THE ACCIDENT AT CLINTON - 1888

Editor Tribune - Your account of the accident at Clinton on the 11th inst. by which Charles CHRISTIAN lost his life, was not correct in every particular. Charles was found by his brother, Leroy, a few moments after the report of the revolver was heard, lying on his back, assisted by James JENNINGS and Ed PAYNE, they carried the wounded boy into his father's store.

By all the circumstantial evidence that can be gathered and his many conflicting stories, it is quite evident that Willie MORRIS did the shooting, notwithstanding his denial thereof, First; He said, when ask what became of the revolver, after the shooting; "I threw the gun as far as I could see it". (Willie is known to be a very bad boy, who has given his father a great deal of trouble) When the teacher, S.B. KATHERMAN walked out the following morning to see the spot where the boy was shot, there lay the revolver, cocked. Mr. KATHERMAN picked it up and gave it to Leroy to put away.

We hope this sad affair maybe a lesson to the boys in this community, and to all others who are handling these dangerous weapons.

- IN MEMORIAL -

Charles E. CHRISTIAN was born in Douglas County, Kansas, July 29, 1873, and departed this life April 11, 1888. Until last spring he spent all his life on his father's farm, 3 miles south of Clinton, at which time Mr. CHRISTIAN bought the store of George WOODWARD and moved into town. Charlie was regarded by all who knew him as an exceptionally quiet and good boy, especially by his teachers and fellow-pupils, and was always in his place at school.

The funeral was held in the Clinton school house; and as a token of respect for the memory of their departed companion, the pupils decorated his desk and the blackboard with flowers, crape and evergreens. The funeral services were conducted by Revs. William MICHAEL and W.B. STEVENSON.

TOKEN OF AFFECTION BY TEACHERS AND CLASSMATES:

One we love has left our number
For the dark and silent tombs,
Closed his eyes in death's cold slumber;
Faded in his early bloom!

Minnie BULLOCK

Like Spring's first flowers he passed away
Mid innocence and bloom,
Flourish in a brighter world
Far, far beyond the tomb

Belle BLANKENSHIP

A loved one has gone from our school,
 On earth! We will meet him no more!
 He has gone to his home in Heaven
 Where all his Affliction are O'er!
 Ollie WHITE

We loved him! Yes; no tongue can tell
 How much we loved him; And how well
 God loved him too; And He thought it best
 To take him home with him to rest!
 Stella BREWER

Our young and gentle school-mate, whose smile
 Made bright the summer hours
 Amid the frost of Autumn time
 Has left us with the flowers
 Carrie RABER

No more with us his tuneful voice
 The Hymn of Praise shall swell;
 No more his cheerful heart rejoice
 When peals the school-room bell.
 Carrie PATTON

Sleep on, thou loved one! sleep.
 Sleep until thy mother comes
 To join thee in thy joy's above
 In Heaven, our happy home.
 Fred PATTON

His dimpled hands are folded O'er
 His pure and sinless breast,
 Like some sweet rose-bud crushed at morn,
 He lieth now at rest
 Eli RABOR

Our life, how short! A groan, a sigh
 We live, and then begin to die!
 But Oh! how great a mercy this;
 That death's a portal into bliss.
 Elma RABER

He's gone - and left us here to weep -
 To joys beyond our review;
 And when, like him, we fall asleep
 May we be happy too.

Dear Charlie, unto earth
 A little while was given!
 Then, plumed his wings for flight
 And soared away to heaven!

