University of Denver Tax Exempt Certificate

The Department of Revenue has granted the University of Denver exempt from paying sales tax, therefore, we possess a Colorado tax exemption number. When purchasing items, you must present this number to vendors when making tax-exempt purchases. For each sale, vendors must record this number, date of sale, item(s) or service(s) purchased, and name of the organization. For more information about the rules and regulations of using this certificate, go to:
