BLUE MOUND DISTRICT NO. 29

High on a hillside directly south of Blue Mound from which it took its name, stands a schoolhouse, one hundred ten years after its first building stone was laid. Though begun in 1862 it was not finished and ready for occupancy till 1865. It is the first and only schoolhouse this district ever had, and is the one that remained in use the longest of any rural school in the county.

* Fortunately the records dating back to 1859, with several legal documents and clippings, have been preserved by Mrs. Mildred Day Commons and made available to the writer.

One document is a certified copy of the list of the thirty-three taxpayers of District No. 29 as prepared by one Caleb S. Pratt, County Clerk of Douglas County, Kansas Territory. Names thereon are:

ELLA (REBER) GERSTENBERGER MEMORIES
(AS RELATED FOR EUDORA HERITAGE BOOK 1975)

My Grandfather, Joshua REBER, and Grandmother, Esther (HOLLENBECK) REBER, were born in Hamburg, Pennsylvania. They had eight sons and three daughters. They came to Kansas in 1878 with two sons, Oscar and my father, Daniel and one daughter, Alice (Mrs. Andrew KOHLER).

Grandfather was a Civil War Veteran and I have some of the medals and brass buttons he wore on his uniforms. I am still using his walking cane.

Grandfather REBER built the front part of the house I now live in; my father added to the house in later years. (This was midway between 9th and 10th Street on Church Street, west side of street.) He had a blacksmith shop where my garden is located. Occasionally we still find square nails and bits of harness, etc. when the garden is plowed. He later moved his shop to 10th and Church Street, where Mrs. Bill KELLY now lives. Grandfather sold the blacksmith shop to Ed. Mistele. The white lilac bush, flowering almond and the Juneberry bush in my yard were planted by my Grandmother REBER.

During part of my early life when I was in school, I stayed with her and helped her cook for boarders. She never cooked on Sunday; always fixed the Sunday meals on Saturday and kept them warm in her oven. She would sit by the front window in her rocking chair on Sundays and read her Bible.

My father was first attracted to my mother at the wedding of Minnie STROBEL, my mother's sister, and Peter NEIS. Daddy saw mother standing with the wedding party and remarked that Louisa STROBEL was going to be his girl. My older sister, Emma, was born in a hand-hewn log cabin. Dad later bought twelve acres, one fourth mile out of town (east) on the Cemetery road, where Archie and Frances GOODGER now live. (Archie razed the old house and built a new one.) Dad cut down walnut trees, built a home where I was born. It had one large room downstairs and two rooms upstairs. In later years he added to the north side of the house. The first well drilled was on the west side of the house, three hundred and twenty feet deep, which turned out to be salt water.

Daddy built a smokehouse and did custom smoking. Fred ARKLE, John MIENEKE and John EVERLEY helped Dad butcher hogs in the lower yard. The hogs would hang in the big walnut tree overnight. The next day we cut up the meat and rendered lard in a big kettle outdoors. That night we stuffed sausage in cleaned hog intestines. I would sit on one end of the board that held the sausage machine and run the press.

Our fruits and vegetables were dried on the porch roofs, processed in the oven to kill germs and placed in gallon jars. Green beans, cucumbers, etc. were salted down for future use (oh, you salty stuff!!). Apple butter was made in a big iron kettle over a yard fire; gallons were made. Poor Mom would sell some and always her baking powder can over the cellar door got the tenth money for her church. Butter was churned in a wooden tub. It was sold for twenty cents a pound and delivered to customers. Lots of ducks, geese and chicken feathers went for the "rich" guy's pillows. Our pillows had straw. Flour sacks were used for pillow slips and also underwear. Our home-knit black stockings were itchy.

My mother was custodian at the church (Salem Evangelical) for $15.00 per year and my sister and I would take care of the lamps. We used a little hand pump to pump air in the gas lamps. We had a church orchestra, the REBER-

GOOD Orchestra. I played guitar, later played the old pump organ in church and still later the piano. Now at age eighty seven I am still playing piano in church.

Sometime around 1900 there was news of an oil boom in Oklahoma. A number of venturesome men from Eudora left to stake out land for homesteading. My Dad covered a lumber wagon with canvas, put straw in the bottom of the wagon, fastened two long boxes by the endgate to feed the horses. He tied a sack of corn under the wagon to feed the horses along the way in case they could not find corn along the way. They packed blankets, food, coffee pot and tincups and cooked their meals along the way. I recall that Charles GABRIEL, Ed DIEDRICH and Gus FIEHLER went with Dad. Dad found nothing satisfactory to homestead.

