King and Queen Campaigning Rules

We are very excited for King and Queen candidates to campaign for the first time this year! Help us continue this into the future by following these few rules for a fair process that does not impede academics or cause concerns among the campus community.

- The use and distribution of alcohol (including posted images) on behalf of, or in representation of a campaign is prohibited.
- Bribery to gain votes or the use of incentives, including but not limited to food, coupons or vouchers, raffles, materials donated from university sports teams or significant figures.
- Prohibited Campaign Areas:
  - Residence halls
  - Off-campus residencies
  - Any listservs
  - Inside on or off-campus dining facilities
  - Inside university buildings
  - Inside university transit vehicles
  - Private property (without written permission of the owner)
- Speaking in front of classes is prohibited,
  - You may talk to your fellow students after class as long as it does not inhibit academic functions.
- All campaign materials, including the material used to hang the items must be removed within forty-eight (48) hours after the close of the elections period.

Please note that Social media is ALLOWED for use in campaign for King and Queen Candidates.

Violation of these rules will disqualify you from King and Queen voting and depending on severity, as determined by the Homecoming steering board, your organization may be disqualified from the Spirit Cup competition.
