GLOBAL AMBASSADOR STUDENT LEADER
International Student Center
2019-2020 International Student Welcome Workshops

RESPONSIBILITIES
• Serve as a peer leader and mentor to new international students each quarter during the New International Student Welcome Workshops. Includes leading a small group, facilitating activities and discussion, and answering students’ questions
• Assist new international students with arrival issues and adjustment concerns, and familiarization with the SU campus
• Assist ISC Staff at the Fall, Winter, and Spring Welcome Workshops
• Assist ISC Staff in pre-workshop preparation by organizing supplies, making signs, and other duties as assigned
• Reconnect with your small group after the Welcome Workshop by organizing an activity
• Participate in a 2-day training in fall quarter and 3 hour training in Winter and Spring

QUALIFICATIONS
• Open to all domestic and international undergraduate and graduate students
• Must be a full-time student at Seattle University, in good academic standing (min 2.5 GPA)
• Must work effectively with students from other countries and be willing to work as part of a team
• Must have good communication skills and be open-minded and tolerant of others
• Must be sensitive to the cultural adjustment issues faced by international students at SU
• Must be in Seattle and available on the following dates:
  • iLead Training: Evening of Friday, April 26 and all-day Saturday, April 27, 2019
  • GA Training & Welcome Workshop Prep: September 11-13, 2019
    If you live on campus, be sure to let ISC Staff know you will need to move in early
  • Fall Workshop: Monday, September 16, 2019 at 7a-6p
  • Fall Workshop: Tuesday, September 17, 2019 at 7a-6p
  • Winter Workshop: Saturday, January 11, 2020 at 9a-5p
  • Spring Workshop: Saturday, April 4, 2020 at 9a-5p

BENEFITS
This is not a paid student leader position, but there are many rewards to being part of the Global Ambassador Team!
• Gain leadership experience and develop your teamwork skills
• Become an effective group facilitator and develop public speaking skills
• Gain experience managing and leading a culturally diverse group
• Learn to work with different communication styles and cultures
• Develop your problem-solving and decision-making skills
• Expand the network of people you know and develop lifelong friendships