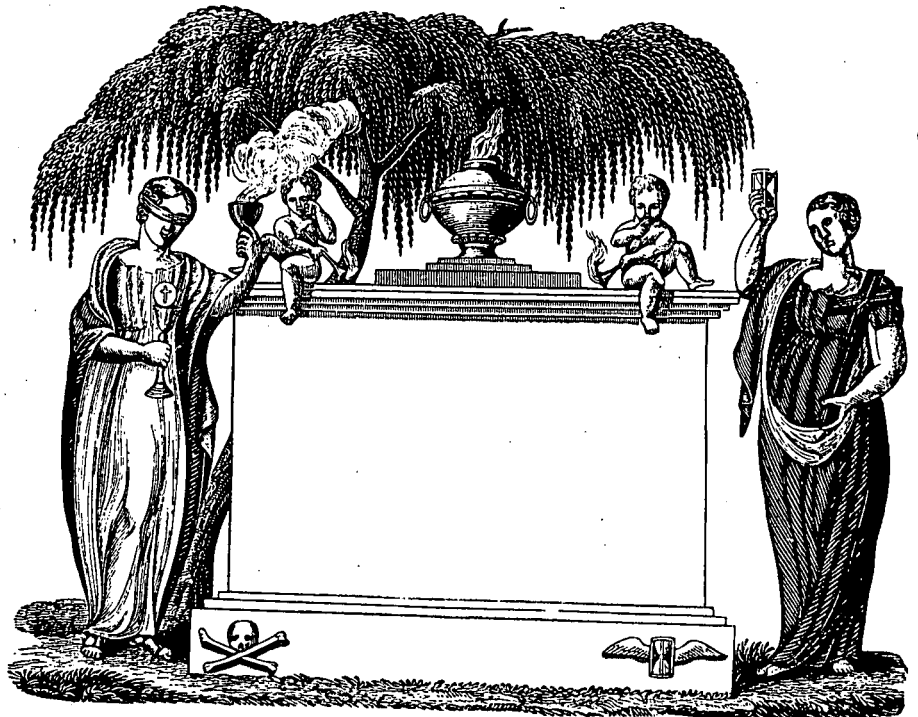

James PATTON

A precious one from us is gone!
 A voice we lov'd is still'd!
 A place is vacant in my school
 That never can be filled
 But sleep, dear Charlie, take the rest!
 God called the home; He thought it best.
 T'were hard, indeed, for us to part
 But Christ's strong arm supports us still

VOLUME I - LAWRENCE CITY CEMETERIES

ELLA (REBER) GERSTENBERGER Memories

(As related for Eudora Heritage Book 1975)

My Grandfather, Joshua REBER and Grandmother, Esther (Hollenbeck) REBER, were born in Hamburg, Pennsylvania. They had eight sons and three daughters. They came to Kansas in 1878 with two sons, Oscar and my father, Daniel, and one daughter, Alice (Mrs. Andrew KOHLER).

Grandfather was a Civil War Veteran and I have some of the medals and brass buttons he wore on his uniforms. I am still using his walking cane.

Grandfather REBER built the front part of the house I now live in; my father added to the house in later years. (This was midway between 9th and 10th Street on Church Street, west side of street). He had a blacksmith shop where my garden is located. Occasionally we still find square nails and bits of harness, etc., when the garden is plowed. He later moved his shop to 10th and Church Street, where Mrs. Bill KELLY now lives. Grandfather sold the blacksmith shop to Ed MISTELE. The white lilac bush, flowering almond and the Juneberry bush in my yard were planted by my Grandmother REBER.

During part of my early life when I was in school, I stayed with her and helped her cook for boarders. She never cooked on Sunday; always fixed the Sunday meals on Saturday and kept them warm in her oven. She would sit by the front window in her rocking chair on Sundays and read her Bible.

My father was first attracted to my mother at the wedding of Minnie STROBEL, my mother's sister, and Peter NEIS. Daddy saw mother standing with the wedding party and remarked that Louisa STROBEL was going to be his girl. My older sister, Emma, was born in a hand-hewn log cabin. Dad later bought twelve acres, one fourth mile out of town (east) on the Cemetery Road, where Archie and Frances GOODGER now live. (Archie razed the old house and built a new one). Dad cut down walnut trees, built a home where I was born. It had one large room downstairs and two rooms upstairs. In alter years he added to the north side of the house. The first well drilled was on the west side of the house, three hundred and twenty feet deep, which turned out to be salt water.

