

Fire lieutenant to narrate TV show on car extrication

By Yvonne C.T. Vassel

involved," said Scala.

OF THE SENTINEL STAFF

Winter Park fire lieutenant-paramedic William "Rusty" Scala, who has applied to become the city's fire chief, is venturing into television.

Scala will be the narrator-interviewer of Extrication '86, the third annual international automobile extrication competition and learning symposium held in Orlando in Winter March.

The event was filmed, Scala did interviews, and it has been compiled into a 30-minute program to be broadcast on Cablevision of Central Florida's community access Channel 17, or Channel E, at 7:30 p.m. June 30.

Scala said 26 teams from fire departments throughout the United States and Canada competed during the three-day event at Sheraton-Twin Towers in Orlando. The only Central Florida representative was a team from Seminole County.

"It was a great learning experience and, in the future, I would like to see more teams from the area get in-