After graduating from Eudora High School, I worked in the dry goods department of the PILLA Store for $3.00 per week for five years, ignoring my desire to attend Emporia College to become a teacher. While working there I recall the Kaw Valley Bank was robbed; the robber was captured and injured and brought back to the City Hall Jail. (This jail was in the basement of the old City Hall and located at 7th and Main Street). After working hours, some of us from the store viewed the young man through a window; he was a handsome young man and I felt sorry for him and offered a prayer.

Motor cars came into existence during my lifetime. We used to run two blocks south to see the "Devil Wagons" go by at ten miles per hour. We could hear them coming down the road from one mile east, at Uncle Fritz's house. What an age! Every occupant was wrapped up so they would not get too much fresh air.

I have seen church programs change. Prayer meetings used to be crowded and God was present, now people are afraid of "prayer night". It is called mid-week service, if there is one. God is the same, but people are not.

I married Charles GERSTENBERGER, one of my high school classmates and we lived in Kansas City for about six years, then moved to Prairie Center to manage the general store there for about a year for Fred LOTZ, then back to Eudora, where we both were born. I have lived in my present home since 1919. We rented the present home from my father and later purchased it from him.

My Dad worked for many years for Delbert ADAMS at the Eudora Mills and was very fond of Mr. ADAMS. When our oldest boy was born my Dad asked me what we named the boy. I told him "Orville Charles". He said, "I can't remember a name like that, why don't you name him Delbert Charles after Delbert ADAMS?" So he was named after Delbert ADAMS and his father.

Note: Charles GERSTENBERGER was employed by the Charles PILLA Store until 1929 when it was sold and then he and his wife opened the GERSTENBERGER Grocery in 1930 in Eudora, starting at the old ROBINSON building, 731 Main Street. A few years later they bought the BARTUSCH building, 723 Main Street, where the EISELE Tin Shop had been. They closed their grocery in 1950. Both buildings have been razed. Their children were: Delbert C., Lauretta and Arvon Gale GERSTENBERGER. They were musically talented.

ALARIC GANDY ALRICH

The following is taken from the book, "Uncle Levi and the Alrich (Alricks) Family Genealogy," by Naera Smith ALRICH and William Henry ALRICH, III. To order a copy or correspond with the authors, write to Mrs. William H. ALRICH, 29 South Kirklyn Ave., Upper Darby, PA 19082. The book cost them about $25 each to print.

To correspond with or join the Pieter Alrichs Foundation, write to Bill ALRICH, 248 Upper Gulph Road, Radnor, PA 19087.

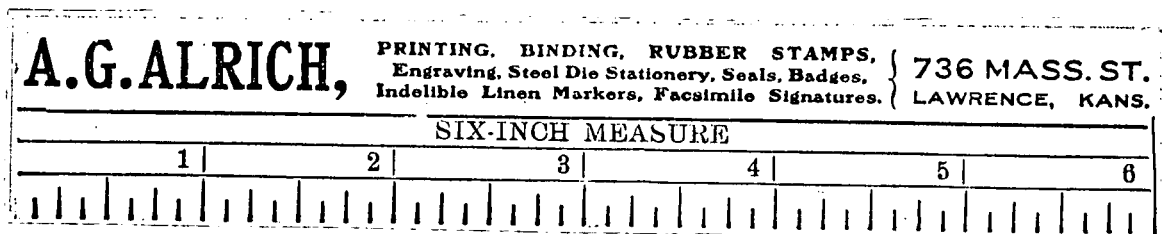

Alaric Gandy ALRICH was born 24 September 1868 at 511 Cooper St., Camden, New Jersey, the only son of Levi Lockard and Emma Buck (ELDRIDGE) ALRICH. His father was employed as foreman of an umbrella factory, then became the proprietor of a grocery and provision store for about four years. In July 1878, Levi took his wife and two children to Cawker City, Kansas when Alaric was about 10 years of age. They arrived in January 1879, and Levi took a job as a clerk and began to edit the Soldier's paper, "Camp Fire." In April 1883, he bought the "Free Press" and changed its name to "The Public Record." Over the next 34 years, he remained as editor of "The Public Record" and bought out a number of his competitors. One of his hobbies was genealogy, and it was from him that the authors obtained much of their information.

Alaric attended public schools, helping his father in his newspaper office in his spare time and learning the printing business. His father was intensely interested in providing his children with a good education. Alaric and his sister Rachel became accomplished musicians and were invited to perform at church and social events.

By 1906 Alaric had established his own Commercial Printing Co. in Lawrence, Kansas, dealing in letter heads, envelopes, rubber stamps, business forms and cards, invitations and book-binding. He became active in community affairs, serving as Division Commander of the Sons of the Veterans in Kansas in 1913 and 1914. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge and for 30 years was a clarinetist in the Baptist Church.

