

Local History Room
Winter Park Library

City of W. P.
Keep Winter Park Beautiful

Celebrate Halloween at Winter Park's Monster Mash

Observer 10/19/95

Keep Winter Park Beautiful will host the Monster Mash and Graveyard Bash at the Winter Park Farmer's Market on Monday, Oct. 30, starting at 6:30 p.m. Shake, rattle and roll to live 50's and 60's music and sample food from Winter Parks's favorite haunts: The Mill; Beach Brewing; Bakely's; Treat's Cafe; Dexter's; Mele Di Bari; Langford Resort Hotel; Naturally American Artesian Water; Petit Four Bakery & Cafe; Trastevere Ristorante; C.J.'s Bar-B-Que; Pico's Mexican Cafe. There will be complimentary beer, wine and non-alcoholic punch.

There will also be pumpkin painting and carving; a costume contest with $100 prizes for the funniest, scariest, and most creative costumes, and prize drawings.

The event, which will benefit Keep Winter Park Beautiful's efforts to preserve, conserve and beautify the Farmer's Market and the city of Winter Park. Rattle your bones to the "bad" sounds of "The Brothers Good."

Come with or without a costume.

Monster Mash & Graveyard Bash is sponsored the Bank of Winter Park; Sandra H. Sullivan; Crossroads Foundation, Inc; Fannie Hillman & Associates, Inc.; Forness & Company C.P.A.; Michael & Diane Maher; Balloons by Debbie; Winter Park Parks & Recreation Department and the Winter Park-Maitland Observer.