Daddy built a smokehouse and did custom smoking. Fred ARKLE, John MIENEKE and John EVERLEY helped Dad butcher hogs in the lower yard. The hogs would hand in the big walnut tree overnight. The next day we cut up the meat and rendered lard in a big kettle outdoors. That night we stuffed sausage in cleaned hog intestines. I would sit on one end of the board that held the sausage machine and run the press.

Our fruits and vegetables were dried on the porch roofs, processed in the oven to kill germs and placed in gallon jars. Green beans, cucumbers, etc. were salted down for future use (oh, you salty stuff!!). Apple butter was made in a big iron kettle over a yard fire; gallons and gallons were made. Poor Mom would sell some and always her baking powder can over the cellar door got the tenth money for her church. Butter was churned in a wooden tub. It was sold for twenty cents a pound and delivered to customers. Lots of ducks, geese, and chicken feathers went for the "rich" guy's pillows. Our pillows had straw. Flour sacks were used for pillow slips and also underwear. Our home-knit black stockings were itchy.

My mother was custodian at the church (Salem Evangelical) for $15.00 per year, and my sister and I would take care of the lamps. We used a little hand pump to pump air in the gas lamps. We had a Church orchestra, the REBER-GOOD Orchestra. I played guitar, later played the old pump organ in church and still later the piano. Now at age eighty-seven I am still playing piano in church.

Sometime around 1900 there was news of an oil boom in Oklahoma. A number of venturesome men from Eudora left to stake out land for homesteading. My Dad covered a lumber wagon with canvas, put straw in the bottom of the wagon, fastened two long boxes by the end gate to feed the horse. He tied a sack of corn under the wagon to feed the horses along the way in case they could not find corn along the way. They packed blankets, food, coffee pot and tin cups and cooked their meals along the way. I recall that Charles GABRIEL, Ed DIEDRICH and Gus FIEHLER went with Dad. Dad found nothing satisfactory to homestead.

After graduating from Eudora High School, I worked in the dry goods department of the PILLA Store for $3.00 per week for five years, ignoring my desire to attend Emporia College to become a teacher. While working there I recall the Kaw Valley Bank was robbed; the robber was captured and injured and brought back to the City Hall Jail. (This jail was in the basement of the old City Hall and located at 7th and Main Street). After working hours, some of us from the store viewed the young man through a window; he was a handsome young man and I felt sorry for him and offered a prayer.

Motor cars came into existence during my lifetime. We used to run two blocks south to see the "Devil Wagons" go by at ten miles per hours. We could hear them coming down the road from one mile east, at Uncle Fritz's house. What an age! Every occupant was wrapped up so they would not get too much fresh air.

I have seen church programs change. Prayer meetings used to be crowded and God was present, now people are afraid of "prayer night". It is called mid-week service, if there is one. God is the same, but people are not.

I married Charles GERSTENBERGER, one of my high school classmates, and we lived in Kansas City for about six years, then moved to Prairie Center to manage the general store there for about a year for Fred LOTZ, then back to Eudora, (where we both were born). I have lived in my present home since 1919. We rented the present home from my father, and later purchased it from him.

My Dad worked for many years for Delbert ADAMS at the Eudora Mills, and was very fond of Mr. ADAMS. When our oldest boy was born my Dad asked me what we named the boy, I told him, "Orville Charles." He said, "I can't remember a name like that, why don't you name him Delbert Charles after Delbert ADAMS?" So he was named after Delbert ADAMS and his father.

Note: Charles GERSTENBERGER was employed by the Charles PILLA Store until 1929 when it was sold and then he and his wife opened the GERSTENBERGER Grocery in 1930 in Eudora, starting at the old ROBINSON Building, 731 Main Street. A few years later they bought the BARTUSCH Building, 723 Main Street, where the EISELE Tin Shop had been. They closed their grocery in 1950. Both buildings have been razed. Their children were: Delbert C., Lauretta and Arvon Gale GERSTENBERGER. They were musically talented.

