Biography of Teresa Rosenberger

Teresa is the President of Devine Strategies, the strategic consulting and government relations arm of the law firm Devine Millimet. She began her career in Washington, DC, where she worked for a national magazine and later in the Executive Branch of the Federal Government. Prior to relocating to NH, Teresa worked as a consultant to the AARP Executive Director and Board, specifically on health care issues. She continued her work for AARP in NH and eventually moved into government relations representing clients in the health care, utility, business and non-profit sectors. She works with all levels of government, as well as partners with other groups to accomplish her clients’ goals. Teresa employs a team approach that draws on all of the resources of the firm and others to create collaborative, multi-faceted solutions. Teresa’s volunteer leadership roles supporting state and community organizations in New Hampshire span more than 2 decades with organizations such as: the Concord Regional VNA; New Hampshire Public TV; City Year NH; Concord YMCA; Capitol Region Healthcare Board to name a few.
