

Winter Park Jaycees Distinguished Service Awards

Courtney Ragmitt, Outstanding High School Student - Nominated by WEEKENDS of Winter Park. She is the student chairman for WEEKENDS, secretary of her high school Interact Club, recipient of "Who's Who Among American High School Students," member of CREW (JV and Varsity rowing program), won a gold medal at Nationals, member of Key Club and Students Against Drunk Driving. Also member of the Student Council Cabinet at Winter Park High School.

Outstanding Senior Citizen, Richard A. Ortaga - active volunteer for military retiree organizations, senior and junior ROTC units, public and private schools, patriotic and community projects, Alzheimer's patients, retired teachers, and at the Human Crisis Council. He is chairman of awards, Military Affairs Committee, Winter Park Chamber, member of the state of Florida Council on Aging, active in his church, and recipient of the 1994 George Washington Honor Medal from the Freedoms Foundation, Valley Forge.

Leu Petzold - Outstanding Humanitarian - Founder of the Human Crisis Council from his Winter Park home in 1984 and now operates a 10,000 sq. ft. complex where over 20,000 pounds of food is distributed weekly, free of charge to the needy. Petzold, 72, is a hands-on volunteer, working 60-70 hours a week picking up and packing boxes for the needy. He has received numerous community awards and was nominated for and was runner-up for the "Most Caring Person in the U.S." by the Caring Foundation in Washington, D.C.

Outstanding Citizen, Lynnda Storer - Chair of Keep Winter Park Beautiful, appointed by the mayor and elected chairman by her peers. As such, she is responsible for the $150,000 Farmers Market beautification project. She has been a fundraising public relations and marketing consultant for the past 10 years and currently works with the American Red Cross and the Orlando Scottish Highland Games and Festival.

Local History Room

Storer, Lynnda

Bio