LAWRENCE EVENING NEWS

CENTRAL TELEPHONE COMPANY

Great Improvement and Increase in the Telephone Business of Lawrence - Complete Directory or Exchange List

Yesterday afternoon we called at the headquarters of the United Telephone Company, and were met with a friendly greeting by Charles W. DAVIS, Manager, who proceeded in his pleasant way to show us over the rooms and explain to us the mysteries connected with the business. The office is on the east side of Massachusetts Street, between Winthrop and Henry, over Geo. A. HUNT's dry goods house, in the rear part of the building. The operators' room is furnished in a real comfortable and cozy manner, having more the appearance of an elegant parlor than an office, - nicely carpeted, and walls decorated with choice pictures. Several choice plants are scattered here and there and even a canary songster, to warble his merry notes. In the midst of all these pleasant surroundings, gracefully sat Miss Lizzie KNIGHT, one of the day operators, who is kept quite busy calling for connections and sending messages over the wires, which she does with all the ease and dignity of a little queen. Her voice is low, pleasant and distinct, just suitable for a successful operator, and the company is to be congratulated upon having so competent an assistant. The other day operator, J.W. OHRUM, seems to be a very pleasant young man, and well qualified to fill the position in a satisfactory manner. He knows how to manipulate the board to perfection. H.E. WEBB, the night operator, we found to be an agreeable and pleasant young man, and although we did not hear him send any message or manipulate the board, we know, by the way in which he explained to us the manner in which the connections are made and sound transmitted across the wires, that he is master of the situation and thoroughly competent for any emergency which might arise in connection with his part of the work.

The night operator's room is another cozy place, well furnished with all necessary conveniences. Here an alarm bell is attached at the head of the bed just over the ears of the slumbering operators, which never fails to accomplish its purpose. From this apartment we enter the store room, where instruments and all of the paraphernalia connected with the business are kept. It is indeed quite interesting and instructive to look and study the mysterious mechanism of all connected with the establishment; but space and time forbids our entering into further details in regard to the office; and we will follow the network of wire to the alley, back of the building, where the main line runs north and south through the city, with wires branching in all directions.

At present there are fifteen to twenty experienced telephone men at work in the city rebuilding. The main trunk lines are all being transferred from the old poles to new 45 and 50 feet cedar ones at an expense of $3,000. And so it will be with all lines throughout the city. The old ones will be taken down, and new and more substantial ones constructed. Work will not cease until everything is in first class order.

It has been through the untiring energies of the manager, Mr. Chas. M. DAVIS that to-day Lawrence has its excellent telephone system. When he assumed the duties of this exchange in September last, the central office was in a most dilapidated condition and complaints were universal. Following his arrival came the thorough overhauling of the exchange. The old switch boards were fired and new western electrics put in their stead. Next, over fifty old style instruments were disposed of and in their places were put the new "Gilliland," and to-day the reconstruction is under full headway, which, when completed, will compare favorably with any in the State. When Mr. DAVIS took charge of the telephone interests of this city, sixty-four telephones were in use, and those mostly in bad shape and out of repairs. To-day there are seventy-six in use and fifteen additional ones contracted for.

The territorial net-work of wires extending to outside points is certainly worthy of notice. Among the most important are Kansas City, Topeka, Leavenworth, Atchison and St. Joseph, as well as many smaller cities.

The central office is open day and night, Sunday included, where the able manager or his kind and agreeable assistants are always ready to wait on their subscribers or the public in general.

For carrying on a five minutes' conversation with parties in Topeka, Kansas City, Leavenworth, Atchison, St. Joseph, Easton, Wyandotte and Independence, Missouri, the reasonable fee of 25 cents will be charged.