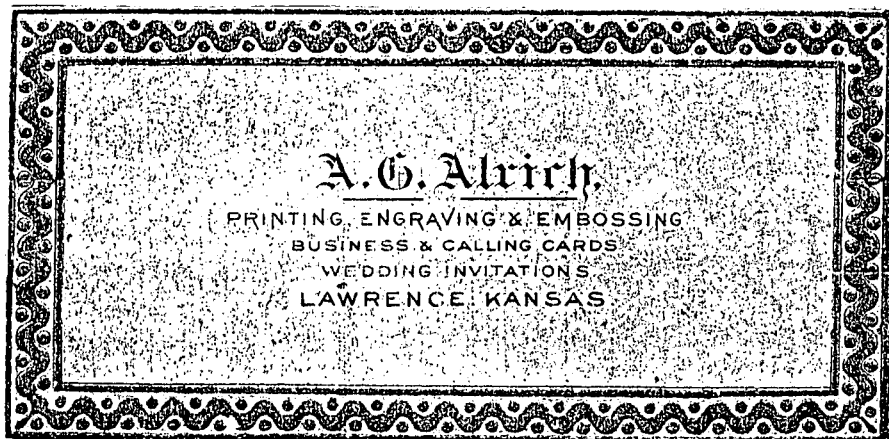

On 30 June 1897, Alaric married Helen Marion "Nellie" OATMAN, daughter of Adelfus and Mary (RANSON) OATMAN. Nellie had been born in Leavenworth, Kansas on 23 October 1876. They had one child, Eleanor Evelyn ALRICH, born about 1905 at 347 Indiana Street in Lawrence. She married first a Naval officer attached to the Brooklyn Navy Yard whose name is unknown to the authors. Shortly afterward the marriage ended in divorce. About 1930 she married the son of Dr. James NAISMITH (the physician, teacher, and minister who invented basketball as a gym sport and was Kansas University's Director of Physical Education for 39 years.)

Alaric died 19 October 1939 in Kansas City, Kansas. Nellie died 13 January 1960. They are both buried in Memorial Park Cemetery, Lawrence, Kansas.

"P.H. ATCHISON Dies at Daughter's Home."

Mr. ATCHISON went to California from Waverly just a few months ago to make his home with his daughter. He was preceded in death by Mrs. ATCHISON in June, 1943. Mr. ATCHISON lived as a young man in the Key West neighborhood and moved to Waverly 41 years ago. "Raising Church Money"

Dear Hope: I think the word of God gives us a method of raising money that is by tithing and free will offerings. He does not expect value in return. Jesus used a scourge on those that sold in the temple. - E.R., Bloomington, Neb.

Newspaper clipping, source unknown, probably Waverly, KS:

"Frank B. HYLE Passes Away Tuesday Morning - Death Comes After A Stroke Suffered Sunday Morning"

Frank D. HYLE, aged 80 years, passed away Tuesday morning, May 2, 1939 at 5:30 o'clock. Death was caused from a stroke which he suffered Sunday morning at 5:30. He is survived by his wife and four children: John HYLE, of Quenemo; Louis HYLE, of Washington, D.C.; Early HYLE, of McPherson; and Mrs. Lois LIPMAN of Thrall. He is also survived by five grandchildren and eight living sisters and brothers. The family had lived in and around Waverly for the past 22 years. Funeral services were held Thursday, May 4, at 2:00 p.m. at the Methodist church with the Rev. C.V. SHULENBERGER in charge and interment was in the Burlingame cemetery.

QUANTRILL RAID ACCOUNT --Mrs. N.O. Stevens, Northport, Michigan.

"My parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley H. Duncan, lived where the Watkins Bank now stands. My father had a store, I think, near where Smith's Undertaking establishment stood later, possibly a few doors north. They asked father to show them where his store was and they wouldn't shoot him. We lost the store and the stock, and $8,000.00 in gold. Chas. S. DUNCAN's family had more trying experiences."

HISTORY NOTES

January 1881: On the 19th, Kansas became the first state to prohibit all alcoholic beverages.

January 1889: Mrs. J.E. COVELL held a gymnastics class at the Rink, 807 Kentucky. She charged 25 cents admission to see exercises with wands, dumbbells, and clubs. An advertisement in the Lawrence Journal on January 13 said that "the chief aim of the whole work is physical culture." ... A fire at E.B. GOOD's grocery, 937 Massachusetts, Lawrence, did several hundred dollars worth of damage.
