

Winter Park board to meet soon on ethics complaint

WINTER PARK — The city's Civil Service Board will move up its plans to discuss a complaint that Winter Park firefighters watched pornographic movies on the job.

Board chairman Kip Marchman said he will propose several different dates and hopes to convene the board within two weeks.

Winter Park city commissioners voted Monday to ask the Civil Service Board to convene the special meeting on the complaint.

Mayor David Johnston said charges of misconduct made in a Feb. 28 letter to the board "cast a shadow" on the city and fire department.
