Our very own Columbia Raiders took on the Independence Blue Devils at the Gund Arena on Monday, January 24th. This was the first Gund performance for the Raiders and the fifth for Independence. As they took to playing on the same floor as LeBron James, the home team appeared somewhat awestruck, but quickly got their heads back into the game. The crowd was pumped and so were the players as the Raiders came out strong but could not block Independence's strong shooting force. High point scorers included Adam Erskine with 18 points, Trevor Brooks, and Lee Palmer. A solid three-pointer by John Santerre late in the second quarter kept the team going. Columbia's improvement since the thirty-point loss to Independence in December was obvious, but it wasn't enough to overcome the Blue Devils' dominant shooter, Andrew Keserich. For the Raiders, it was a heartfelt loss to the team that is ranked No. 8 in the state in Division III. Trevor Brooks described playing at Gund Arena as "fascinating, and a memorable experience." Brooks added his own memorable touch when he was forced out of bounds and scaled the scorekeepers' table. All members of both the JV and Varsity teams shared in the experience when Columbia cleared their bench as the clock ran down.

Many of those that attended the Raiders' afternoon game stayed to see the Cavaliers in action against the Washington Wizards. Despite a commanding lead, the Cavaliers lost their edge in the second half, as the Wizards worked their magic for a 106-97 victory over Cleveland.

Varsity cheerleaders also got in on the action as they cheered the team on from the regulation-size court's sidelines and performed for the crowd at halftime and between quarters. The squad debuted their competition routine and included home crowd favorites like "Hey, Raiders." Sarah Dupaski said, "[Cheering at the Gund] made me feel like a star!"

Live Like You We Dying

"Jack and Diane" painted a picture of my life and my dreams, Suddenly this crazy world made more sense to me Well I heard it today and I couldn't help but sing along Cause everytime I hear that song...

I go back to a two-toned short bed Chevy Drivin my first love out to the levy
 Livin life with no sense of time
 And I go back to the feel of a fifty yard line
 A blanket, a girl, some raspberry wine
 Wishin time would stop right in its tracks
 Every time I hear that song, I go back, I go back
 I used to rock all night long to "Keep On Rockin Me Baby" Frat parties, college bars, Just tryin to Impress the ladies I heard it today and I couldn't help but sing along Cause every time I hear that song....
 I go back to the smell of an old gym floor
 The taste of salt on the Carolina shore
 After graduation and drinkin goodbye to friends
 And I go back to watchin summer fade to fall
 Growin up too fast and I do recall
 Wishin time would stop right in its tracks
 Every time I hear that song, I go back, I go back

We all have a song that somehow stamped our lives
 Takes us to another place and time
 So I go back to a pew, preacher, and a choir
 Singin bout God, brimstone, and fire
 And the smell of Sunday chicken after church
 And I go back to the loss of a very good friend
 And the sixteen summers I shared with him
 Now "Only The Good Die Young" stops me in my tracks
 Every time I hear that song, I go back, I go back
 To the feel of a fifty yard line
 A blanket, a girl, some raspberry wine, I go back
 I go back
 To watchin summer fade to fall
 Growin up too fast and I do recall, I go back
 I go back
 To the loss of a very good friend
 And the sixteen summers I shared with him, I go back
 I go back
 I go back, I go back

Dear Staff and Students,

I would like to tell you all what an honor it has been working with you for the past three years. There are a lot of great memories that I will carry with me for the rest of my life.

The Class of 2005 - You were probably one of the funnest classes I ever got to teach. Remember, graduation is just a small step on the road of life. Always look towards the future, and don't dwell in the past. Remember, however, it is the past that made you who you are today. Congrats, and good luck with the future!

The Class of 2006 - My first class. I had most of you as Freshmen and then again as Juniors, and it is unbelievable how much most of you matured. Remember that your senior year is just as important as every other year. Never forget, Don't trample the flowers while looking for the stars. Good Luck! Also, tomorrow will be a Huck Finn Appreciation Day.

The Class of 2007 - Most definately the funniest and smartest class I ever had. There were so many good time freshmen year it's hard to think of them all. I wish you all the best of luck.

The Class of 2008 - You're Sophomores now, you made it. No longer at the bottom. As you walk down the hallway to room 1 you'll notice the lights will be on and the door will be open, but Club Goulis will be gone. It will live on in your memories only. Good Luck, and try to remember to be on-time to class.

And so I bid you all farewell. When we shall meet again I do not know. It's funny the way life turns out. Isn't it?

Sincerly
- Goulis
