December, 1990

The Douglas County, Kansas, Genealogical Society is beginning another ambitious project. This letter is to introduce the project to you and encourage your participation in it.

The Society will be publishing The Douglas County, Kansas, Family Histories, 1991-1992 in early 1993. This volume will portray Lawrence and its citizens as they were in 1991-1992, who lived here and how they came to be in this area. The last time this sort of information was gathered and recorded was in the late 1800's so you can see it is time for another edition.

Every person living in Douglas County now has a history that should be recorded for future generations to read. You are important to this book whether your history is one year or one hundred years in the county.

The success of this book hinges on your involvement and efforts to participate. Please read the enclosed materials and put your history in writing and send it to the Society.

If you have any comments or questions please don't hesitate to call me or the committee members.

Sincerely,

Mary D. Burchill
President

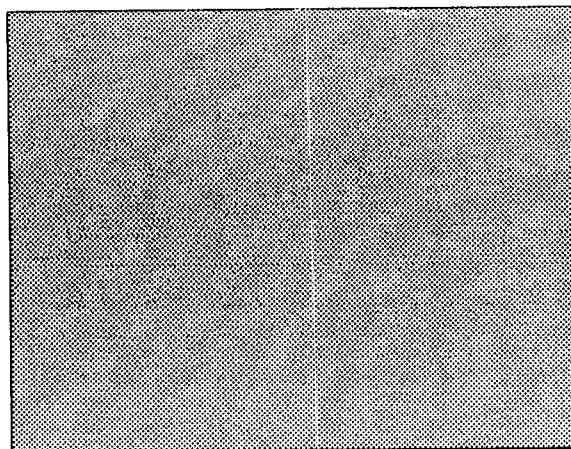

Douglas County, Kansas, Genealogical Society

Virgil O. Dresser

Virgil O. Dresser was born in 1832 and came to Leavenworth with his father, Joseph, in 1859 from Old Orchard Beach, Maine. They spent the winter in the Salt Creek Valley with the Cody family and their son, William (Buffalo Bill), so the story goes. In the 1860 census Virgil was in Arapahoe County, Denver Township, evidently looking for gold. He returned to Leavenworth and was a member of the Kansas Militia, 1st Brigade. In the 1870 census he was in Leavenworth, 32 years old and a land dealer. He married Nancy Oldhausen with whom he had five children: Alice, Virgil Jr., Eli C., Edmund and Ada. Descendants of these children still live in Leavenworth. In 1873 Virgil was listed as a sand dealer and he had a thriving business getting sand from the Missouri River for many building projects in and around Leavenworth. For a number of years, and maybe still now, the sign for Dresser Sand Co. was visible at his place of business on the river. When Nancy died in 1892 she was buried in Greenwood Cemetery. Virgil married Henrietta Malinda Garrettson Leslie in late 1895 or early 1896. The children from this marriage were three boys: James Deering, William Apple and Samuel Lewis. Their home was on Marxen Road on the farm home in Prairie Township in Wyandotte County, which as far as can be determined Virgil bought early for his father, Joseph, to care for. Virgil died in 1913. James Deering married Grace Parisa and lived in Lawrence, Kansas. He retired from the Lawrence Fire Department and then gardened until his death in 1987. William Apple married Ruth Brightwell and lived in Leavenworth where he worked for the Leavenworth Times for many years until his retirement and death in 1977. Samuel Lewis married Hazel Higley and lived on the farm while working as a teacher. He died in 1961.

All three widows survive. Ruth and Hazel live in Lansing and Grace in Lawrence.

Submitted by Mary Henrietta Dresser Burchill, daughter of James Deering in Lawrence, Kansas.

This document for the Douglas County, Kansas, Family Histories Book 1991-1992, Vol. 1 is a suggested sample page layout only. The text does not include the preferred dates and places of births, marriages, deaths, burials, etc.

DOUGLAS COUNTY GRADUATES OF THE UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS 1897

Taken from the Senior Annual, University of Kansas (1897), available at the Watkins Community Museum and the Lawrence Public Library Kansas Collection.

Eugene Charles Alder—Graduated at the L. H. S.; A. B., K. U.; A. M., K. U.; Β Θ Π, Φ Β Κ, Α Marquette, Pres. of the L. H. S. Alumni Association, Pres. of the German Verein, candidate for presidency of Class of '97, chairman of first committee on Class Annual, member of play committee, Asst. Local Editor of the Weekly, member of the Class Day committee, ex-captain of the Beta foot ball team, and heavy villain in the Senior play, was born in '76, hence his patriotism. This modest and precocious youth is a living and characteristic specimen of Lawrence soil, born in the very shade of Mt. Oread. On account of his extreme reticence and strong aversion to publicity, it is greatly feared his true worth will never be fully appreciated. When old enough to leave his maternal wing he will depart for the ancient land "der Deutchen."

