and at last THE PRESIDENT AND MRS. ROOSEVELT arrived . . . the day was perfect . . . and from that grand smile the President gave as he alighted from the train in Winter Park . . . all is right with the world in this section of the country . . . just one glorious scope of the golden Florida sunshine . . . the First Lady . . . gracious and charming . . . and delighted with the bouquet presented to her . . . seemed equally as delighted to be in Florida as did her distinguished husband . . . and the crowd cheered them on their way to the chapel at Rollins . . .

❖ a decided touch of atmosphere of the deep South . . . was the greeting from the large chorus of negro singers gathered at the station . . . singing plantation songs and spirituals with all their might . . .

the FIRST LADY'S COSTUME was all black . . . with touches of white about the neck . . . her hat was of the Breton sailor type . . .

there were a lot of folks from Orlando . . . so eager to get the first glimpse of the President . . . that they were in the crowd at the station in Winter Park . . . then came back to Orlando to see him ride down Orange Avenue . . . first we glimpsed "WOODY" ELLIOTT . . . then MRS. EDGAR HIATT . . . MRS. C. D. WILDER . . . BETTY BROWN and her young daughter JACQUELINE . . . the BOB MOORES and small JUDY . . . "CHUMMY" FULLER . . . HARRY VINCENT . . .

it was a long to be remembered day . . . both in Winter Park and Orlando . . . flags flying . . . salutes . . . Boy Scouts proud of their duties . . . and mobs of enthusiastic people . . . Orange Avenue thronged with spectators . . . and so the President is on his way . . . to a vacation on Florida waters . . . we hope he'll honor us again . . . and for a longer visit.

the trip that JACK BRANHAM had planned . . . to New York . . . has been postponed until the latter part of the week . . .

the crowd at the COUNTRY CLUB SATURDAY NIGHT . . . was large and gay . . . lots of people came out after dinner for the dance . . . the music was good . . . and there were lots of attractive visitors . . .

more Spring vacation homecomers . . . GEORGE EDWARDS home from Yale . . . and noted on the drag this morning with MARY EVELYN DYE looking very smart in dark blue suit . . . with large white sailor hat . . .

last night there was a small gathering for a supper party at the CLYDE HUNTERS . . . Lucille arranged the party for Lucy Mae Curry's North Carolina guests . . . MRS. MARY WALLACE . . . MRS. JOSEPH ELLIOTT . . . and MRS. C. B. KING . . .
