

Safely Across

Children from Brookshire Elementary School in Winter Park are escorted safely across busy Lakemont Avenue on their way home in the afternoons. Fireman Ray Bayus of Station No. 2 holds back the traffic as these youngsters walk across.

Firemen Aid Pupils

Winter Park Firemen at Station No. 2 are helping children as they cross busy Lakemont Avenue on their way home from school.

The firemen donate their services during the peak crossing time. Children from Brookshire Elementary School cross the street just south of the station. About 16,000 cars a day are said to use Lakemont Avenue, a two lane road.

Keeps In Touch

Firemen 1C. T. C. Elliott keeps in touch with Winter Park Station No. 2 as he does some crossing duty on Lakemont Avenue. (Photos by Charlie Foley)

The Right Way

A youngster pushes her bicycle across busy Lakemont Avenue in Winter Park under the watchful eye of Fireman 1C. T. C. Elliott. Firemen have been helping out by pulling "school crossing duties" near the station.