BANNING MEMORIAL

The following articles were titled In Memoriam and submitted by Iona Spencer, who received them from Dorothy Sage. Mrs. Sage did not indicate the source. It seems to have been published about April, 1928, at the time of Mrs. Banning's and Mr. Sherry's deaths.

JOHN BANNING

John BANNING was born near Macomb, Ill., Feb. 15, 1835 (the 5 is crossed out and an 8 is handwritten over it) and passed from this life Oct. 31, 1923, aged 85 years, 8 months and 16 days. His mother died in his early childhood, leaving him and an older brother to the care of their father who remarried in 1842.

In 1855 the family moved to Kansas, settling near Big Springs in Douglas Co., and John started out to make his own way in the world. He was among the militiamen called to Lawrence after Quantrell's raid to care for the dead and wounded and help repair the half destroyed homes. In 1864 he was a lieutenant in the Shawnee militia regiment under Colonel VEALE, which took part in fighting back Price's raid at the Missouri border.

At one time he engaged in ox train freighting with a partner named Thomas CLARK, carrying supplies from Westport to Ft. Larned. In the early 60's he was postmaster and storekeeper at Big Springs. While there, he married to Hettie Jane ROBERTS, an Ohio girl, on Sept. 7, 1862. To this union were born eight children, of whom two, Ella Bell and William B., with their aged mother, survive him. He leaves also six grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

In 1868 he located the homestead in Osage county, on Dragoon Creek, then a part of the Sac and Fox reservation, and moved his family there the following year. During the 70's he served the county as commissioner from his district and later, one term as probate judge.

In the late 80's he became interested in mining and prospecting for gold in Arizona and later in Colorado, spending several winters and summer vacations in pursuit of the yellow metal.

His later years were spent too closely on the farm, the quiet life of which was irksome to him. Having very little schooling, he had read law and educated himself, and was naturally inclined to public service and a professional life.

Having some faults, as we all have, he was yet one of the sturdy pioneers of Kansas, marching in the vanguard of settlement and civilization, leaving a long life-record that we may well honor.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. McFARLAND of Lawrence. Burial was made in the Lyndon cemetery.

MRS. JOHN BANNING

Hettie Jane ROBERTS was born in Tuscarawis Co., Ohio, November 18, 1839 and died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Belle BRYSON, April 17, 1928, aged 88 years and 5 months.

The funeral services will be conducted at the old Banning homestead, on Dragoon creek, 4 1/2 miles north of Lyndon, the present William BANNING home, this afternoon, April 19, and the burial will be in the Lyndon Cemetery.

When about 14 years of age she came with her parents to Big Springs, Douglas Co., Kansas. In those days banks as we know them did not exist, but the border bandits did, and the demure Hettie carried most of her father's supply of cash, about $500 in gold, in a belt about her waist. Her father finally succeeded in establishing a home known far and wide for it's hospitality and good cooking.

On September 7, 1862, she was married to John BANNING, who was then postmaster and storekeeper of the little village of Big Springs. Leaving the store within a year, they farmed near Big Springs, then in 1869, they came to Osage county, preempting the present homestead on Dragoon, where their active years were spent in rearing their family and making a home in a new country. From their early wedded life, both were members of the Christian church, having been baptized in the Kaw River, near Tecumseh, and maintained the connection in their new home.

Mrs. BANNING was the mother of eight children, two of whom survive her. The living children are William BANNING, and Mrs. Belle BRYSON, both of Lyndon. The children who have preceded her to the Better Land are Josephine T.; Ephraim N.; Mary M.; John W.; Hettie M.; and Hubert.

Thus passes another of those brave pioneers who battled with the boundless prairies, Indians, bandits, droughts, ague, poor transportation facilities, grasshoppers, and the many other things which made pioneer life strenuous but interesting, and who in the face of great difficulties founded one of the greatest states of the Union and left their impress upon that state which will rebound to its welfare for many generations. The ranks of these pre-war pioneers is thinning very rapidly - even the boy or girl who was then but ten years of age has now reached the age of 77 years.

DANIEL B. SHERRY

Daniel Boone SHERRY was born October 16, 1853, near Muncie, Indiana, and passed from this life at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Arthur KITCHEN, near Lyndon, April 13, 1928, aged 74 years and 6 months.

Making his own way in life from the age of 12 years, he educated himself, attending Valparaiso University and Danville College, graduating from the latter institution in the early eighties, and entered the teaching profession, which he followed in different sections of the country, principally in Indiana. He was active in this work until 1916. During his educational career, he was principal of several schools and was for a time, employed in the Government Indian schools.

In 1886, he came to Kansas, teaching at Valley Falls, and then in Osage county. He was married to Josephine T. BANNING June 29, 1887, and took up farming on a homestead in Ness county, Kansas, near Utica. Driven out of this work by crop failures, he re-entered the work of teaching, until he acquired government land in the Little Bitter Root Valley of Montana, where he again pioneered at farming until 1922.

He was united with the Methodist church while a young man, and took an active part in church work until recent years.

His wife passed away October 22, 1894, leaving to his care four children, all yet living, whose addresses are: Homer Kent SHERRY, Asbestos, Quebec, Canada; Cameron B. SHERRY, San Antonio, Texas; Mrs. Edith ARCHER, Larned, Kansas; and Mrs. Arthur KITCHEN, Lyndon, Kansas.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist Church in Lyndon, April 17. Interment made in the Lyndon cemetery.

George F. LAWRENCE born 11-11-1820

Sarah R. LAWRENCE born 1-7-1829

"When they decided to come to Kansas, Aunt Martha's mother the year before 1858 spun two meal sacks each of flax, wool and hemp to bring to Kansas in 59. They raised the flax and hemp the summer of 58. When the wagon was loaded they had two meal sacks of each.

When the weather was bad and everything damp, they used the flax to start their fires."

"I have so much to do and see to that I don't see how I can visit you now. Besides all this Sam and Martha are to be married on Sunday next, the 23rd. I am much pleased with Sam's choice. There is no girl in the country that I respect and admire so much as I do Martha. Well, since writing the foregoing, I went up to Mr. HOPKINS yesterday morning, got there for dinner and stayed all night, got home today at noon. Mr. HOPKINS is to come down next Sunday to do up that little matter between Sam & Martha, and then we will have a new housekeeper, and a good one too."

EARLY SCHOOL WRITINGS OF THE HART FAMILY

David Hart sends us these childhood compositions of his grandfather, Floyd HART, and several of Floyd's siblings, which were transcribed from copies of School News, originally published at Lecompton, KS. Two editions of Vol. 1, namely, No. 1, Nov. 1894, and No. 2, Dec. 1894, are on file at the Kansas State Historical Society in Topeka. Mr. Hart asks that anyone having knowledge of other possible editions of School News which may contain other writings by HART children, please contact him at 4001 Jean Ave., Bethpage, NY 11714-4521.

A JOLLY EVENING, by Carl HART, grade 7

School News, Vol. 1, No. 2, Dec 1894

One bright moonlight evening my cousin James and I took a span of mules and the farm wagon and started out with a load of girls to a taffy pulling.

One mule was black about sixteen hands high with one ear frozen off. The other was a small white mule.

We put some hay in the wagon and all sat down in the bottom. The mules trotted along quite freely over stones and stumps until we came to a steep hill with a ditch on each side. We went along gradually until we got about half way up when the mules suddenly concluded they had too much to pull and set to backing as mules will, and all I could do did not persuade them to go on but backed until both wheels on one side of the wagon dropped into the ditch and over went the wagon and a lot of screaming girls. One got her wrist sprained another her foot hurt. The rest were unhurt except a few bumps and bruises. We set the wagon up again, climbed in and went on.

We soon arrived at the house and were soon romping and playing. One boy very eager for some taffy bit into a large chunk and got his teeth fast and had to sit and hold his jaws until the taffy melted. He then got up and put it into a girl's hair which was hanging loose. She tried to get it out but could not and had to cut her hair off.

The fun went on until late and many laughable pranks were played.

At last the crowd became tired and bid each other goodnight and started for home.

LIONS, by Floyd HART, 2nd grade

School News, Vol. 1, No. 2, Dec. 1894

Lions live in the dark forest in rocky caves.

Young lions look like little kittens.

I would like to see a lion.

They are not like other animals and if you would get near one it would eat you up.

LEAVES, by Alice HART, 1st grade

School News, Vol. 1, No. 2, Dec 1894

Most leaves turn brown and yellow in the fall.

POSTCARD FROM ELY, NEVADA TO TOPEKA, KANSAS

Earlier this year, the Ely Daily Times of Ely, White Pine Co., Nevada printed a 75 year-old picture of the White Pine High School which had been mailed from Ely on 8 November 1914 by R.H.W. to Mrs. E.E. WARREN in Topeka, Kansas. The back of the photo had been used as a post card. R.H.W. wrote that he or she had finally broken into Ely society for the first time and attended a "little party." "We are having a fine fall here. This is a picture of the high school that I snapped the other day." The card has been donated to the high school.
