Jean Jensen Art Teacher Extraordinaire

Jean Jensen retires from Clearview Local School after 30 years of service. Over the course of her years here at Clearview "Ms. J" offered so much more than Art instruction. Though Jean was passionate about her subject, she was like a mom to many of the Clearview students. She often offered her ear to listen and gave wise counsel and advice to students who were struggling with the emotions that come with being a teenager. Her room was often a place of solice, and an escape for many students.

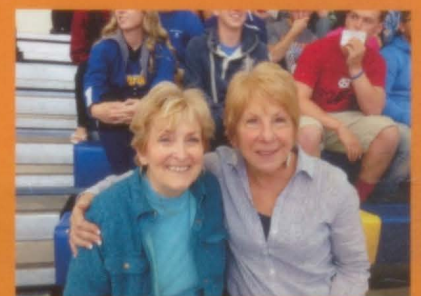

Ms. J was relentless in her pursuit to bring out the best in all of her students, giving them confidence to be successful. Her students have recieved numerous awards in Scholastic Art Shows and many have gone on to pursue careers in Art.

Mrs. Jensen was a teacher to the teachers with a heart and compassion that is rarely matched. She will be greatly missed, but her legacy will remain. As we walk the halls of our building there is evidence of her commitment to the Arts and to CHS. Lets hold on to all that she leaves behind: life lessons, love for our students, and love for Art.

Mrs. Jensen is pictured above with her husband Louie, her horse, previous art students, and her family (brothers Don & Dave, sister Vicki, and father Victor).

Joan Helber Dedicated Intervention Specialist

Joan Helber retires from Clearview Local Schools after 35 years of service. When we think of Joan and her contribution to our school and community the first thing that comes to mind is Thanksgiving Baskets!! As the Student Counsel Co-Advisor Mrs. Helber was the proponent of the Thanksgiving Food Drive. This campaign, which is sponsored by Student Council, feeds multiple families in our district. This is the largest service project that is undertaken by CHS yet her efforts have never waned. She always strove to feed more and give more.

Mrs. Helber has worked with many students who have needed a little more "tender loving care" than most. At times she has had more patience and determination than the students themselves. She has guided many to success and has gone above and beyond her responsibilities to make sure that her students graduate and meet their post high school goals.

Joan Helber was a dedicated and kind educator and well loved by students and staff.
