

Lake Knowles, on old maps, was originally called Live Oak Lake.

In June of 1889, a ditch between Lake Knowles to Lake Osceola was dug, which so lowered the water in Lake Knowles that the road around it became dry and passable. The work was accomplished by a Mr. Detwiler of Gabriella.
