CLIENT DECLARATION OF CONFIDENTIALITY

I, the undersigned client of the Osage Nation Family Violence Prevention Department, do hereby declare that I will hold confidential all verbal, written, and/or electronic communications, observations, and information made by and between or about survivors (including their families). This information specifically includes survivor identity information and physical whereabouts information. I understand that if I fail to maintain the confidentiality of survivors I may be charged under Osage law with a violation of the Osage Nation Public Records law and terminated as a client of the Osage Nation Family Violence Prevention Department.

Exceptions for release of information which do not require the survivor's written consent include:

- Disclosure of survivor information may be made to the legal guardian of a survivor.
- When child abuse or neglect is suspected
- When older adult (or vulnerable adult) abuse or neglect is suspected.
- When there is imminent danger to the health or safety of the survivor or another person.

I further declare that in the event I am no longer a client of the Osage Nation Family Violence Prevention Department, for any reason, I will keep confidential all information related to the Osage Nation Family Violence Prevention Department and its clients.