Miss Harriet Ayres—Was born only a few years ago at Wickford, Rhode Island, in the effete East. But finding the field too limited for her expansion, at the age of ten she brought her family to Kansas. From that time on she has shown evidences of strong disciplinary power, and has her entire family trained to a state of the most complete and touching submission. Miss Ayres prepared to enter K. U. at the Lawrence High School. During her college course she has shown the greatest interest in her studies, and is particularly fond of the Latin language as employed by the late lamented Juvenal. As soon as she had passed the age limit Miss Ayres put on the colors of Pi Beta Phi. She is very loyal to the wine and pale blue.

Emma Barber—The cradle of the illustrious subject of this sketch was rocked by the sweeping Kansas breezes that moaned around the windows of the Main Building on Mt. Oread. Born and fostered as she was under the shadow of learning, it was natural that her childish mind should turn to scholastic pursuits. She entered Lawrence public schools at a tender age, and graduated therefrom in due course, the sweetest of "sweet girl graduates." The day she entered the University a general holiday was proclaimed. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta. Her future efforts will be devoted to the study of domestic science—at home.

Florence Greeley Clarke—Was born in a Bastile, to-wit: the Douglas County Jail. This event took place on the 12th. day of October A. D., 1876. The back of a very early photograph bears the following record, evidently traced by a prejudiced hand. "Amiable, loving and self-willed, fond of dressing up in sisters ribbons, beads, etc. A very great talker and a very dear child—a real feminine character." Her friends will be able to determine with a moment's thought which of these characteristics have survived. She graduated from the Lawrence High School May, '92, and entered K. U. in the fall of '93. She is a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta fraternity and a Daughter of the American Revolution. Her past is secure, but the future is conjectural.

Miss May E. Gardner—Born A. N. C. Died—— Miss Gardner spent her childhood in Lawrence, and also in a very successful attempt to rival Jack's Bean-stalk. This laudable ambition has left its mark upon Miss Gardner's character, inasmuch as she has, from her superior elevation, a broad, comprehensive view of the fields of knowledge. Early in her college course the Pi Phis, with the discernment for which they are noted, saw an opportunity and acted upon it, pinned their colors upon Miss Gardner, and forthwith made her permanent chairman of the decoration committee, with personal charge of the upper tier of party decoration, thus at one fell swoop doing away with step-ladders, and making tasteful decoration a surety. As a member of the Senior play committee she has been very instrumental in assuring the success of the play.

Constance Genevieve Howland.—

"She's pretty to look at
And witty to talk to,
And pleasant indeed to be with."

Miss Howland was born Aug 12th, 1875, in Kalamazoo, Mich. At the age of five wishing to avail herself of the exceptional educational advantages of Kansas State University, she moved to Lawrence. Shortly after her arrival she became interested in politics and at present she is a mugwump and entertains pronounced views upon woman suffrage. She will spend the summer cultivating a dignified and non-committal expression, and in the Fall will enter the K. U. Law School.

Mr. O'Neil—The subject of this sketch is a young man of many parts. His industry is only exceeded by his zeal for higher learning, while his intellectual attainments and genial nature add charm to strength and integrity of character. All who know him speak his name with pleasure. He was born in 1871 in the quiet and unassuming hamlet of Black Jack, Kansas, where he finished the common school course which prepared him for Baker University. In the fall of 1894, Mr. O'Neil entered the E. E. Department of K. U. The spirit with which he has made his way through school prophesies a brilliant future for him.

May Fuller Riggs—Was born in the fall of 1876, in the most picturesque part of that most picturesque town, Lawrence, Kansas. In her very early youth a sweet modesty and reserve concealed her many native charms and talents. As she grew older these said charms and talents like unto the curls of the novel-heroine, would creep out. They are now viewed by an admiring and ever sympathetic public. Among Miss Riggs' various claims to fortune and to fame is the fact that she is musical. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta Fraternity and although she enjoys society much she prefers writing forensics for her English professor. Upon graduating she intends to enter upon a brilliant musical career as Senorita Maria.

