Congratulations

4 of June, 2006 Graduation

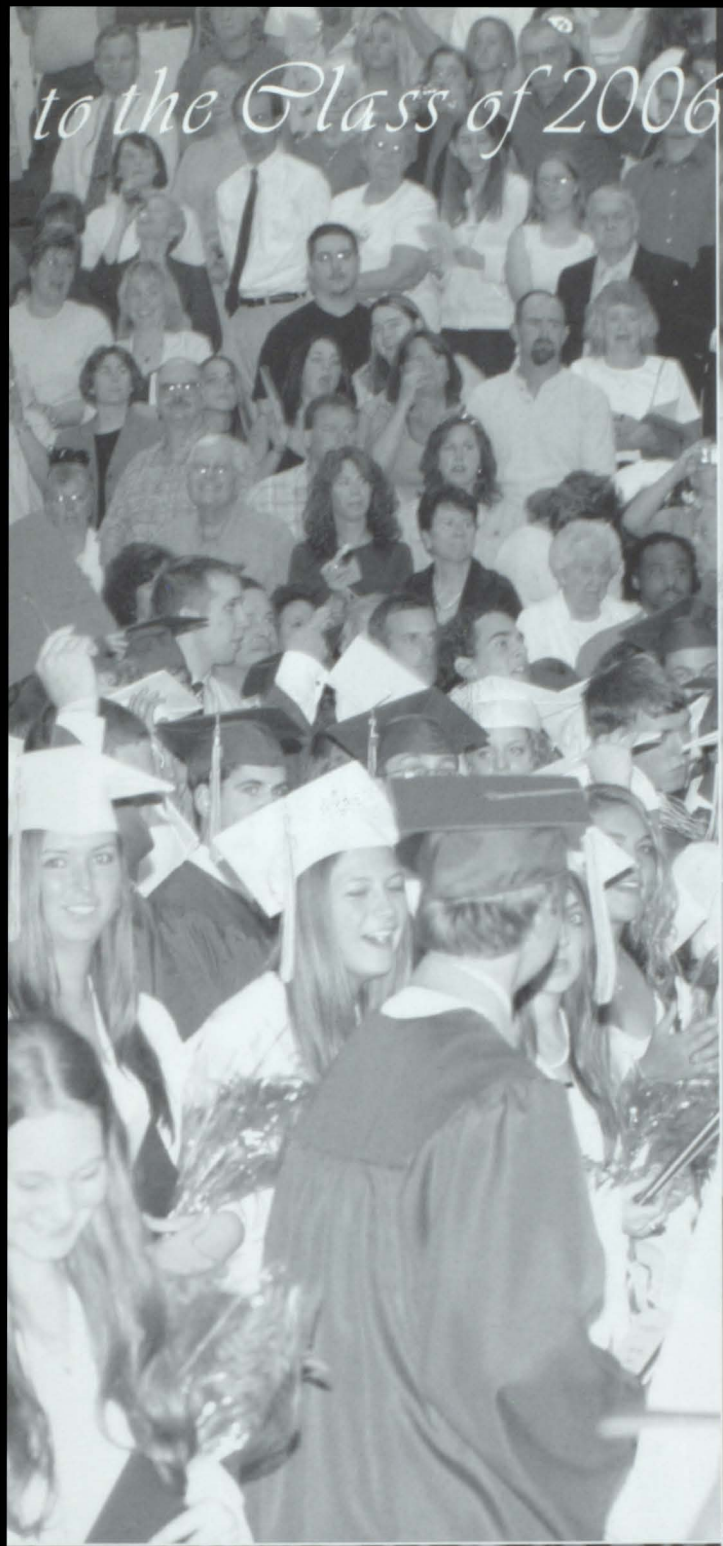

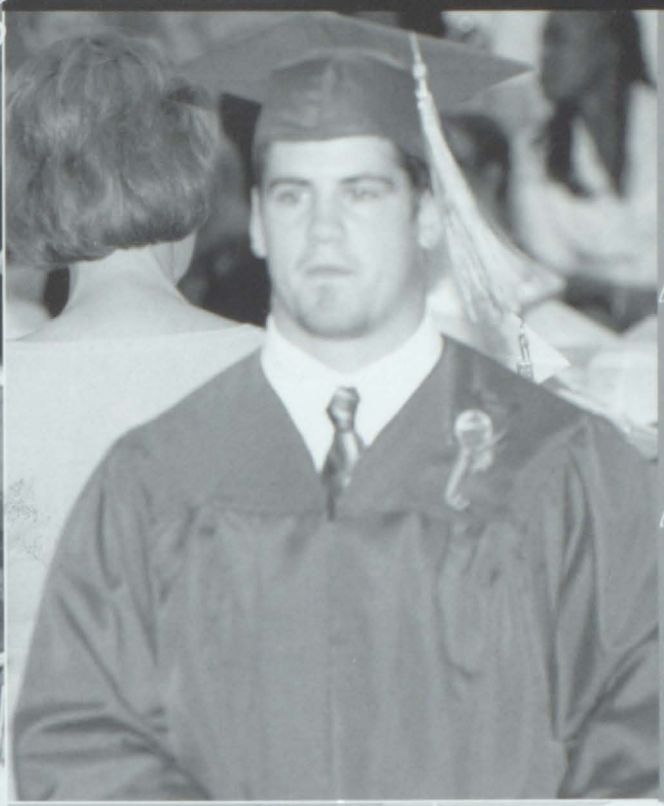

"Sooner or later we all discover that the important moments in life are not the advertised ones, not the birthdays, the graduations, the weddings, not the great goals achieved. The real milestones are less prepossessing. They come to the door of memory unannounced, stray dogs that amble in, sniff around a bit and simply never leave. Our lives are measured by these."

"A brief candle: both ends burning. An endless mile: a bus wheel turning.
A friend to share the lonesome times, a handshake and a sip of wine.
So say it loud and let it ring, we are all a part of everything.
The future, present and the past, fly on proud bird: you're free at last."

Favorite Senior Memories

ASHLEY MOATS

My favorite memory was playing with my sister my sophomore year. She was the pitcher and I was the catcher. Another memory was floppy fish.

JEN OLEKSY

My favorite memory was making the winning catch against Midview and also making Firelands cry.

ELAYNA NOWAK

My favorite memory was beating Midview our last game my senior year and the floppy fish.

