Beautification Awards

Observer 7/11/96

Each year, Keep Winter Park Beautiful presents Beautification Awards to Winter Park businesses that have contributed to the appearance of the city through environmentally friendly and aesthetically pleasing landscaping. This year, 10 locations were presented with the 1996 Beautification Award at the July 4 Celebration in Central Park.

This years winners are: Morse Museum and Pavillion; Appenberry's Garden Shop; Center for Older Adult Services; Winter Park Plaza Office Building; K-Mart Shopping Center; Winter Park Memorial Hospital; Orangescape Committee/Aloma Avenue Project; Rollins College Campus (continuing maintenance recognition award); 280 Canton Avenue Office Building; J&H Lee Center.

Special thanks to the Keep Winter Park Beautiful selection committee: Berta Hall, Peggy Strong and Scott Moore.
