

Osage Nation
Purchasing Department

September 28, 2017

To Whom It May Concern:

The Osage Nation would like all vendors to be registered with the Purchasing Department prior to engaging in business. If you would like to be considered a vendor, we would appreciate your assistance in reviewing the enclosed material and returning everything except the Acknowledgement Letter with payment:

- Please read the Acknowledgement Letter (Page 1 and 2)
- Return the Business License Application
- Return the General Information Sheet
- Return the W-9

We look forward to receiving your completed information and the potential of establishing a business relationship between your company and the Osage Nation.

Please return the completed information to Marilyn Booth at the address listed below. If there are any questions, please feel free to contact Jonna Hopper via phone 918.287.5343 or e-mail jhopper@osagenation-nsn.gov or Marilyn Booth via phone 918.287.5393 or e-mail mbooth@osagenation-nsn.gov.

Osage Nation Tax Commission

Acknowledgement Letter

September 28, 2017

To Whom It May Concern:

This agency is governed by the Osage Nation Business License Code. It is a policy of the Nation to promote economic development on the Reservation. To achieve this policy, the Nation will be identifying and regulating all applicable persons and entities doing business on the Reservation. Therefore, all persons who exercise in the privilege of engaging in business on the Reservation must register and obtain a business license through the Osage Nation Tax Commission.

Per Bill ONCA 07-40, the law defines engaging in business as “commencing, conducting, or continuing in business, and relates to a person who is involved in trade or commerce inclusive of service activities regardless of whether they are, or are intended to be, for profit. It shall also include the sale of real or personal property on the Osage Indian Reservation by a person generally engaged in such business whether within or outside the exterior boundaries of the Osage Indian Reservation which are under the jurisdiction of the Nation, and other such land without such boundaries as may hereafter be added thereto under any law of the United States of America, except as otherwise provided by law.”

The responsibility of obtaining the license is that of the business. The Business License Code law can be viewed in its entirety on the Osage Nation Congress website. It can be found in the “Final Bills and Resolutions” as Bill ONCA 07-40.

Please contact the Osage Nation Tax Commission at 918-287-5393 to receive an application or to find out more information on license fees, exemptions and penalties.

Regards,

Marilyn Booth

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1 and the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 3.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

*If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.*

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.
