

East Africa Oil and Gas - Has it gone bust before the boom?

March 28, 2017 @ Johns Hopkins University, SAIS

Rome Auditorium, 1619 Massachusetts Avenue NW

Time	Topic	Speakers
8:30 – 9:00 am	Registration	OPEN
9:00 – 9:50 am	Welcome remarks (15-20 minutes) Keynote (30 minutes)	Opening remarks by Oxfam/ SAIS (10 min ea/ 20 min total)  Keynote: Sandy Stash, Tullow Oil
9:50 – 10:10 am	Break
10:10 – 12 pm	Panel 1 – “The Money and the Politics” Moderator frames discussion – 5-10 min What are the biggest constraints for East Africa to successfully utilize EI revenues for broad-based economic growth? Objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Identify how prospects of hydrocarbon wealth have influenced the political economy in the region since the initial boom a few years ago</li> <li>• Identify governance trends witnessed in other oil-rich African states that are playing out in East Africa and identify what factors lead to mismanagement of resources and expectations</li> <li>• Identify policy reforms, interventions and contextual conditions needed to ensure hydrocarbon resources are managed responsibly for broad-based and inclusive development.</li> </ul> 30-45 min / Q&amp;A	Panelists (5) Don Hubert, R4D Consulting Alex Vines, Chatham House Alex Gillies, NRGi Adriano, Centro de Integridade Pública, Mozambique Lance Crist, IFC Titus Gwemende, Oxfam (moderator)

12 – 1 PM	LUNCH
1:00 – 2:45 pm	Panel 2: “Land for livelihoods or for investments?” What are the biggest risks facing frontline communities (particularly women), civil society and the environment in the face of EI investments? What can government and companies do better to ensure that local communities have a say over whether and how oil and gas projects are implemented on their lands? Objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Highlight current issues and concerns of affected communities faced with land acquisition, resettlement and other impacts from recent oil/gas developments in Tanzania, Uganda, and Mozambique</li> <li>• Identify key issues and trends from comparable project developments in other sectors and consider how lessons can be adapted and applied to East Africa</li> <li>• Identify policy reform options to improve community participation in decision making related to projects</li> </ul> 30-45 min/ Q&amp;A	Panelists (5) Lien De Bourkere, Rights and Resources Initiative  Winnie Ngabiirwe, Global Rights Alert, Uganda  Amani Mhinda, HakiMadini, Tanzania  Alda Salomao, Centro Terra Viva, Mozambique  Sandy Stash, Tullow Margaret Rugadya, Ford Foundation (moderator)
2:45 – 3:05 pm	Break
3:05– 4:45 pm	Panel 3 – “The role of the international community in promoting good governance” What has been the impact of the international donor community in the region so far and how can it ensure to have a positive impact in the future? Objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Identify the key governance outcomes that are prioritized</li> </ul>	Panelist (5) Charles Wanguhu, KCSPOG, Kenya  Thomas Baunsgaard, IMF  Mary Warlick, US State Department  Ian Gary, Oxfam  Michael Jarvis, TAI Maria Lya Ramos, Oxfam (moderator)

	and promoted by the international donor and development aid community. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Assess the effectiveness of various international norms, mechanisms and initiatives</li> <li>• Evaluate the threats, risks and challenges for ongoing influence and cooperation in the region for positive governance outcomes</li> <li>• Identify opportunities for reevaluating donor community support to the region</li> </ul> 30-45 min / Q&amp;A
4:45 – 5:00 pm	Closing remarks	