Keep Winter Park Beautiful

By Jean Sprimont,
Executive Director, KWPB

Keep Winter Park Beautiful joined 459 affiliates in the GLAD Bag-A-Thon/Great Florida Cleanup in celebrating Earth Day on April 18.

As part of the cleanup, several projects were undertaken including the painting of benches and trash containers in Central Park; a trash pickup in and around the park, post office and train track areas and raking and planting in two golf course raised bed areas.

"Earth Care...It means the world to us" balloons featuring the continents and oceans marked the various locations of this year's efforts and were given away at the trash bag sales table which was at the Farmer's Market.

Each volunteer received a KWPB T-shirt, a plant and a Clyde Butcher poster. In addition, drawings were held for candy-filled Farmer's Market mugs.

The newly formed Neighborhood Council joined KWPB in sponsoring the Neighborhood Clean Ups throughout the community. KWPB provided the associations with trash bags, cleaning solution, long-handled brushes, gloves, plants, litter bags and educational materials as well as prizes including KWPB T-shirts, posters and candy-filled mugs.

KWPB would like to thank everyone who participated in Earth Day 1998.

Brookshire Elementary School 5th grade gifted students plant hedges on Feb. 20 to beautify their parking lot. The plants were donated by Keep Winter Park Beautiful.
