Cited as the Best Small Town in California as well as one of the Ten Most Enlightened Towns by bloggers, Arcata is kept youthful by the population of Humboldt State University students, healthy by the innumerable organic farms and beautiful by its close proximity to wild landscapes. Nestled within Humboldt County which boasts the most artists per capita of anywhere in California, Arcata is positioned half way between San Francisco and Portland and is therefore a popular stop for world-renown musicians. The colorful Farmers' Market is hosted in the town's square known as the Plaza where the area's leadership in the farm-to-table movement is made evident. Victorian mansions and hand-crafted bed and breakfasts are eye-candy for evening strolls while the area known as Valley West is where hotels and eating franchises are located. Kayaking, surfing, birding, hiking, mountain biking, quaint shopping and zany people watching are all available to you in eclectic Arcata.

Bird Watching Tours January 1 - December 31, 2017 Arcata Marsh

The Redwood Region Audubon Society offers bird watching tours every Saturday at 8:30 a.m., which begin at the Klopp Lake parking lot end of So. I Street.

Friends of the Arcata Marsh lead walks in the marsh, rain or shine, Saturdays at 2:00 p.m. Marsh Interpretive Center. 569 South G St.

At any given time of the year, the Arcata Marsh offers the opportunity to view over 160 different species of birds. Included in this wide range of species are many migratory birds, ducks and waterfowl that use the Marsh as an important resting and relaxation spot. Birds migrate from as far north as Alaska.

Directions: Arcata - Hwy 255 (Samoa Boulevard) to south I Street

Farmers' Markets

Arcata Plaza
April 2017 - November 2017
9:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.

Started nearly 40 years ago by a small group of farmers, the Farmers' Market was one of the first certified in California. It has since blossomed to include over 100 members.

Every Saturday, from spring to autumn, the Arcata Plaza turns into a bustling kaleidoscope of beautiful fresh flowers and colorful locally grown produce. Locally prepared foods include tamales, locally cured olives, kimche, fresh baked gluten-free and traditional breads and pastries. Local farmers pride themselves on the quality and freshness of their produce and flowers, offering visitors to Arcata the rare treat of sampling the vibrant flavors of the North Coast. Along with flowers and produce, the market features other items such as locally produced honey and cider, as well as native plants, bulbs and trees.

Arcata Marsh and Wildlife Sanctuary

Enjoy bird watching, walking and jogging trails, bay views and vistas of Arcata. Guided tours are offered by the Audubon Society Saturdays at 8:30 a.m. at the foot of I Street and by the Friends of the Arcata Marsh Saturdays at 2:00 p.m. meeting at the Marsh Interpretive Center at 569 South G Street. 707.826.2359

Arcata Community Forest and Redwood Park

The park is comprised of approximately 793 acres, 622 of which were obtained in several purchases over a fifty year period. In November 2006, the 171 acre Sunny Brae Forest was added to the Arcata Community Forest. The Forest offers the full gamut of woodland recreations, with an exceptional network of developed trails for hiking, mountain biking and horseback riding (check the trail maps to determine which trails are open to bikes and horses). Trail Maps are available at the parking lots,

City Hall or online at www.cityofarcata.org, or www.interactivetrailsmaps.com. Park is accessible from east Eleventh or Fourteenth Streets.

Arcata Plaza

The Arcata Plaza provides a treasure trove of entertainment, dining and shopping experiences. Radiating from the Plaza are streets full of handcrafted merchandise, outdoor supplies, restaurants, a movie theater, and being a college town, Arcata's local bookstores and coffee houses are especially delightful.

Arcata Skate Park

Located off of Sunset Avenue near Jay Street, the park offers challenges for beginners and advanced skaters. Safety equipment required. Open during daylight hours only.

Arcata Bottoms

Located west of town, bordered by the Arcata Bay and Lanphere Dunes Preserve the Arcata Bottoms offer picturesque grassy pastures, farms and country roads perfect for walking, jogging or cycling.

Humboldt State University

Established in 1913 attractions include cultural and sporting events, art exhibits and a well-stocked library. To schedule tours call 707.826.6270 or visit www.humboldt.edu.

Lanphere Dunes Preserve

A unique example of dune succession on the west coast. Access limited to tours led by Friends of the Dunes every first and third Saturday at 10:00 a.m. (rain or shine except during July and August). Tours leave from Pacific Union School parking lot, 3001 Janes Road. Call 707.444.1397 or visit friendsofthedunes.org.

Mad River Beach and Community Park

Pristine beaches and dunes lead to the mouth of the Mad River. Located at the end of Mad River Road in the Arcata Bottoms.

Getting Here

Arcata is centrally located in Humboldt County, 300 miles north of San Francisco and 100 miles south of the Oregon border. The drive from the Bay Area takes approximately five hours and is highlighted by the spectacular scenery of Marin, Sonoma, Mendocino, and Southern Humboldt. The main route from San Francisco is U.S. Hwy. 101, although Hwy. 1 provides an alternative route and scenic coastal drive. Further inland, Interstate 5 takes you through California's Central Valley, providing access to Arcata by way of Hwy. 299 at Redding and Hwy. 199 at Grants Pass, Oregon.

Transportation

Arcata is accessible by automobile, bus, or air travel. Greyhound provides service to and from the downtown Arcata area and the Arcata/Eureka airport is just eight miles north in McKinleyville, CA. For Weather and Travel Conditions, please reference:
