical care.

- Endless opportunities to personally network with fellow critical care leaders both locally and nationally.

- There is strength in numbers - membership gives us a powerful collective voice!

- And much, much, more!

Our Committees

We have three active committees and are always looking for new members to participate with fresh ideas! Email if interested or want more info!

- Education - plans the TRENDS Conference, including on-site volunteering, organizes various other educational programs, and promotes CCRN/PCCN certification sepaeducation@sepa-aacn.org

- Research - plans research programs and journal clubs, reviews and funds research grant proposals, selects abstracts for poster presentations at chapter events separesearch@sepa-aacn.org

- Engagement - coordinates chapter celebrations, connects with our members on social media, recruits new members, maintains current membership, manages awards/scholarships, Board nominations, and the SePANOTES newsletter sepaengagement@sepa-aacn.org
