AVON EAGLETTE

Dedication

DEDICATION

We, the Annual Staff, Faculty Staff, and student body of Avon High School wish to dedicate the yearbook of 1953 to our principal, Mr. William Hovart Jones.

He has been with us for only one year and already is well liked by all the students in both the elementary and the high school. Every student upon graduation will remember their principal as a major figure, and also for his kindness and helpfulness during our time as students.

He attended Rio Grande College and Ohio State University. He got his masters Degree in School Administration at Wester Reserve University. He was both teacher and principal at both Camden and Wakeman High Schools before coming to Avon.

Class History

In September, 1949, twenty-three enthusiastic students enrolled as Freshman at Avon High School. We were full of big ideas, but the teachers soon made us realize that the main purpose of High School was to learn something. We were threatened by the seniors, the class of 1950, concerning the traditional initiation. We elected Susie Alten as president; Don Bayley as vice-president; Betty Svec as secretary and Rosemary Wearsch as treasurer for the year.

We lived through our initiation in fine fashion, thanks to Mr. Howard Gould, our class advisor. Our one social activity of the year was class party held on February 8.

In our Sophomore year we decided on blue and white as our class colors and also ordered our sweaters. Douglas Wingate was elected president; Betty Svec as vice-president; Gladys Hawkins as secretary and Jean Sarraino as treasurer.

Our Junior year was a money-making year. We sold pencils, spirals, and refreshments. We sponsored a paper sale and a dance. We received our precious class rings on October 16.

We spent all this money by giving the seniors a prom which was held at the Spring Valley Country Club on May 7.

We chose Don Bayley as president this year with Jim Fife as vice-president, Gladys Hawkins as secretary and Jean Sarraino as treasurer.

On April 15, the Junior class presented a three-act comedy titled Your Face is Familiar.

Through the years we lost members of our class until now, entering our senior year, we have only sixteen members. Election of officers was held and John DeChant and Susie Alten were chosen as co-presidents; Clara Lou Buckreis as secretary, and Rosemary Wearsch as treasurer.

The class presented a three-act play entitled "Glamour Boy" on November 14. The class also sponsored through the year, two paper drives, a bake sale, and many other money-making projects.

The main project of the year was planning for the trip to New York sometime in the spring.

Avon's football team started off the season by beating Ridgeville, an old rival, 18-13. The rest of the season was filled with a little bad luck. Even though the season was unsuccessful from the point of games won, it was successful in giving experience to the up-and-coming players.
