We've Come Alive In '85

Lorain High School's 1985 seniors exemplify their theme of pride: "We've come alive in '85!"

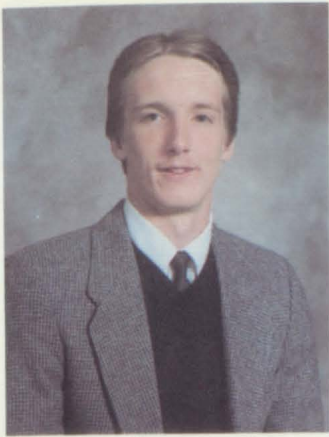

Although only twenty-one members were chosen for Senior Advisory Board, they were supported entirely by volunteers from the class who were assisted by the faculty and their parents. The volunteers graciously aided the Advisory Board in the development of the pancake breakfast, the talent show, senior banquet and the prom.

Upper Right: Proving to the class that they have been in the library at least once during their senior year, the class officers take a break from talking, cheering, politicking and selling, respectively. Right: Governing the senior class were, from left to right, Secretary Melanie Reed, Vice-President Don Savinsky, Treasurer Linda Webber, and President Cleave Johnson.

NHS: Character, Scholarship,

"... Personality ... shows how well you feel about yourself, how others feel towards you, and it also points out your distinctive qualities that separate you from everyone else.... Before anyone else can like us we have to like ourselves.... There is a saying that one of the teachers has up in his room that says, "No one is a failure until they blame it on someone else." ... We must set our goals higher for the future and work harder to reach them ..."

The speakers pause for a picture before the traditional symbol.

"... Scholarship does not happen overnight. It begins to take form very early in life and its boundaries go far beyond formal education. As children ... we learned new words and new ways of doing things ... As we began elementary school ... we met new people and learned to get along with others.... (In high school), concepts excited us and we were eager to broaden our knowledge.... It is because of this hard work and determination that we are being inducted here tonight."

Left: Melanie Reed speaks: "As children ... we accepted the chance to learn."

Leadership And Service

The National Honor Society Officers: Andrew Strauser, president, Linda Webber, vice-president, Jill Ferguson, secretary, and David Urda, treasurer.

"Leadership is the ability to guide people ... (Leaders have) the ability to accept criticism. They don't become negative, if anything they become stronger, striving to achieve success well above their original goals ... A good leader will encourage his followers to strive for perfection. . .

Carol Meade explains, "A good leader is willing to listen, understand, and help when it's needed."

Below: Gerald, Laurie, Dee, and Todd reflect on their achievements before reciting the pledge. Left: Susan VanWagon states, "A service is an act performed by a person for another person."

"The members of various clubs, athletics groups and school organizations at Lorain High perform services daily to bring recognition, pride and unity to our school. It is this unrecognized and unrewarded effort that is true service. . . Knowing we took the time and energy to complete a service that makes others feel proud, is a feeling that competes with no other . . . By serving our community and others, . . . we can . . . go through out lives feeling recognized, proud, and united."

Leaders Of Tomorrow

"I pledge myself to uphold the high purpose of this society to which I have been elected, striving in every way, by word and deed to make its ideals the ideals of my life."

Spirit Still Survives For Varsity Steelmen!

The Varsity football team ended their 1984 season with a 2-8 record. The highlight of the year was the win over Sandusky. One big disappointment was playing a very good game against undefeated Admiral King, and losing in the last quarter.

Outstanding performances were by the leading scorer Dennis Hughes (All-County), leading tackler Scotty Bryant (All-County), and punter Baron Roule (first team All-District, All-County, and honorable mention All-State.)

The Lorain High School 1984 -1985 volleyball team had a pretty good overall season. They started the season with a four game winning streak, turning out a record of 16 wins and 6 losses. When asked about the season, coach Szente, who was named Buckeye Confrence coach of the year said, "It was a pretty good season. It was the little errors that made the record look bad."

Cross Country Runs Toward Success

This year's cross country team ended the season with a 6-3 record for the boys, and a 3-2 record for the girls. Head Coach Mr. Robbins felt he had a hard working and dependable team. He says he hates to see the seniors go, but also looks forward to a promising young team next year.

The highpoint of the season was a second place finish by the boys to Southview in the city meet. The boys were edged out by a mere six points. Charles Sutton also broke the school record this season.

At the sports banquet, Chris Matos and Carol Meade walked away with the team MVP awards, while Tony DiFrancisco and Carol Meade received the coaches' awards.

Girls' Tennis Looks Ahead

Mr. Riddle's girls' tennis team suffered an unsuccessful season this past fall. Inexperience was a main reason why the girls did not fare well this season, but with no players graduating, experience should be abundant next year.