When you were born you brought us great excitement and we haven't had a dull moment since. As you grew, your smile, entusiasm and zest for life has kept us constantly entertained. Your goodness and kindness in the way you treat others gives us joy and makes God smile. You have endured trials that would make most men crumble. You have learned that getting knocked down is easy. You have taught us that getting up without ever losing your faith or smile is a gift.
In our eyes we see a great young man but in our hearts you will always be our baby boy.
We love you and we are proud of you.

Gina Mingo

Gina,

No words can convey the love and pride we feel for you. From the time you were small, you've strived to do your best in everything. You have worked hard and accomplished much. But, it is your kind, gentle spirit and sensitivity to others we are most proud of.

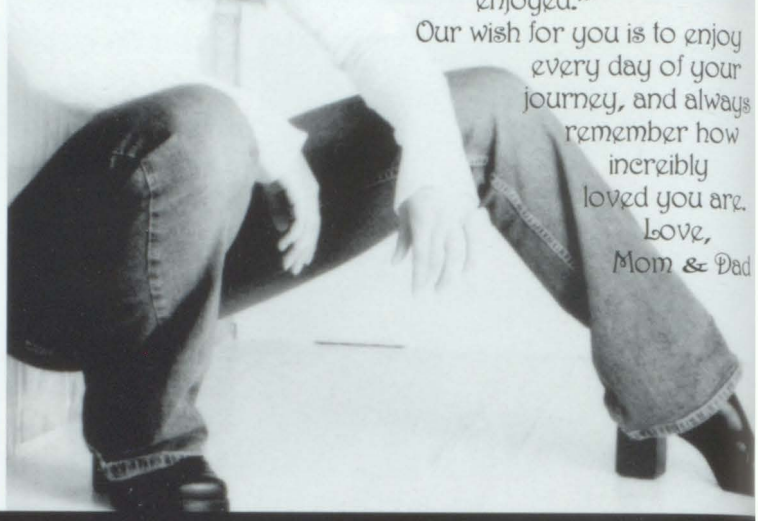

Thank you, for making parenting such a joyful experience.

As you go on and face new challenges, remember "life is a journey not a destination. In between our goals is a thing called life that has to be lived and enjoyed."

