

The Columbia Kootenay Cultural Alliance (CKCA) partners with the Columbia Basin Trust to deliver arts, culture and heritage funding to residents of the Canadian Columbia Basin. The CKCA, which is an umbrella organization of arts, culture and heritage sector representatives, carries out programs that each year that result in the creation of more than one hundred cultural projects.

The CKCA has an elected steering committee, which works to determine cultural funding needs throughout the region, and recommends arts, culture and heritage funding programs to the Columbia Basin Trust. Once these programs are approved, the Columbia Basin Trust relies on the expertise of the CKCA Steering Committee to determine which projects will receive funding.

To date, the Columbia Basin Trust and the Columbia Kootenay Cultural Alliance have delivered over two million dollars to residents of the Columbia Basin in the cultural sector.

HERITAGE FUNDING PILOT PROGRAM

PROGRAM #11 HERITAGE WEEK FUNDING PROGRAM 2007-2008

DEFINITION OF HERITAGE:

Heritage is what we value from the past. Heritage is those places, objects, records, indigenous languages, and other things that have aesthetic, historic, scientific, social significance, or other special value for future generations as well as for the community today. Heritage includes the intangible records of our past such as memories, stories and songs, ways of life, customs, attitudes, and interactions between individuals and communities. Heritage is the record of culture as it was.

GOALS OF THE HERITAGE COMMUNITY:

- promoting the collection, preservation, and protection of, and public access to, cultural heritage resources;
- promoting respect for the historical diversity of communities;
- cooperating with, and sharing information and knowledge with others to promote heritage;
- raising awareness of heritage, heritage issues, and their importance;
- identifying and securing funding for the support of heritage;
- promoting opportunities for heritage research; and education.