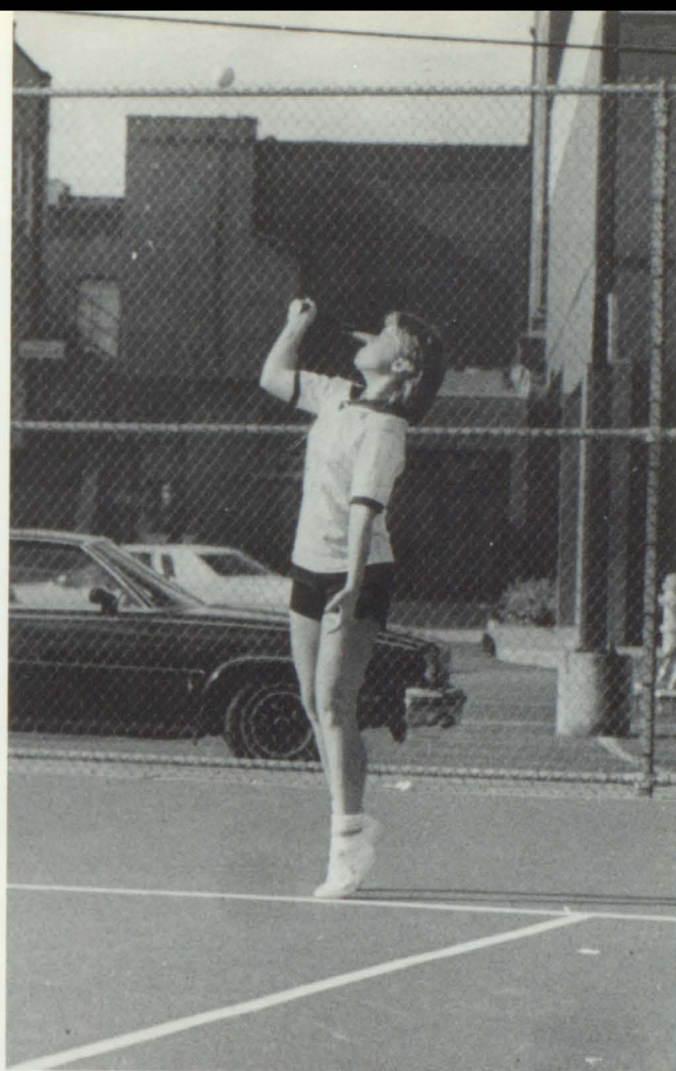

Returning for the Lady Steelmen will be Amy Difilippo for her fourth year. Aloma Gummo, Jackie Foley, Michale Branham, Jenny Difilippo, and Colleen Bailey will all come back next year with two seasons' experience. Lisa Moore who played first doubles in her first year on the team, will also be back.

With all the returning experience, the girls' tennis team can look forward to a strong and successful fall of 1985.

Varsity And J.V. Cheerleaders

This year the Varsity and J.V. cheerleaders displayed an outstanding array of spirit and hard work. The captains of this year's squads include Lisa Gleisner for the Varsity and Kristi Naelitz for the J.V. Both squads decorated the lockers and supplied candy to the athletes. Much dedication and enthusiasm has helped to make this a successful cheerleading team.

L.H.S. Golf Team's Rookie Season Shows Promise

The 1984 fall season was the first time in history that Lorain High School has ever had a Golf Team. Although they set no startling records, this "rookie" team began to establish Lorain High as an up-and-coming competitor in the sport of golf, finishing the season with a respectable 2-8 first season record.

"For the first year, the team did well. Many golfers were just learning the game.", coach Willets commented about his golf team. The five golfers who competed for the Steelmen were seniors Jack Cook and Keith Finitzer, junior Chaz Velasquez, and sophomores Bart Cera and Steve Ebbitt. Team alternates and hard workers included Beth Hershelmann, Jeff Jenkins, and Linda Webber. The most improved player was Bart Cera, who was said to have the potential to lead the Steelmen with the lowest score.

The highpoint of the season occurred at Midway when the L.H.S. Golfers took first place in a close trimatch between Admiral King and Southview. With continued good performances such as this, the coach looks forward to a much improved team and competitive season next year.

Hardworking Steelmen

Although the Lorain High Varsity Basketball Team didn't have a winning season, it did have some hardworking players. The seniors were Ken Balmert, the high scorer with an average of 13.1 per game, Tony Kruman, who had the top field goal percentage of 58, Joel Hartman, who played in the Lorain County All Star game, Rob Hendershot, Chris Matos, and Andrew Strauser. The juniors were Carson Coates, Chuck Sutton, Mike Randle, who received All Lorain County Honorable Mention, and Jason Williams, who was selected for 2nd Team Tourney.

The most exciting game of the season was against Admiral King in the Sectional Championships. The whole team seemed to come together to give the Admirals a run for their money. It was an exciting near-upset, but A.K. came away with a four point advantage. Although Lorain lost, the players deserve recognition for putting up such a good fight.

J.V. Season: A Bright

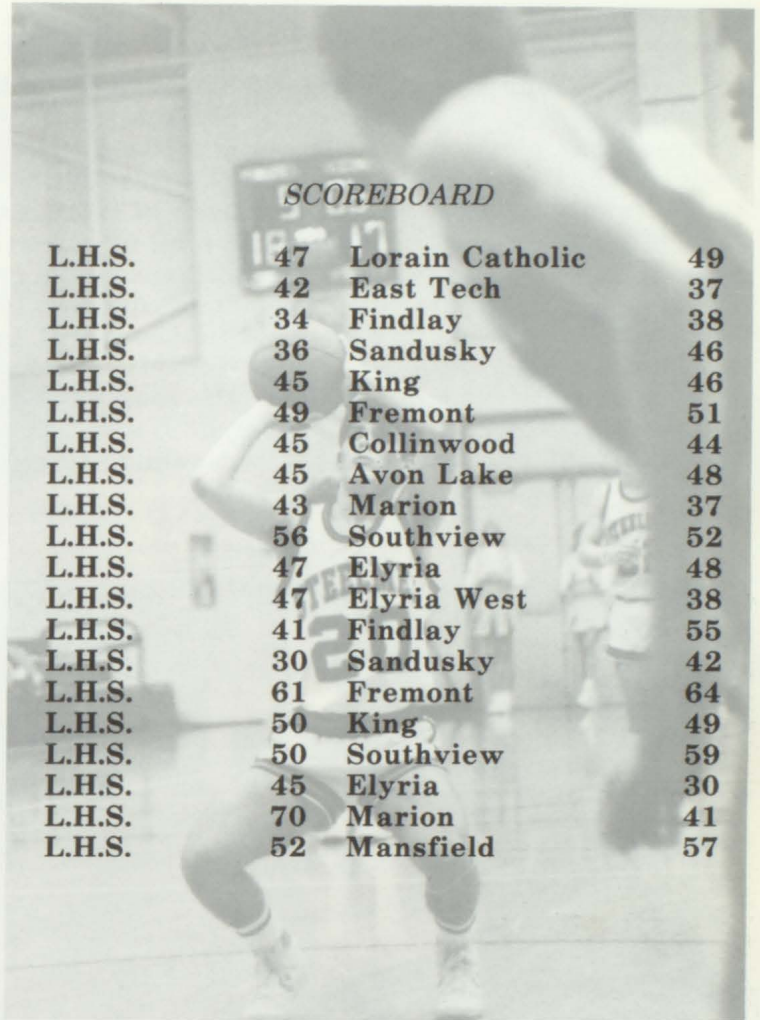

The Junior Varsity Basketball Team finished their season with a 8-12 record. Losing three of their games in overtime, Mr. Makinen stated that when you know that you played well, you don't feel badly when you lose in overtime. For the J.V. players, there was no outstanding player, although Tony Worthy was picked as the most improved. The team never gave up on themselves as an individual nor as a team. They played to their utmost potential.

