Student Self-Assessment (Please respond on additional sheet of paper)

1. IB Diploma courses require significant reading. Please list books you have read in the past year that were not required for school.
2. IB Learners are productive, called to action, and seek to make a positive impact. Discuss an accomplishment of which you are proud.
3. IB Learners are balanced. What activities do you engage in outside of school? How do you balance your activities, home responsibilities, and academic demands? If you struggle with balancing these things, what could you do differently?
4. IB Learners are principled and as such are leaders. In your own words, define leadership, and then describe a situation in which you demonstrated leadership.

IB Learner Reflection

The IB Learner Profile identifies ten traits that an IB education seeks to develop in students:

"Inquirers "Knowledgeable "Thinkers "Communicators "Principled
"Open-minded "Caring "Risk-takers "Balanced "Reflective

Choose two of the characteristics of the Learner Profile -- one you think you clearly exemplify and the one you least exemplify. Write a well crafted essay recounting a situation when the trait you best exemplify was evident and a situation in which you wish you had exhibited the trait you least exemplify. (For more information about the IB Learner Profile, visit www.ibo.org/programmes/profile/.) Finally, conclude your essay with an additional paragraph explaining what you hope to gain in the IB Diploma Programme. You may attach a separate sheet. Please be sure this essay reflects your best effort.
