Observer

Tuesday, May 5 begins the first of eight weekly sessions of Ballroom Dance Lessons to benefit Keep Winter Park Beautiful. Beginners lessons are from 7-8:30 p.m. in the evening at the Winter Park Farmers Market and Advanced basic follow from 8:45-9:45 p.m. In this casual atmosphere, the beginners will concentrate on the fox trot, waltz, rhumba, cha cha, and swing, and the Advanced Basic group will continue to work on three selected dances. The nominal fee for the series of eight lessons is $50 per couple. Instructor Stuart Nichols invites both couples and singles to join in the fun and learn a new skill, or polish their technique for summer fun. Call Jean Sprigmont at 599-3364
