District House Space Policies:
In addition to all CSE Reservations policies, which apply to these spaces, the high demand spaces within District House (B132 and B205) also follow the prime time hours policy:
- Organizations may not have more than two bookings in high demand spaces between 5pm and 9pm during any given week

Music in District House Common Areas:
District House is intended to have a social and lively atmosphere – in order to foster this, the CSE plays music through a PA system on the B1 and B2 levels. Music volume is adjusted in the space to be heard throughout the day – including raising the volume at peak building hours and lowering the volume when the space is not as active.

It is our goal to balance the music to always be inviting but not overpowering. Students seeking a quieter place should visit the B2 level, where the music is always kept at a lower volume. If music in either the B1 or B2 level ever seems to be too loud or intrusive, please email csereservations@gwu.edu or visit the House Desk on the B1 level.
During finals weeks the music volume on B1 is reduced and the music on B2 is turned off entirely to provide additional study spaces on campus. Students seeking a silent environment during the rest of the academic year are encouraged to utilize quiet spaces on campus including Gelman and Eckles Libraries.

District House In-Room Technology:

Having issues with District House Technology – [View our troubleshooting guide]

District House is equipped with standard GW classroom level technology. However, in lieu of having a desktop computer within each space, rooms are equipped with Apple TVs and inputs – allowing all those using the space to bring their own computers.

AV Systems: Rooms within District House are controlled via an automated touch pad. These pads allow users to change inputs and turn on and off the AV system. The AV system is scheduled to turn off due to inactivity and at 10pm each night – however, you can easily override this shutdown by tapping the touch pad.

Apple TV: District House features Apple TVs connected to TVs and digital projectors. These devices can connect wirelessly to display an Apple device’s screen for presentations. Note that these devices do not connect to Windows or Android devices. However, the CSE does have Apple devices (iPads and Macbook) which are available to check out for use within a reserved space.

Tech inputs: District House TVs and digital projectors also feature easy plug and play options for computers via wall and podium mounted outlets. The CSE has HDMI, VGA, and Apple cables to connect devices to these tech inputs to check out for a reserved space.
