Happening Before Sunday

Adventurous Women Out Late
Saturday, August 23: Dinner at Tiger Soup Dumplings. Have you been wanting to try TIGER SOUP DUMPLINGS? Let's try them together! RSVP date has passed, but if you're still interested, you're welcome to email Carmen Bumgarner cfbum@charter.net

Worship With Us this Sunday, August 24

Worship with us at 10am this Sunday! Join us here at PUCC or on YouTube Live here (@parkwayuccstl)... or participate later on YouTube or find a link on our Facebook page – parkwayunitedchurchofchrist. [Click here for a short video highlighting the steps for how to watch the Worship Service through YouTube.]

Worship with us at 10am this Sunday! Join us here at PUCC or on YouTube Live (@parkwayuccstl)... or participate any time later on YouTube.

We will bathe in the blessing of Jeremiah 1:4-10 as we are reminded that God has known us and loved longer than we have known we existed and sends us out to listen and to speak.

Our gospel lesson is Luke 4:16-21 when Jesus comes back to Nazareth, where he grew up, and goes to the synagogue as he always does on the Sabbath. He is handed the scripture scroll and reads about what God wants him to do – the same things God wants us to do. How will we go about these tasks, responsibilities and opportunities today?

Worship bulletin here!

Songs include: You Are Welcome Here; Here I Am, Lord; Spirit of the Living God; The Farmer Plants the Seeds; Cares Chorus; Let There Be Peace on Earth; Draw the Circle Wide

Look for a message from our Church Council about this summer's General Synod Resolutions.

Prayer Partner Before and After Worship this Sunday
PUCCer Lynn Mark is available in the front left corner of the sanctuary before and after worship this Sunday to pray confidentially with individuals. She is a trained prayer chaplain. She will call on the presence of God and help create a safe spiritual space. Lynn will listen to you as you tell her a bit about your prayer request. She will offer an affirmative prayer out loud, reminding you of your inner strengths rather than ask God for a specific outcome. She will pray that you are guided by God's infinite love, presence and support... and that any joy or gratitude will be multiplied and any fear or doubt will be transformed into peace and confidence.

Nursery Sunday Hours
Besides during worship, the Nursery is also open before worship from 9:00–10:00am and after worship from 11:15am–12:15pm *(*on Sundays when we have a Speaker Series or other need for extended care) for infants and kids through 5th grade, where they will receive loving care from our Nursery childcare providers Kara and Katie.

No staff member of Parkway United Church of Christ will ever reach out via email, text or social media to ask for financial help. If you receive a request appearing to be from PUCC staff requesting financial help or other personal information – or any suspicious message – please don't click on any links or engage with the sender. Parkway Inquirers Getting to Know PUCC—and Being Known
Tuesday, August 26 | 6:30-7:45pm | Heritage Room

Inquirer: someone who wants to know more about Parkway UCC. The next PARKWAY UCC Inquirers' Gathering will be a dessert night Tuesday, August 26 from 6:30-7:45pm in the Heritage Room. Our goals for that evening include:
- Getting to know one another a bit more
- Describing Parkway's worship, outreach, education, leadership, fellowship
- Taking a look at our denomination, the United Church of Christ
- Sharing ideas about the exciting future of Parkway UCC
- Soliciting your thoughts on how we can be a more welcoming and inviting community of faith
- Discussing some key issues of faith
- Answering any of your questions

You will find our time together meaningful and informative. Some churches call this sort of gathering a New Members Class - we do not. While we do know that there are a number of visitors who have expressed interest in becoming members of the church, we do not assume that Inquirers are seeking membership. We just want to be hospitable, get to know you and have the chance to express gratitude for your presence among us. Childcare is available that evening if requested ahead of time. Please let us know if you are planning to be with us! Contact kevin@parkwayucc.org for more info.

Join the PUCC Adventurers for a St. Louis Public Library Tour
Thursday, August 28 | 10am-2pm | 1301 Olive Street, St. Louis, MO 63103

Meet some Parkway UCC friends as we go on a guided tour of the beautiful, historic St. Louis Public Library. We'll start the guided tour and finish with lunch at a nearby restaurant, TBD. Meet at church at 9:15am for carpooling, or at the library at 10am. Please join us! RSVP to Kris McKenzie, kmck57@yahoo.com by August 20.

