

Winter Park Beautification Awards to be Presented

Ten businesses will be recognized with Keep Winter Park Beautiful Beautification Awards at 11:20 a.m. at the stage in Central Park during the Old Fashion July 4th Celebration held, this year, on Monday, July 5. Observer

Each year KWPB presents beautification awards to Winter Park businesses for their aseptically pleasing architectural and landscaping design, and their overall contribution to the beauty of the city. Brian Phaneuf, KWPB business beautification chairman, said of the 1999 selection process, "The amount of new construction taking place in the city right now is amazing. Beautiful new buildings are popping up everywhere. You could almost call it a renaissance."

Keep Winter Park Beautiful chairman, Bob Cadle, along with vice chair Linda King, will congratulate and salute the following:

- Ewing Nobel & Winn - New England Avenue.
- Florida Frame House - New England Avenue.
- Greeneda Court - Park Avenue.
- Marc-Michael & Associates - Morse Boulevard.
- Metropolitan Construction Building - N. Kentucky Avenue.
- Smith Barney, Inc - New England Avenue.
- SunTrust Plaza Parking Garage - Lyman and Comstock avenues.
- Valencia Community College - Morse Boulevard.
- Winter Park Florida Federation of Garden Clubs - Denning Avenue.
- Albin Polasek Museum & Sculpture Garden (recognized originally in 1995) with a Continuing Maintenance Recognition Award.