The most exciting game of the season for the J.V.'s was the 2nd game against Admiral King. Lorain won 50-49 at the buzzer. The reasons why it was so exciting is first, Lorain scored 7 points in the last 40 seconds to win, and second, Admiral King beat Lorain 46-45 at the buzzer in the previous game. This year's J.V.'s have a lot of talent to contribute to the future Steelmen teams.

Frosh Roundballers

The Freshman Boys Basketball Team finished the season out with a 7-10 record. Finishing third in Tournament play, the Freshmen surprised a lot of people. They beat St. Ignatius in the first round of tournament play. Mr. Foulk, the coach of the Freshmen squad, says that his group has a lot of potential power players. In the near future, he sees that 4 or 5 of the players will be "all-conference" material.

When both coaches were asked what the worst part of coaching was, both Mr. Foulk and Mr. Hartman responded with the same answer: the long bus trips! But after all the complaining, they both also agreed that the best part was having the chance to work with young and hardworking people.

Girls' Varsity Basketball

The Girls' Varsity Basketball Team's record reflected the intensity of the season. Although the girls racked up a 6-16 record, the high point was the sectional game against St. Joseph's, whom Lorain defeated 58-56. This game put Lorain into the final game of the sectionals. The Lady Steelmen played a tough game, but unfortunately lost to a more experienced Westlake team.

Despite their losses, the girls played together as a team and improved greatly over the season. Outstanding performers for the Lady Steelmen were Beth Nagy, Buckeye Conference leading rebounder, Barbara Seymore, the team's most valuable player and a member of the first tournament team, and Chris Nagy, leading scorer for the team and also a member of the first tournament team. With such inspiring performances and hard work from the whole team, Coach Kingsley looks forward to an even farther walk down the road to state.

J.V. Girls Prepare For Varsity

The girls' junior varsity basketball team had a mediocre season in the winter. Their record was below 500, but injuries and a lack of bench players attributed to that.

The highlight of the season was a 44-21 win over archrival Admiral King.

The leading scorer for the season was Catrina Lewis. Amy McElwayne was tops in rebounding.

Overall, the girls gained the experience to really help the varsity team next season.

Varsity Baseball Look

This year's Varsity Baseball Team struggled through a 1-19 season. The season didn't quite turn out as well as Coach Mr. Furiga would have liked, but the members of the team did stick together. Many of the games were close, but due to an uneven balance of pitching, fielding, and hitting, the Steelmen unfortunately let quite a few "would be wins" slip away.

Some bright spots on the team, however, were some of the outstanding play turned in by the players. Scott Bryant lead the team in hitting, while Mike Randle and Billy Saunders combined for a strong catch pitcher combination.

J.V. Baseball Team Gets

Some of the players that stood out this season were Tony Gummo and Jeff Carr, who lead the team in steals. Steve Reynolds did a good job as catcher, Tony Gummo had a good pitching season for the Steelmen, and Tony Gummo was also the leading hitter. The J.V.'s hope to get the Varsity Steelmen back on track next year while Coach Kennedy has worked hard to prepare his young players for this task.

Perhaps the most active association at LHS this year was Key Club. Meeting every Thursday morning in the library, its members vigorously campaigned against drunk driving through the Students Against Driving Drunk (S.A.D.D.) programs which were presented to each class. Key Club also held food drives, provided service to area nursing homes, and reached out into the community in many ways.

Hi-Standard Returns To LHS

After a four year absence, Lorain High's Hi-Standard has returned. It has been designed to inform teachers and students of the accomplishments achieved by others. Through bi-monthly issues, its students are constantly aware of current events and sports victories.

Scimitar Staff Is Watching

The yearbook staff worked very hard to prepare the 1985 edition of the Scimitar. The photographers were ready with their cameras to take someone's picture. The editors and their staff spent many hours designing pages for the yearbook and writing captions for the pictures. Despite their busy schedule, the staff took time off to have a dance. The theme of the dance was called the "Purple Party" which featured the songs of pop artist, Prince.

Advisor's Note

When I accepted the advisorship of the Scimitar this year, I heard the same comment from all parts of this school's community: "The students will desert you." Some did. But many more stayed, and they put this book together. Over 90% of the pictures were taken, developed, and printed by students. 98% of the copy and all of the page layouts were written and designed by students.

This book is bound to have its critics. Mistakes were made. But, I am personally proud of those students who gave up many, many evenings each week to put this all together. To this staff I say, "Thank you!"

Awareness Club Adds Culture

This year, the Awareness Culture club took several field trips. They attended a play called "Tell Pharoah" at Oberlin College. The play told of the history of Black Americans from the 1600's to the present. They also attended a college seminar and visited the Afro-American Heritage House in Cleveland. To honor Black History month which is in February, they displayed a bulletin board with pictures of Black men and women who had made important contributions to America.

Student Council Governs

The 1984-85 Student Council planned various activities for the student body. Among these were the pep rallies, Spirit Week, Teacher Appreciation Week, and Senior Distinction Day. This year, a new activity began. The students were able to take their pictures with Santa Claus. The best activity, however, was the Blood Bank.

