WINTER PARK — The Winter Park Fire Fighters Association, volunteers and members of the International Association of Fire Fighters, Local 1598, collected $3,085 for the annual Jerry Lewis Labor Day Muscular Dystrophy telethon last Sunday and Monday.

This was the largest amount collected by fire fighters in the Central Florida area.

Streetside collections were made at the intersections of U.S. 17-92 and Fairbanks Avenue and Lakemont and Aloma avenues.

MacDonald's provided free lunch and dinner both days to the fire fighters taking up the collection.

MAITLAND — The Maitland Ladies Cotillion have chosen a Hawaiian cruise theme for this year's cotillion, to be held at 8 p.m. Sept. 18 at the Maitland Civic Center.

Though theme dress is not mandatory, most members plan to dress in muumuus, grass skirts and sarongs. Guests will be greeted by Mr. and Mrs. George Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Weintz, and will be presented with a lei of flowers.

AN ALOHA cocktail hour, beginning at 8 p.m., will be followed by the cotillion at 9 p.m., with music provided by the Jack Drummond orchestra.

The event will be set in a surrounding of waterfalls, palm trees, colorful tropical flowers, surf boards and outrigger canoes, complete with volcano. The Polynesian motif has been created by Mrs. Joseph Ash and her decorating committee.

Out-of-town members returning for the event will be: Mr. and Mrs. William Geiger, Cocoa Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Don Wiggins, Gainesville; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Davich, Washington, D.C.; and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hill, Charlotte, N.C.

Reservations are required. Members and waiting list guests are asked to call Ruth Sammon at 647-0546.

MAITLAND — The Maitland Association of Fine Arts will open its 1976-77 season with a cofee for members, new members and guests at 10 a.m. Monday, at the Maitland Civic Center.

The group will be addressed by Jane Finkbeiner of the Maitland Public Li-