St. Louis Public Library's Central Library boasts some of the finest examples of Beaux-Arts and Neo-Classical Architecture in the United States. Designed by renowned architect Cass Gilbert and completed in 1912, the structure which occupies a full city block is a historic treasure. Exquisite replicas of features from the Pantheon, Vatican and Michelangelo's Laurentian Library bring the Italian Renaissance to life in the heart of downtown St. Louis. Among the many amazing treasures featured throughout Central Library are the thirty decorative shields bearing the "Printers' Devices" or marks of some of history's most famous printers carved on the building's stone exterior. An extensive $70 million award-winning renovation of Central Library led by George Nikolajevich with Cannon Design was completed in 2012, and showcases a masterful blend of classical and modern architectural styles while preserving Central Library's unparalleled beauty for generations to come.

BBQ For Ben PUCC Carnival Picnic
Sunday, August 31 | 11:15am | Fellowship Hall

VBS is going to be capped off with a carnival picnic! After worship on Sunday, August 31, we'll have a BBQ. The church will cover the hot dogs and sloppy joes, fun carnival games, a chicken petting zoo, and an ice cream truck.

We will need people to help with set up and tear down, and food prep. We've set up a sign-up sheet in the Gathering Space to signup for side dishes. You can also sign up here!

So if you're able to help, please contact me at gabriel@parkwayucc.org

RESPECT MOVOTERS

Respect MO Voters
Shortly after Labor Day we'll start collecting signatures for Respect MO Voters. It's a cross partisan, volunteer group dedicated to getting an amendment on the MO ballot 11/26. This amendment will prohibit the legislature from undoing the will of the majority of voters, as was done after the 11/24 vote. This was also done in the past regarding puppy mills, clean Missouri, and several other issues the citizens of MO voted for. It was also tried in the 80s when democrats were in the majority. This is why it's cross partisan. Whichever side of the aisle you identify with, the majority will of the people should prevail.

Please stop by our table in the gathering space before or after Sunday services. Take some information about the group, consider joining the movement, and sign the petition. For more info, contact Michelle Singer mrsinger71@gmail.com

Her writing explored a more inclusive and questioning approach to faith. From the book jacket, "Drawing on the best in recent scholarship and using her well-honed literary expertise, Evans examines some of our favorite Bible stories and possible interpretations, retelling them through memoir, original poetry, short stories, soliloquies, and even short stories, soliloquies, and even a short screenplay. Undaunted by the Bible's most difficult passages, Evans wrestles through the process of doubting, imagining, and debating Scripture's mysteries." Please join us for fellowship and discussion. Other PUCC News Around the Bend

UCC General Synod Resolutions Receive - Discern - Act
Our Parkway UCC Church Council acknowledges and appreciates that General Synod, the biennial meeting of our United Church of Christ, makes pronouncements and resolutions that speak to the churches, not for the churches. Acting in both covenant and autonomy, our PUCC Council receives the following ten resolutions (one is from 2023 and the rest from 2025) and will discern what to do with them in our setting. Please consider reading through the resolutions. Click here for a link to the full information on each resolution. Stay tuned for more information on how you might be part of this important process.

August LGBTQ+ News Thoughts on ONA National Gathering
Deb Reinhardt

If not now, when? That was the question I asked myself this spring while debating whether I should attend the ONA (Open & Affirming) National Gathering in July ahead of General Synod 35. It was an energizing two days.

I was honored to be among 130 people from across the country who came to hear moving speeches, participate in educational workshops and fellowship with new (and familiar) friends over two days. Through all of it, a very clear call to action emerged: Do Something. For me, a comment by R Ward (they/them), Minister of Gender & Sexuality Justice for the UCC, expressed during the Lived Experience Panel summed it up. "I don't want an ally. I want an accomplice," they said. Mx Ward went on to say people of the church need to ask trans/queer people what they need and "get in the trenches," and given the heavy applause that followed, the room was behind their call to action.

