at Central Fla. Fair

Keep Winter Park Beautiful (K.W.P.B.) which showcased the City of Winter Park at the 88th Central Florida Fair March 7-12, won the $500 Theme Award (Best of Show) for the second consecutive year.

Coordinated by Jean Sprimont, Executive Director of Keep Winter Park Beautiful and designed by Morna Robbins, Brian Phaneuf and Dale Amlund, the exhibit depicted the shop side of Park Avenue.

It also included photographs and information on the various categories that were required for each display including: Ecology, History and Recent Development, Agriculture, Education and the theme award.

A special thank you goes out to the following City employees, residents and organizations who assisted in many ways with the exhibit: Morna Robbins, Brian Phaneuf, Dale Amlund, Phil Eschbach, John Holland, Director of Parks and Recreation; Lee Mackin, Chief of Forestry; Gordon Gregor, Landscape Manager; John Lupo, Lead Forestry Specialist; Albert Adams, Heavy Equipment Operator; Steve Mathes, Chief of Building Maintenance; Mark Brown, Electrician; Amanda Brown, Publications Coordinator/Public Relations Assistant; Winter Park Historical Museum; Charles Hosmer Morse Museum of American Art, Cornell Fine Arts Museum and the Albin Polasek Museum and Sculpture Gardens.