Lorain . . . Our Praise

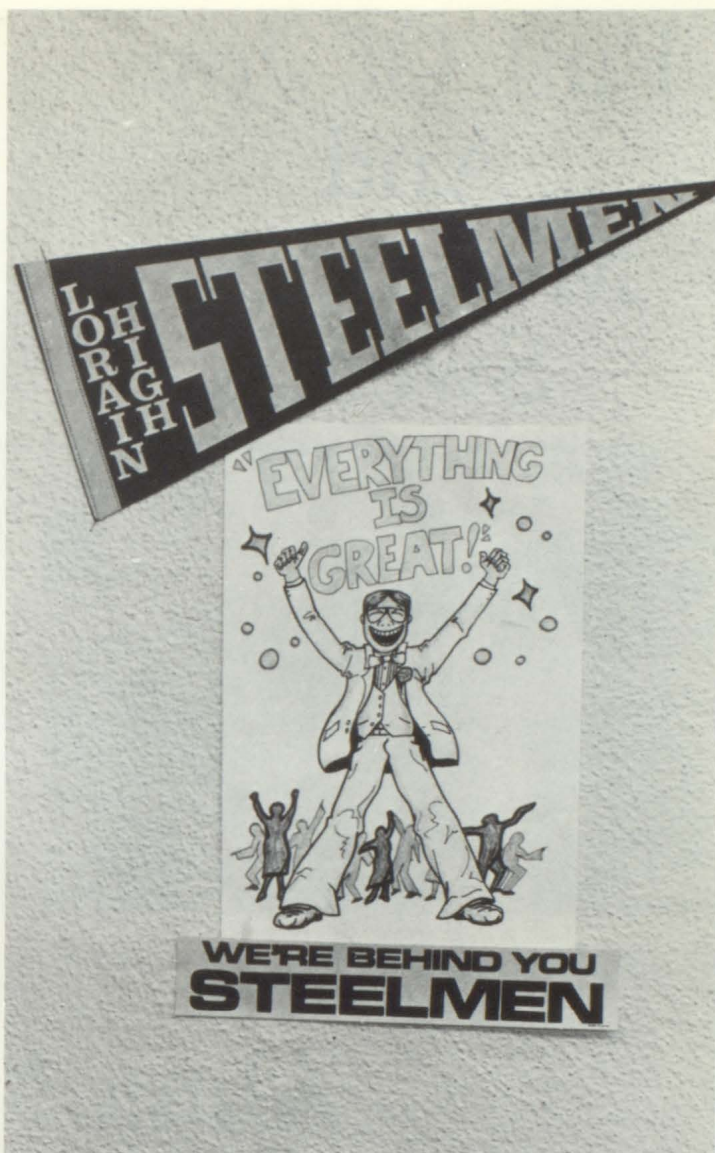

Lorain, the harbor high school,
Our praise to you
Shall there be endless
Loyal, brave, and true.

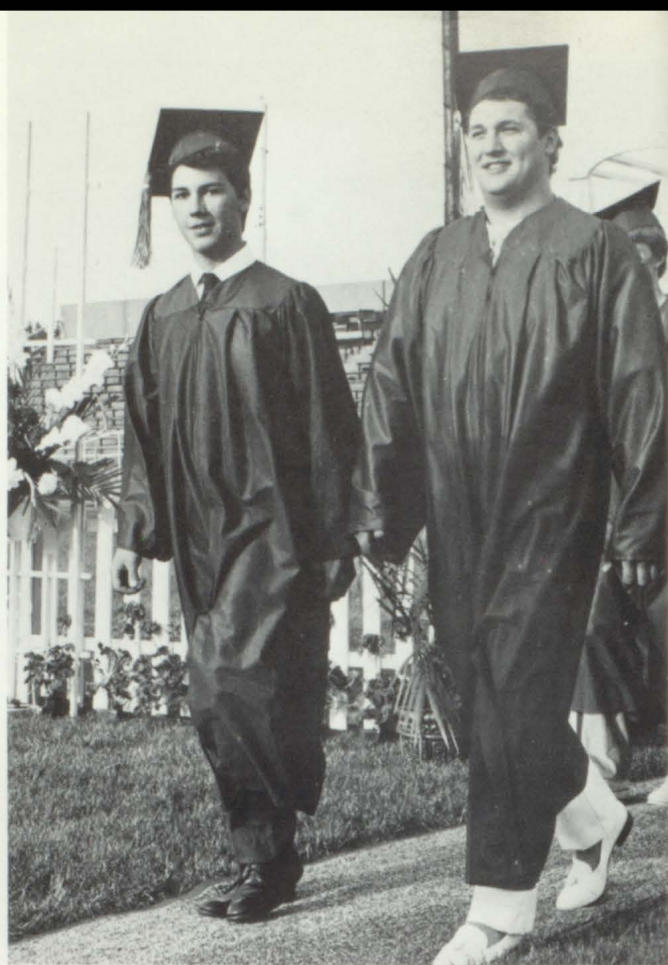

To You

To Lavender and Purple,
Noble and strong
To Lorain High School
We raise our song!

Full Of Joy And Memories Sweet . . .

