

University Housing Policies

Campaigning in the Residence Halls and Family Housing

Candidates are encouraged to take advantage of possible forums hosted by RHA or ASUO in University Housing. University Housing has created a policy that ensures campaigning is conducted according to the following guidelines:

- Candidates and their representatives must follow these guidelines:
 - Posters and signs may be posted by residents on their own doors, the inside of their own windows, and within their own living spaces.
 - Campaign materials ARE allowed on one's person (i.e. t-shirt, buttons), or other personal belongings (i.e. backpacks) within the Residence Halls and Family Housing.
 - Candidates and their representatives who are guests in University Housing must be escorted at all times by a resident of the hall/living space they are in. Candidates and their representatives may not solicit or campaign while in University Housing.
 - Campaigns are prohibited from meeting in any University Housing building or classrooms.
- For more information visit University Housing's Residence Hall Contract 2017-2018. Residents and their guests are responsible for all sections of the Housing Contract.