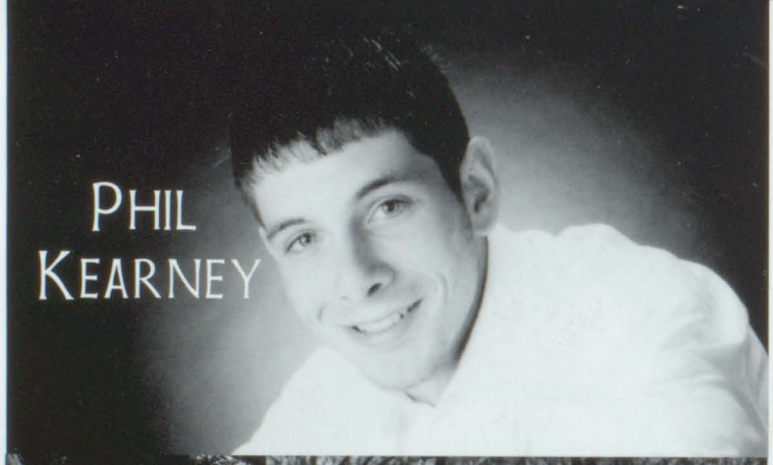

Our wish for you is to enjoy every day of your journey, and always remember how incredibly loved you are.

Love,
Mom & Dad

Hurricanes ravage the Gulf Coast region in the fall of 2005, posing an unprecedented test of the United States federal emergency response efforts. Hundreds of lives are lost and thousands are left homeless in the wake of Category 4 Hurricane Katrina, followed by Rita and Wilma. The tragedy spurs contributions of money, talents, homes, food and more in an attempt to raise spirits and rebuild the area.

RISING FROM THE STORMS

August

25 Hurricane Katrina strikes Florida.

28 Mandatory evacuation of both New Orleans and Mississippi is ordered as Katrina becomes a Category 5 storm in the Gulf of Mexico.

29 Downgraded to a Category 4 storm, Katrina hits land. 1.3 million homes and businesses lose electricity in Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama. 30 levees are breeched, flooding New Orleans and leaving 100,000 people stranded. After slow government response, civil unrest and looting begins.

31 President Bush surveys the damage.

September

1 30,000 National Guard troops are deployed. Gas prices spike to as high as $5 per gallon.

2 President Bush visits Louisiana and signs a $10.5 billion relief bill. Nearly 154,000 evacuees arrive in Texas.

4 The New Orleans Superdome is evacuated.

6 President Bush and Congress pledge to investigate the flawed disaster response.

9 Government-issued debit cards are distributed to evacuees. The program fails and is ended days later.

12 Michael Brown, head of the Federal Emergency Management Agency, resigns. Flooding is down to 50 percent in New Orleans.

14 New Orleans Mayor Ray Nagin announces a phased repopulation plan.

15 New Orleans begins to reopen. Katrina is named the most destructive hurricane in U.S. history.

20 Louisiana Governor Kathleen Blanco declares a state of emergency as Hurricane Rita strengthens off the coast.

22 Rita hits the Louisiana coast and heads for Texas.

23 Thousands evacuate eastern Texas and the 9th Ward of New Orleans floods once again after levees are overrun.

October

24 Hurricane Wilma hits southwest Florida.

◀ Hoping to restart the peace process with the Palestinians, Israel evacuates the Gaza Strip, an area it has occupied since the 1967 Six-Day War.

Thierry Bordas/EPA/Landov

▲ Civil unrest rocks France as more than 300 towns and suburbs explode with riots and arson. High unemployment, racial discrimination and rage are blamed for the outbreaks.

05-06 Science and Nature

▼ A global pandemic is feared as the avian flu claims 73 lives in Asia by the end of December and threatens to spread across the world.

Bloomberg News/Landov

▲ After seven years and 2.88 billion miles, NASA's Stardust capsule returns to earth carrying dust particles from the tail of the comet Wild 2. Scientists believe the samples hold clues to the formation of the Solar System.

▲ The American Dental Association cites bottled water and its lack of fluoride as a major contributing factor in the rise of tooth decay in children.

Kathy Willens/AP/Wide World Photos

▲ According to recent research, chocolate can be a healthy treat thanks to its high content of flavonoids, which help maintain good circulation and reduce blood clotting.

◀ Natalee Holloway, an 18-year-old from Birmingham, Alabama, becomes the lead story for every major news outlet after her disappearance while vacationing in Aruba.

05-06 Fashion

Everywhere you look this year sparkle is in with teen girls.

Steve Granitz/WireImage.com

From preppy to vintage looks, vests make a bold statement in the fall of 2005.

Cowboy boots see a rise in popularity, and not just for line dancers and country music fans.

The "hoodie" is a staple in most teens' wardrobes.

Michael Taylor/Everett Collection

Blazers with a retro fit make a big splash on the fashion scene.

Style gets a dose of fun over formal with these unique fashion alternatives.

Flip-flops are considered a fashion necessity, not just casual footwear.

05-06 Lifestyle