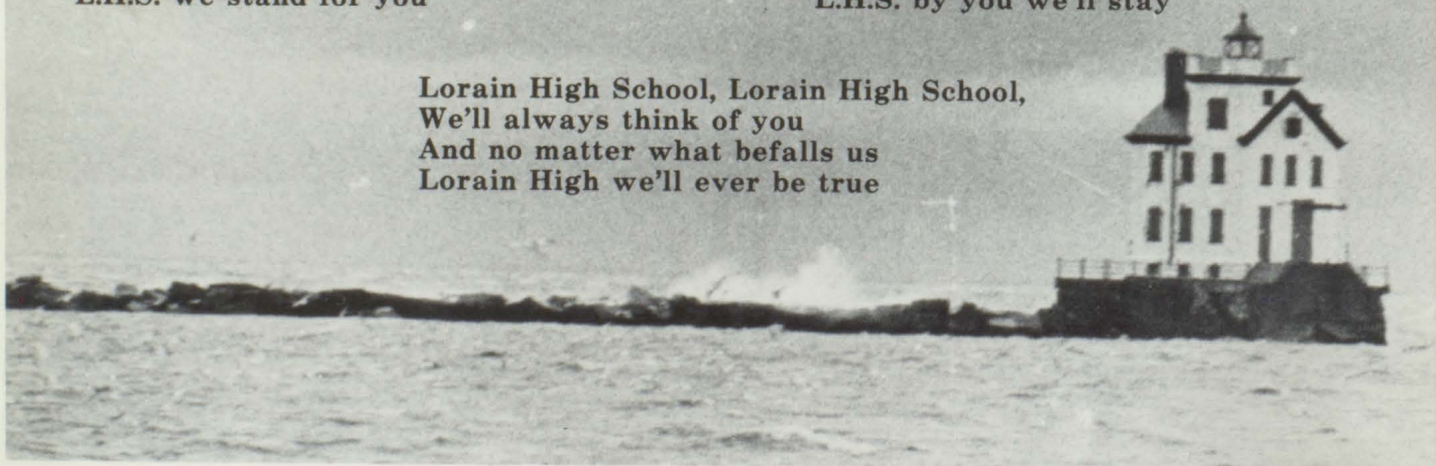

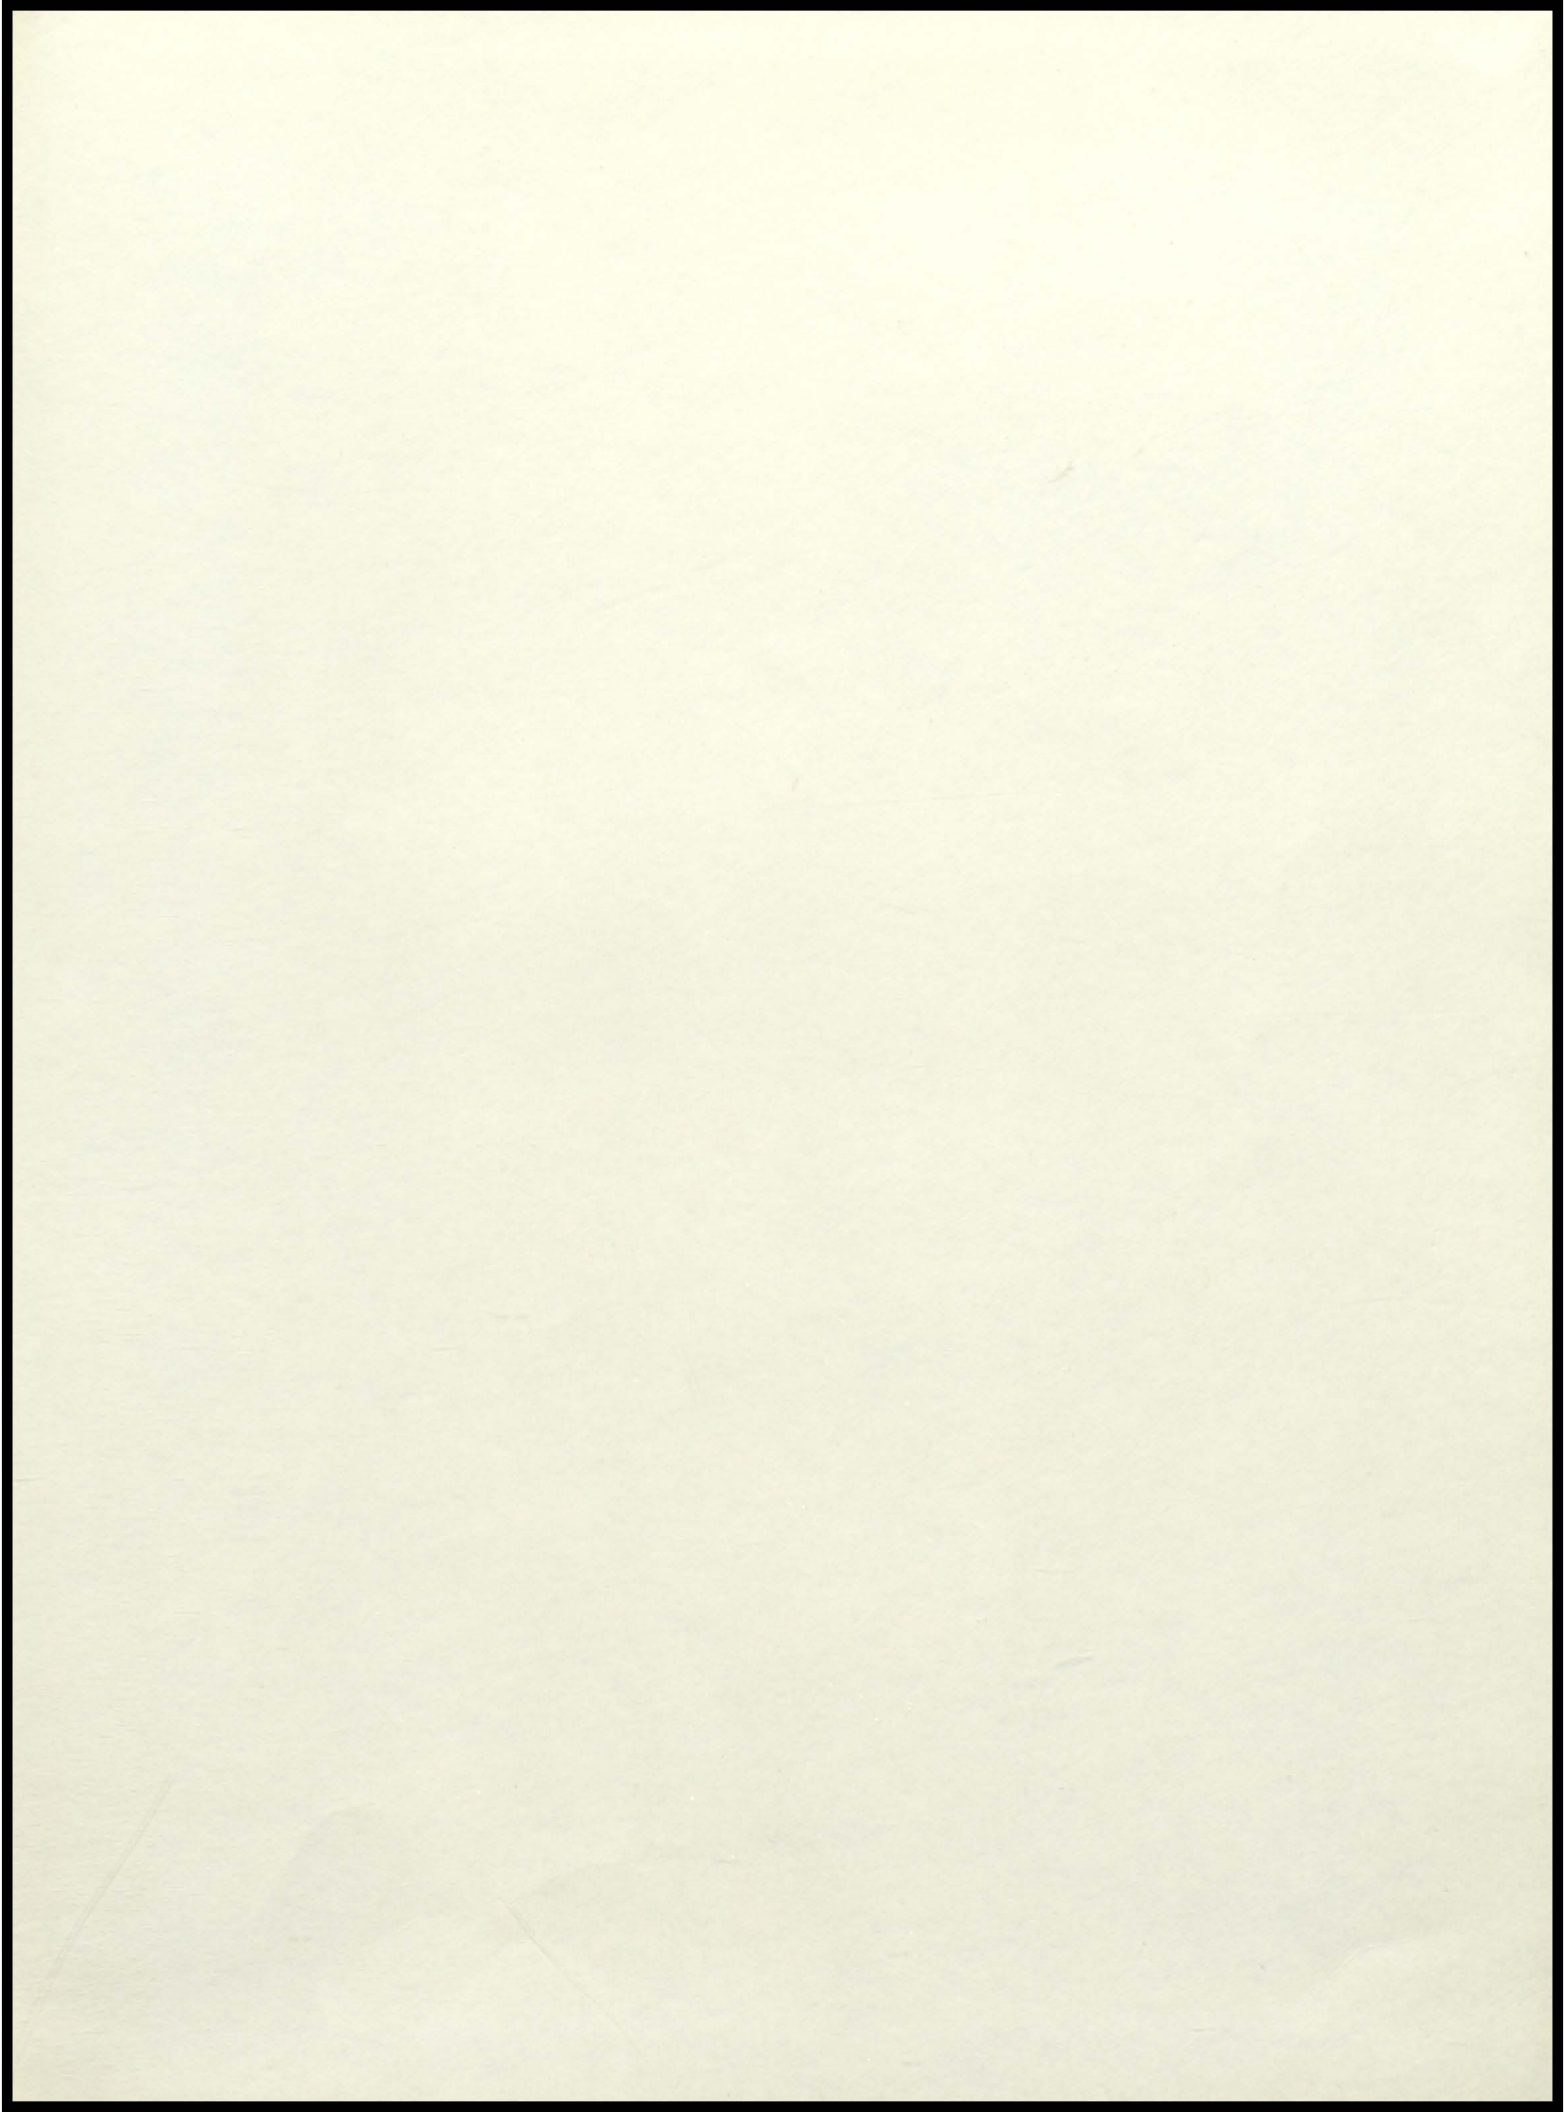

Alma Mater

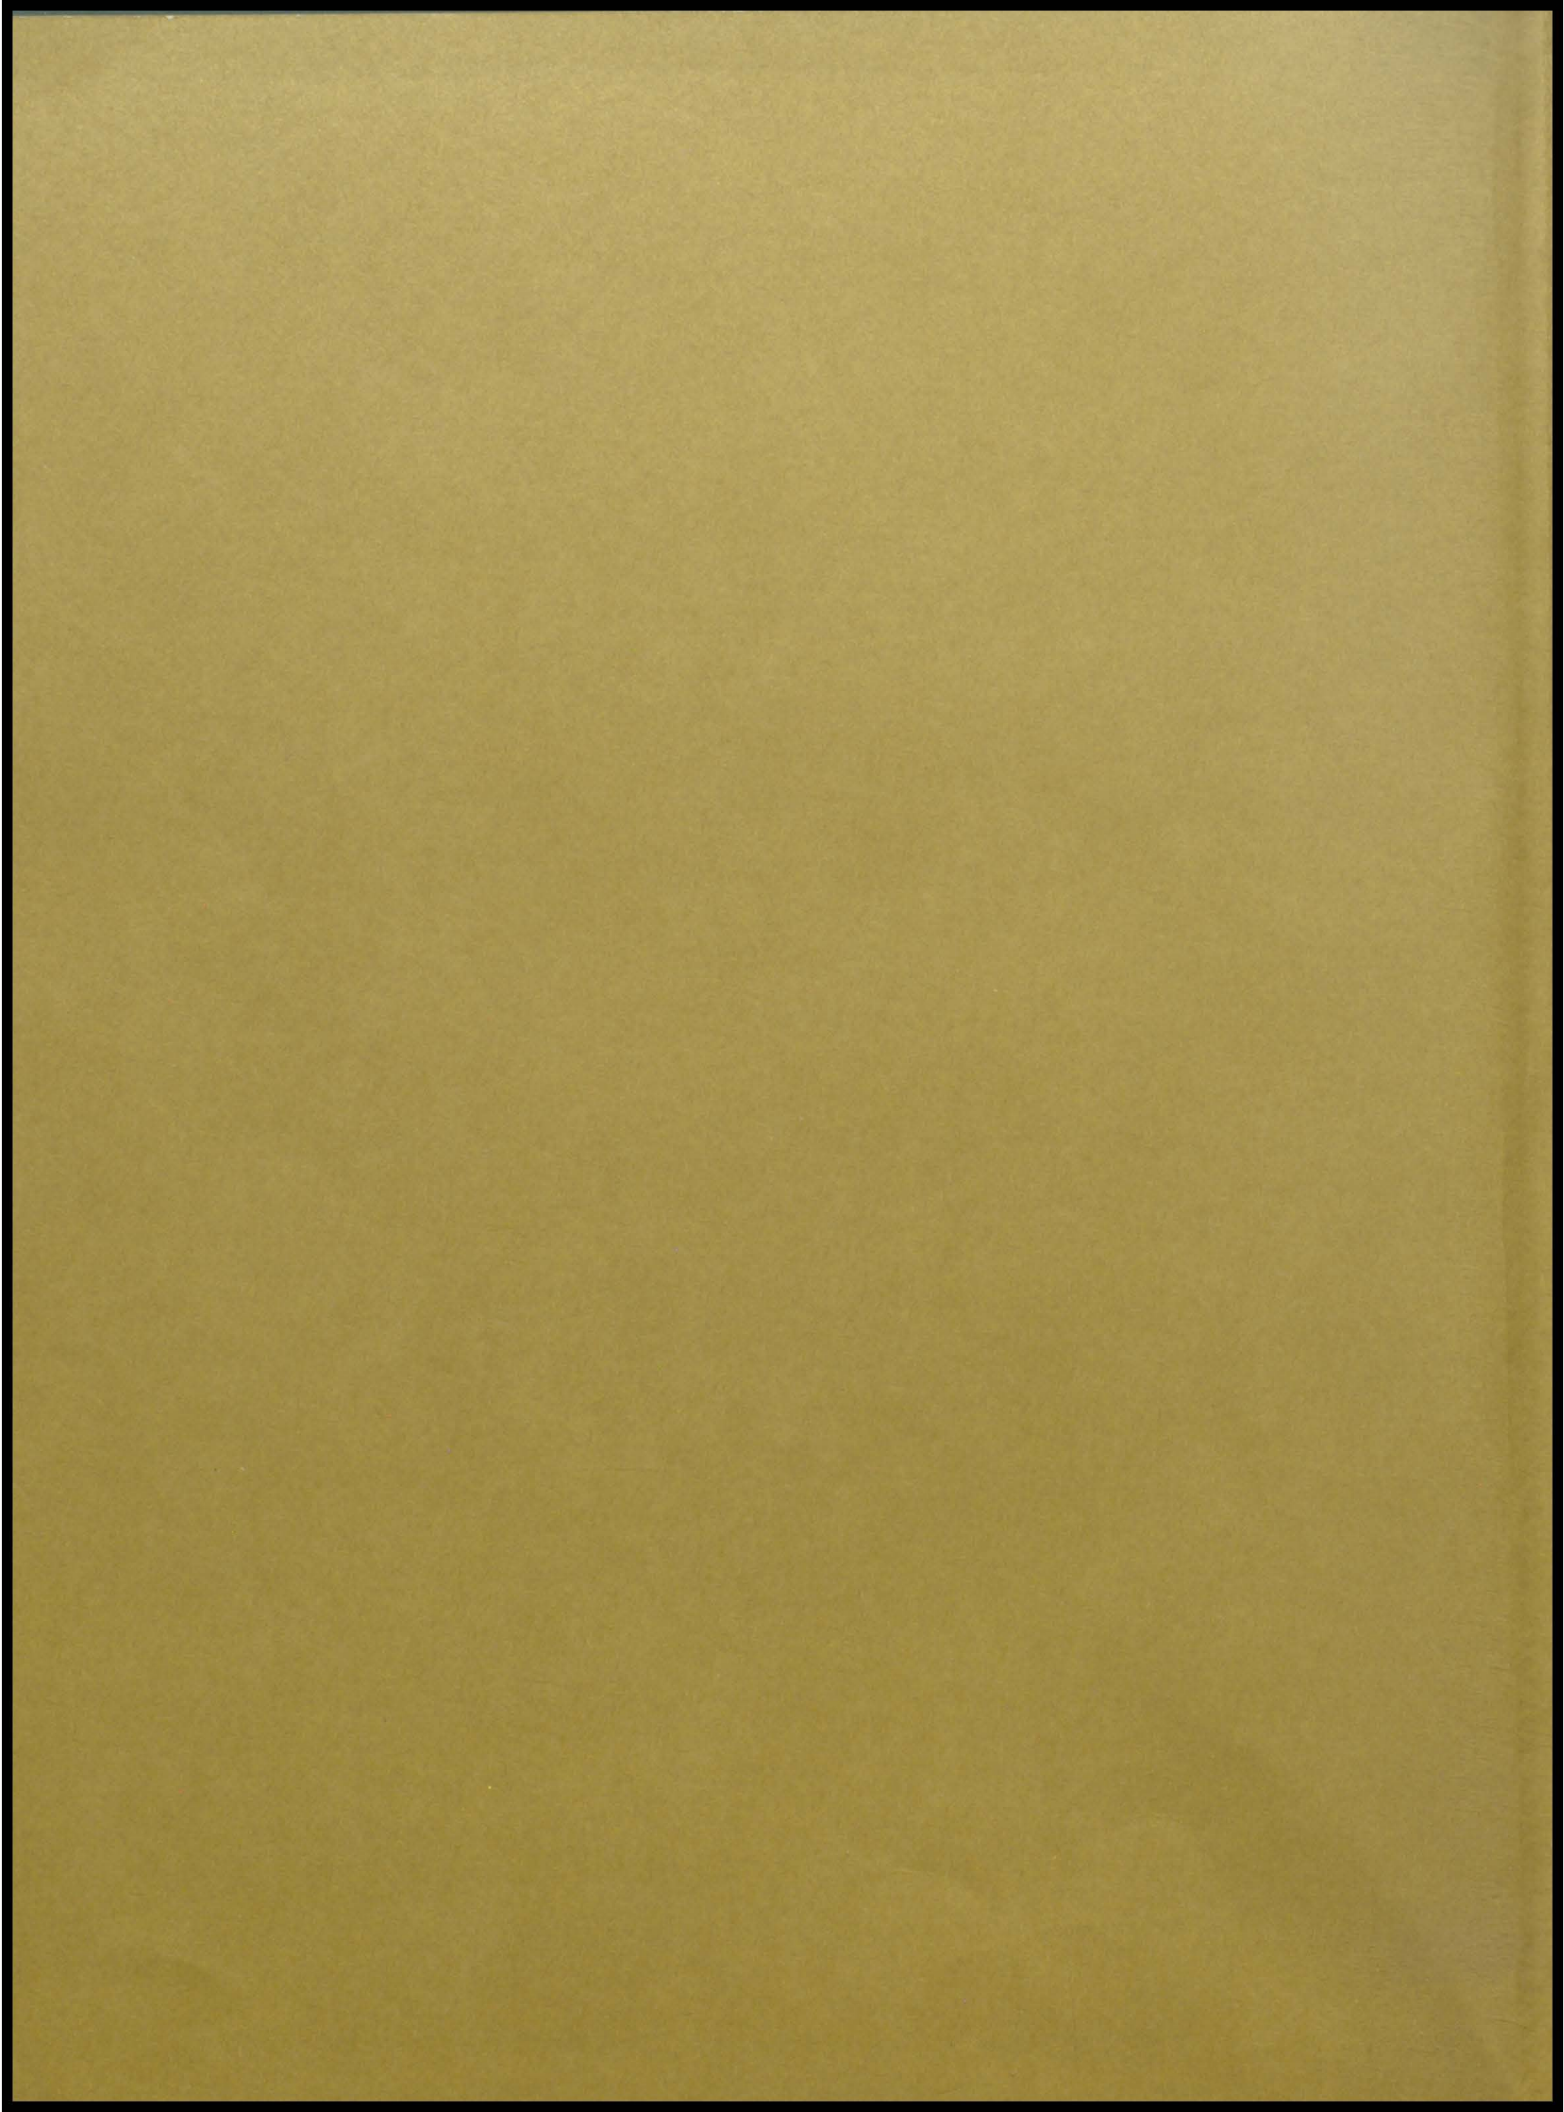

On the shores of old Lake Erie
Where the coal and iron meet
Stands our dear old Lorain High School
Full of joy and memories sweet
And the spirit that we find there
Growing up so strong and true
Brings us back to friendships made there
L.H.S. we stand for you

When our days of school are over
And a name we try to make
Back to us will come those memories
Of the high school by the lake
Then we'll long to see the teachers
Who have helped us on our way
Oh, we love you, Alma Mater!
L.H.S. by you we'll stay

Lorain High School, Lorain High School,
We'll always think of you
And no matter what befalls us
Lorain High we'll ever be true