In fact, a new initiative introduced by Rev. Derek Terry, acting executive director for the ONA Coalition, is called A.C.T. Out and it stands for Advocacy • Community • Transformation. While the UCC celebrates 40 years of open & affirming covenants and work, as well as nearly 2,000 ONA churches, A.C.T. Out is the next chapter of the movement, Rev. Terry said, and it will require churches to move beyond safe statements and symbolic gestures.

"Every church can do something," Rev. Terry said in addressing the Synod. "Because silence is not safety. Neutrality is not love. The church must not be a bystander. We must be a sanctuary." Hear the entire address here.

As a member of PUCC's ONA Team, I've signed up to get more information on this initiative that will include trainings, tool kits and campaigns. I'm thankful for the work PUCC already has done, including providing a safe place for PROMO Missouri to base its canvassing in support of affirming healthcare.

But we have much more to do, and I ask that you keep your ONA Team, Gateway ONA, the LGBTQ+ Faith Alliance, and the ONA Coalition in your prayers as we all work together to make our community a more loving and equitable place to live. Because if not now, when?

Parkway UCC ONA-Related Groups
These are difficult times in our state and country for LGBTQIA2S+ — especially for transgender — citizens. Maybe you've said to yourself, "I wish there was something I could do to help." Well, there is something.

There are two groups offered at Parkway UCC to connect members who are interested in advocating for LGBTQ+ people. The first is the Mission Ongoing—ONA Open and Affirming Group. Members of this group will receive updates on legislation pertaining to LGBTQ+ Missourians and related actionable items, notices of meetings (virtual or in-person) happening around the area, news updates from transgender journalist and writers, and other resources. This group is intended to help organize PUCC advocates. Learn more here.

The second group is the LGBTQ+ Faith Alliance. It includes representatives from 30 faith traditions across the St. Louis metropolitan area and meets monthly in-person or virtually. Learn more here.

Something to Ponder

Becoming Shambhala Warriors
Cameron Trimble

The world recently lost a luminous soul: Joanna Macy, activist, scholar of systems theory and deep ecology, Buddhist teacher, and midwife of a more just and living world. She gave us language for what many of us have long felt: that we are in a time of Great Turning, but also Great Unraveling. She taught us that we must become spiritually awake enough to hold both.

Among the stories she most often told was the ancient Tibetan prophecy of the Shambhala Warriors. In a future time of great danger, when the Earth was ravaged, and all life hung by a thread, a new kind of warrior would emerge—not with weapons of destruction, but with the tools of healing.

Joanna said this prophecy was not a fantasy or a metaphor. It was a call. The Shambhala Warriors would walk into the corridors of power—not to destroy, but to dismantle the poisoned systems from within, using only two weapons: compassion and insight.
Compassion: the ability to let the suffering of the world into our hearts without shutting down or turning away.
Insight: the wisdom to see clearly the interconnection of all life, even when the world is unraveling.
These warriors were not limited by race, gender, or belief. They were not chosen by rank or ordained by institution. They arose in ordinary people—teachers, gardeners, artists, organizers, students, elders—each one trained in presence, each one refusing to be numbed or distracted. Each one willing to stand in love when fear would be easier.

Here's the radical part: You are one of them.

If you are reading this, if your heart is breaking open and not apart, if you still dare to believe that love has a place even here, even now—you are already on the path.

The question is no longer if the Shambhala Warriors are coming.
The question is how we will train.

In a time when the world feels rigged toward collapse, when cruelty becomes law and despair is sold as inevitability, Joanna's life reminded us: there is another way. It's not an escape route—but a sacred return, a rejoining of the web, a remembering of our task—not to save the world through domination, but to midwife its healing through presence.
We don't need more heroes.

We need people who can hold the fire without burning others, people who have faced the grief of our time and still choose to sing.
As Joanna taught us: "The most radical thing any of us can do at this time is to be fully present to what is happening in the world."

Video

I was reminded of one of my favorite songs of Christopher Grundy's today as I saw school buses on several roads and a fair number of leaves on the ground … It's called 'By the Stream' https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0Od7hFFfGZI

The lyrics I am pondering are:
blessed are those who trust in God sending out its roots by the stream they will not fear when the heat comes in the year of the longest drought, they will still bear their fruit