Gertrude M. Spaulding—Was born February 3, 1875, in the historic city of Lawrence. She early manifested a talent for music which was not neglected during her school days. After graduating from the High School in 1893, she entered the Music Department of Kansas University where she has pursued both the piano and vocal courses. This year she has devoted her efforts solely to piano in which she graduates this spring. However, to interested friends we give the consolation that her remarkable vocal talent is not to be neglected, but will be further developed here next year, and later abroad, after which we may look for her among the leading prima donnas of the West.

Alta Stanton—Was born October 29th, 1875 near Lawrence. Her education was received mostly under private instructors until she entered the second year of the High School. Here the trials met with in mathematics led her to make a specialty of the languages. Her intellectual powers unfolded until finally she publicly proved her ability to seek new fields of study by depicting Gipsy life in all its weirdness, and was granted a diploma. The following fall she entered the University and became a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Fraternity. She continued her study of the languages wisely eschewing all mathematics and sciences not absolutely required. She developed a great liking for the linguist branches and advanced to such a degree that she can now distinguish French, German and Spanish not only from English but from each other.

Louise Augusta Wiedemann—Has been a resident of Lawrence all her life. She entered the Preparatory Department of the School of Fine Arts in 1893, and became a regular student the following year. Miss Wiedemann has won much praise as an accompanist and hopes to give this much neglected branch of piano forte study her special attention. Although she is not a brilliant player her style is pleasing and sympathetic. She intends taking a postgraduate course next year.

LAWRENCE HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES 1875 - 1885

From 1865 through 1890, high school students in Lawrence, KS attended school at the Central School, primarily an elementary school. Those high school students wishing to attend the University of Kansas usually entered KU's "preparatory" department rather than the local high school until the department was discontinued in the mid-1880s, since graduation there meant guaranteed admission. The following list of students graduated from the Central School was taken from the First Annual Report of the Board of Education for the Years 1868 - 1885, which can be found at the Watkins Museum. LAWRENCE OLD HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES 1903

Lawrence's first official High School, later called Old High, was built on the east side of Warren (now Kentucky) Street across from the old Central School. The first classes in Old High were held in the fall of 1890. The curriculum was set to Kansas University admission standards, and therefore it became the state's preparatory school for KU, drawing students from areas outside Lawrence. In 1900, the old Central School was demolished and new Central was constructed, and some high school classes held there. This list of members of the class of 1903 comes from The Windmill, Vol. 1, No. 9, published by the high school 29 May 1903, and donated to the Watkins Museum by Richard Riggs. The "biographies" were compiled by Eugenie STERLING in 1903. Researched by the editor.

MRS. WIEDEMANN'S MEMORIES OF EARLY LAWRENCE SCHOOL DAYS

Taken from the Lawrence Daily Journal World, 6 Dec. 1941. Submitted by the Watkins Museum.

Mrs. WIEDEMANN recalls that first she attended school in a building across the street from her home, then later went to Turner Hall at Tenth and New York Streets. In the upper grades and for part of her high school course she was a pupil at the Old Unitarian Church, in the 900 block of Ohio, the same block in which her father later built a home and where she and Mr. WIEDEMANN lived with her parents for some years after their marriage.

The basement of the church was used for the lower grades and the main room for the upper grades and high school. It was heated by stoves in which green wood was burned and to keep the sap from dripping into the room, buckets were hung along the stove pipe one at each joint.

In 1866 the Old Central School was built, and here Mrs. WIEDEMANN finished her high school work. Miss Sarah BROWN and Mrs. CARPENTER taught high school classes, which were held in the upper rooms.

MEMORIES OF BLUE MOUND COLORED SCHOOL

Extracted from Memories of Early Days in Kansas, by Anna Smith IRWIN, written 8 Jul 1938, and available at the Kansas State Historical Society, Topeka.

The first school house built was for the colored people who could neither read nor write. It was located in the north east corner of the OGDON farm, now known as the DUNNING farm. Aunt Emma KILWORTH who was about 15 years old taught the school. Most of the pupils were colored. Queen HINES was very anxious to learn and sat by the door to watch her children who were playing outside. Anna BROOKS attended this school and told me what I have just written. (NOTE: Emma KILWORTH later became Mrs. JACOBS.)

MISS COATHRUP, ENGLISH TEACHER

I was sent to school to a very charming English teacher Miss COATHRUP... She was engaged to teach French at the University of Kansas, but she had such a strong English accent that the University people were very much opposed to having her continue to teach because the students had difficulty understanding her. She came from a very fine family and she decided the only thing she could do was have a little school. From Fond Memories of My Eighty Years in Lawrence, by Claudia Pendleton Johnson (privately published, 1966), p.11. Submitted by the Watkins Museum.
