

UPHILL TRAVEL SEASON PASS RULES

- All uphill travelers are required to have a 2018-2019 Uphill Travel Pass with photo ID and to sign a 2018-2019 Uphill Travel Release before accessing open and designated uphill travel routes at Seven Springs Mountain Resort. Signature of a Release by parent or legal guardian is required for minor children ages 17 and under.
- Passes must be carried by all uphill travelers at all times whenever they utilize uphill travel routes on resort property. Please be prepared to present your pass to resort personnel upon request.
- The 2018-2019 Uphill Travel Pass DOES NOT provide lift access either up or down the mountain.

OPEN UPHILL TRAVEL ROUTES

- Uphill travel routes will be made available at Seven Springs Mountain Resort during the winter season as conditions permit. We will open uphill travel routes in line with our ability to effectively manage and operate all functions within the entire resort, including but not limited to snowmaking, grooming, equipment maintenance, snow removal, etc.
- Designated uphill travel routes may not be available every day. Open designated uphill travel routes can be found on Seven Springs Daily Snow Report. A map of designated travel routes can also be found at 7springs.com/snowreport

ACCESS AND PARKING FOR UPHILL TRAVEL ROUTES

- Uphill travel is permitted 7 a.m. to 9 a.m. You must reach the summit of the mountain by 9 a.m. If not, you must turn around and travel downhill to exit the mountain.
- Uphill travel routes can be accessed from Seven Springs Mountain Resort parking areas only.

FOR YOUR SAFETY

- Before accessing resort premises make others aware of your uphill travel plans. Charge your cell phone battery before you go and always travel with your cell phone.
- Uphill travel by means of skinning or cross country skis is permitted. Snowshoeing is not permitted. Always use the buddy system. If you decide to go alone, be sure to advise someone in advance about your activities.
- Resort and mountain operations run 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, therefore you may encounter and you should stay clear of all mountain operations and equipment, including, but not limited to grooming machines, snowmaking equipment, snowmobiles and lifts.
- Always yield to all resort personnel, mountain operations equipment, machines and vehicles. If you see approaching equipment, machinery or vehicles, you must stop and move to the side of the trail until the vehicle passes.
- Stay clear of all snow grooming winch operations. Be alert for warning beacons on vehicles and at winch points at the top of the trail; be alert for equipment and machinery. If you encounter winching operations, stay off the trail. Winch cables may be located underneath the snow surface one moment, then high in the air above the surface the next. Grooming machines suspended on winch cables may be located thousands of feet away. These circumstances can make dangers and hazards hard to see or invisible to, both uphill travelers and equipment operators.
- Wearing reflective clothing and a bright head lamp is mandatory if you will be on the mountain in low light or foggy conditions. It's your responsibility to make yourself visible to operations personnel.
- Your safety is directly affected by your judgment. Observe and follow Your Responsibility Code.
- Travel uphill only on designated routes indicated on the Uphill travel map.
- Travel on the edge of the trail and don't stand more than two people side-by-side across the trail.
- Don't stop in high traffic areas.
- Used the designated area to remove skins.
- Be alert and yield to all downhill traffic, including skiers and riders.
- Be prepared for changes in weather and conditions. Weather conditions can change quickly. Be alert to continually changing weather, visibility, surface conditions and terrain features. Anticipate numerous hazards and dangers including, but not limited to snow, snowmaking mounds, ice, ruts, bumps, sheer drop-offs, bare ground, rocks, roots, stumps, trees, power poles, lift towers, snowmaking equipment, grooming vehicles, snowmobiles, other skiers and riders, and many other natural and man-made objects.
- Pets are not permitted on trails and slopes.

AREA BOUNDARY

- You must not go beyond the ski area boundary. Be aware that Seven Springs Mountain Resort assumes no responsibility for safety of, or injury, death or damages to skiers or riders. Areas beyond the ski area boundary are not maintained or checked by resort area personnel.
- Check the Seven Springs Trail Map to see ski area boundaries.

EMERGENCIES

- For first aid assistance during uphill travel hours, report accidents by dialing 800-452-2223, ext. 7814 from your cell phone to reach Ski Patrol to request first aid assistance.

DESIGNATED ROUTES

- Uphill travel and descending is limited to designated routes only. Uphill travelers are required to stay on designated routes at all times. Uphill travel is not permitted on the North Face of the mountain.
- Designated routes are as follows:
 - Uphill Loop 1 - Travel up Boomerang Trail, down Avalanche Slope.
 - Uphill Loop 2 - Travel up Boomerang Trail, down Village Trail.

UPHILL TRAVEL SEASON PASS RELEASE AND WAIVER AGREEMENT

In consideration for uphill travel pass for use of uphill travel routes designated by Seven Springs Mountain Resort, Inc., its owners, officers, employees, agents, representatives, parents, and affiliates (hereinafter, "Seven Springs"), I agree:

(1) that I understand that there is a risk of serious injury or death if I participate in cross country skiing or skinning. It would be impractical to list all the risks. Some of the risks include, falls caused by bare spots, variations in surface and subsurface snow and ice conditions, variations in terrain, bumps, moguls, stumps, rocks, other forms of forest growth and debris. Risks also include collisions with other persons, lift towers, poles, cables, snow making equipment, snowmobiles, grooming machines, fences, barriers, and other natural and manmade obstacles on and/ or off of Uphill travel routes. Another risk is falls and collisions caused by the negligence of others, including Seven Springs. I acknowledge that it is my responsibility to engage in cross country skiing or skinning only on designated uphill travel routes, to follow Your Responsibility Code, and all rules regarding use of the uphill travel pass, and to follow all other instructions, rules and directions provided by Seven Springs, and to exercise caution and remain in control while participating.

(2) to accept all risks, whether specifically listed in paragraph (1) above or not, which arise out of or are related to the use of my uphill travel pass to cross county ski or go skinning at Seven Springs.

(3) that my uphill travel pass may be suspended or revoked, without reimbursement to me, if I do not follow the rules, instructions and directions of Seven Springs.

(4) to waive my right to bring any claims against Seven Springs that arise out of or relate to my use of my uphill travel pass at Seven Springs, and to release Seven Springs from liability for any such claims. This waiver and release includes, but is not limited to, claims based upon allegations of negligence on the part of Seven Springs. I further agree that I will indemnify, hold harmless, and reimburse Seven Springs for all losses (including attorneys' fees and costs) from any claims brought by any persons or entities arising out of or relating to my use of my uphill travel pass Seven Springs.

(5) that the terms of this Agreement shall be binding on my heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, and shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. I agree that all disputes arising under this Agreement shall be litigated in the Court of Common Pleas of Somerset County, Pennsylvania.

(6) I grant Seven Springs permission to use photographic and/or video images of me for the purpose of marketing, publicizing and promoting the resort operations. I waive any right to be compensated for the use of my image and release Seven Springs from liability for any claims, where such claims arise out of or relate to Seven Springs' use of my image.

ALL PASS PURCHASERS MUST SIGN BELOW

Adults: I understand this Agreement and enter into it voluntarily with the intention of being bound by its terms.
