A Message from the Board Chairman

DEAR CHAMBER MEMBERS:

This year, the Anne Arundel County Chamber of Commerce is celebrating 100 years of serving the business community of Anne Arundel County and the City of Annapolis, Maryland's state capital. Over these many years, we have helped our businesses make a significant difference in building a successful regional economy and enhancing the quality of life in the communities we serve. As we enter this special year, our commitment to you is to continue building upon that success.

Inform. Advocate. Facilitate. These are key words in the Anne Arundel County Chamber of Commerce vocabulary.

So much of what we accomplish in the county, and in Maryland's state capital, is the result of businesses like yours, which pool their resources through Chamber of Commerce membership to find solutions to our shared challenges and seize opportunities for sustaining and growing our regional economy.

Your continued membership support, shared with hundreds of other business members, funds the important work your Chamber of Commerce performs every day that affects and shapes regional policy for the betterment of the business community.

As a Chamber of Commerce member, you belong to something bigger than yourself that can make a difference in Anne Arundel County. You join other businesses in a shared responsibility of working for a stronger economy and a brighter future. This work is not always easy, but it is important work that requires a collective effort among all of us in the business community. There is strength in numbers, and your business is an important part of the overall team effort.

Our mission is simple and straightforward: "The Chamber of Commerce is a non-partisan, consensus-building business organization serving Anne Arundel County. We seek a vibrant economy that provides opportunity for entrepreneurs, nurtures business growth and expansion, creates jobs for our citizens, promotes shared responsibility, and fosters an exceptional quality of life for all who work and live in Anne Arundel County and the City of Annapolis."

We live and breathe this mission throughout the year for all our business members without regard to business size, industry sector, ethnic/gender ownership, or geographic location in the region. We keep you informed, we've got your back, and we make things happen.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, I extend a personal thank you for your membership support of the Chamber's work, and I ask for your continued support in the coming year by renewing your membership in the Anne Arundel County Chamber of Commerce.

Sincerely,

Dennis Murphy
Board Chair

Mission Statement

We provide business leadership throughout Anne Arundel County to build and sustain vibrant communities.

Vision Statement

To be the premier resource and advocate for business in Anne Arundel County.

CHAMBER BENEFITS

Membership in a chamber of commerce is important for businesses who want to succeed in today's competitive economy. The words "chamber of commerce" are known across the country, and our country's households are occupied by consumers, employees of business and business owners.

A nationwide study conducted by The Schapiro Group in Atlanta, Georgia, clearly shows the real value to businesses that build consumer awareness and expand their customer bases through memberships in chambers of commerce.

Chamber of commerce membership is an effective way to convey to consumers and employees that a company:

1. uses good business practices
2. is involved in the community
3. cares about customers
4. is successful
5. is a leader in the community, and is trustworthy and reputable

ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY

Anne Arundel County is home to a population of about 550,488 residents. The county has a total area of 589 square miles – 416 square miles of land and 173 square miles of water.

It lies nestled between Baltimore City (north), Calvert County (south), Howard County (northwest), Prince George's County (southwest) and the western side of the Chesapeake Bay.

The Baltimore-Washington Parkway (Md. Route 295) runs north/south along the county's western edge, and there is easy access to I-95, the major state highway. Annapolis, the state capital and county seat, is home to 38,394 residents who enjoy 7.6 square miles of land and coastal waters. It's located just 28 miles east of the nation's capital, Washington, D.C., and 31 miles south of Baltimore.

2018 CHAMBER COMMITTEES

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

The Chamber's Economic Development Committee has a long history of making valuable contributions to the ongoing development of sustained and balanced economic growth within the City of Annapolis and Anne Arundel County. The Committee and its members regularly engage in proactive programs and partnerships that ensure the continued economic vibrancy of our community. Coordinating efforts with other Chamber committees, the Economic Development Committee closely works with City and County business and political leaders to effectively communicate the importance of supporting programs, strategies and legislation that ensure our businesses and citizens will continue to enjoy wealth and prosperity for our area and region.

ENVIRONMENTAL

The Environmental Committee is committed to promoting environmental awareness and responsibility among Chamber members. It identifies environmental concerns in the business community and closely monitors pending legislation on environmental issues.

PROGRAMS & EVENTS

Ambassador Program Ambassadors for the Chamber of Commerce are individuals who have volunteered to be an extension of the Business Development Director to help with member outreach. They contact members by phone or email, and pay personal visits to businesses to help ensure the member is satisfied, to answer questions or direct them to the answers, and to promote the Chamber's events and benefits. This function is critical for maintaining and growing membership because the staff is not large enough to cover all the bases important to outreach throughout the year. The Ambassador also has the opportunity to meet fellow members under the auspices of the Chamber, which allows the Ambassador to develop potential clients for their own business while securing long term patronage for the Chamber of Commerce. Being an Ambassador is a prestigious volunteer assignment. We are so thankful this year to have John Camden of First Citizens, Scott Douglas of Douglas Commercial, Dave Miles of The Drawing Board and Brandon Guley of Capitol Financial. Brandon also teaches our LinkedIn courses.

MEMBERSHIP SERVICES

The mission of the Membership Committee is to sustain and grow the membership of the Annapolis and Anne Arundel County Chamber of Commerce, which will enable the Chamber to support the business community and achieve the organization's mission. The Committee plays a major role in executing the Annual Membership Drive and Ambassador Program. They also review benefit packages and make recommendations to the Board of Directors when new benefits are presented.

GOVERNMENT MATTERS – CITY & COUNTY

The Government Relations Committee's goal is to take a proactive position in government affairs. It formulates positions on City, County and State legislation and strongly advocates support for these positions. The Committee prepares an annual Government Relations Agenda, which states the Chamber of Commerce's position on significant issues affecting the economic vitality and quality of life in Annapolis and Anne Arundel County.

THE ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TURNS 100

The Anne Arundel County Chamber of Commerce was founded in 1918 as the Annapolis Chamber of Commerce. At that time, the primary center of business activity in Anne Arundel County was in the city of Annapolis. The rest of Anne Arundel County was rural farmland and sparsely populated. The far northern part of the county was a residential suburb of Baltimore City.

the duplication of membership between the two organizations exceeded 32 percent and both organizations were expending resources on duplicative programming. The business community in both the county and the city recognized this trend and began discussions on bringing the two organizations back together as one. On January 1, 1999, the Greater Annapolis Chamber of Commerce and the Anne Arundel Trade Council reunited to form the Annapolis and Anne Arundel County Chamber of Commerce, with more than 1,200 business members. In recognition of its regional influence and service area, the organization is now known as the Anne Arundel County Chamber of Commerce.

Today, the organization is one of the most dynamic chambers of commerce in Maryland, with a strong advocacy role for businesses, a vibrant collegial role that helps businesses owners expand their customer reach and unparalleled access to resources important for businesses to grow and succeed in Anne Arundel County and the city of Annapolis. The Anne Arundel County Chamber of Commerce is the chamber of commerce of record for Anne Arundel County and is the leading business organization in the region; fostering communication, the exchange of ideas, and facilitating effective collaboration on issues affecting business and economic development. In addition, the organization provides services and programs to meet the varied needs of its members and affiliates, which help them meet the challenges of a constantly changing business environment.

The Chamber of Commerce is known for creating innovative and workable solutions to problems and issues facing Anne Arundel County and the region. In everything it does, the Chamber of Commerce strives to make Annapolis and Anne Arundel County a better place to live, work and do business.

After the Second World War, development in Anne Arundel County began in earnest and commercial activity in the county began to grow. The Annapolis Chamber of Commerce created a committee of the chamber to focus on concerns of particular interest to county businesses and the development of commercial and residential property in Anne Arundel County. The chamber of commerce also changed its name to the Annapolis and Anne Arundel County Chamber of Commerce.

In the early 1950s, the Anne Arundel Trade Council was formed from the chamber's committee on county business development. This newly formed organization focused primarily on servicing businesses in Anne Arundel County and promoting commercial development in the county. During the years between the 1950s and 1980s, the Annapolis and Anne Arundel County Chamber of Commerce exclusively focused on city business concerns and changed its name back to the Annapolis Chamber of Commerce. The Anne Arundel Trade Council continued to grow in membership, with a strong advocacy role in the areas of commercial development, economic development and public education in Anne Arundel County.

As the 1980s gave way to the 1990s, both the Greater Annapolis Chamber of Commerce and the Anne Arundel Trade Council experienced an increase in the number of duplicate memberships. Toward the latter part of the 1990s,

Welcome to Anne Arundel County

AN ELEGANT MARITIME DESTINATION WITH AN EDGE IN BUSINESS

Are you looking for a place to sail a scenic bay with stunning coastlines? Or a quiet, rural retreat that's still close to a major airport and a large urban center? Anne Arundel County has you covered. The county is a famous recreational maritime destination along the Chesapeake Bay, but also includes several Baltimore suburbs. In addition, we're home to BWI Thurgood Marshall, the Baltimore-Washington region's busiest airport.

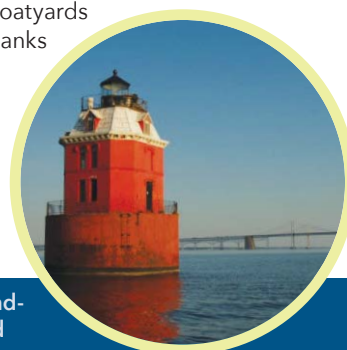

There are ample economic opportunities as well: Fort George G. Meade - the state's largest employer, with 53,733 workers - and the National Security Agency, which accounts for another estimated 35,000 jobs (the actual number is classified), are both located in Anne Arundel.

For your much-needed R and R, the county's east provides hundreds of miles of creek and river waterfront, stretching from the bungalow communities of Bodkin, Rock and Stoney creeks off the Patapsco River to the quiet old waterside towns of Mayo, Galesville, Shady Side and Deale. All along the way you'll find a pleasant mix of old fishing towns, quiet residential enclaves, and pristine forest and farmland.

At the center of Anne Arundel sits the charming city of Annapolis, the state capital since 1788 and capital of the royal colony of Maryland for nearly a century before that. This is the historic center of the county, with its narrow brick-paved streets and 18th- and 19th-century homes. Popular attractions here include the Maryland State House, the oldest state capitol still in continuous legislative use (built from 1772 to 1797) and the only state house ever to serve as the nation's capitol (1783-1784); the 18th-century William Paca House, with its stunning two-acre colonial garden; and of course the United States Naval Academy, a relative youngster, built in 1845 on the site of Fort Severn, overlooking Annapolis Harbor and the Severn River.

Finally, no mention of Anne Arundel County is complete without a nod to its maritime traditions, old and new. There are the fishermen, crabbers and oystermen who have for centuries made their living on the bounty of the Bay, as well as the seafood industry they support. And of course there are the tens of thousands of recreational boaters, sailors and anglers who ply the Bay and its tributaries - and the marine businesses that support them, from marinas, boatyards and boating supply stores to banks and insurance companies.

We welcome you to Anne Arundel County, our beautiful home - where scenic beauty meets business opportunity!

Shopping

A BONANZA OF OPPORTUNITIES AWAITS SERIOUS, CASUAL SHOPPERS

Shopping is definitely a draw in Annapolis and across Anne Arundel County. From the shops along Maryland Avenue to State Circle and down Main Street in Historic Annapolis to the bustling has-it-all Arundel Mills, it's hard to imagine not finding what you want.

Nestled into centuries-old buildings along Annapolis' quaint streets, you'll find high-end clothiers and long-established galleries and jewelers next to souvenir-laden tourist havens and edgy fashion shops.

A short drive west of the historic area is a riot of shopping options. The Westfield Mall has major anchor stores such as Macy's, Lord & Taylor and JC Penney, with more than 200 additional stores and two food courts. Nearby are the Festival at Riva, Annapolis Harbour Center and Annapolis Towne Centre at Parole. Among their offerings are discount stores, mass merchandisers, beauty salons, restaurants and local businesses.

Arundel Mills in Hanover boasts 250 stores, with more than a dozen anchor stores, and is Maryland's largest mall. Adjacent to the mall are the Live! Casino and additional major retailers. Arundel Mills is within walking distance of several hotels, attesting to its status as a visitor destination.

Up north a bit is Marley Station Mall in Glen Burnie, a staple among the county's shopping venues for 30 years. Today, it features three anchor stores and dozens of smaller establishments and eateries.

The Village at Waugh Chapel and adjacent Waugh Chapel Towne Centre in Odenton on the west side of the county are relative newcomers to the shopping scene. They bring a grand assortment of shops, food stores, movies, restaurants and services to their area of Anne Arundel County.

SAMPLE THE FLAVORS OF THE CHESAPEAKE BAY (AND SO MUCH MORE)

Anne Arundel County's cuisine is heavily influenced by its proximity to the Chesapeake Bay. Many area eateries offer waterfront views and the freshest seafood, including the famous crab cakes and mounds of delicious steamed crabs. (One of those eateries, Cantler's Riverside Inn, was named Maryland's most popular restaurant in 2017 by People magazine!) That said, chefs in Annapolis and beyond are turning out dishes influenced by flavors from around the globe. Head to Flamant in West Annapolis for bistro-style continental cuisine, or dig into eye-catching Mexican street food at Vida Taco Bar in Annapolis and Severna Park. Whether you're looking for a quick bite at a traditional pub, elegant dining or family fare, Annapolis and Anne Arundel County have the perfect spot for you.

ANNE ARUNDEL IS HOME TO NAVY SPORTS AND A MECCA FOR OTHER ACTIVITIES

On crisp fall days, Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium attracts visitors from around the country to watch the Midshipmen play football. The pomp and spectacle of the event extends beyond the gridiron, with extensive tailgates hours before kickoff. Navy boasts one of the most powerful offenses in NCAA Division I football and routinely advances to a major bowl game. In addition to football, the Naval Academy features 26 other collegiate sports that provide entertainment for the entire family.

The Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium also hosts Chesapeake Bayhawks professional lacrosse and the annual Military Bowl college football game each December.

Experienced watermen have long set their course for Annapolis, which is known as the sailing capital of the United States and hosts various races and regattas. Annapolis is also home to two of the nation's largest boat shows. Novice boaters and families can explore the county's countless rivers and creeks.

Anne Arundel boasts some of the region's most pristine golf courses, with scenic views of the area's natural beauty. Hikers enjoy the lovely trails that wind through beautiful state and county parks. There are four ice skating rinks open to visitors, and various state-of-the-art sports complexes host multiple youth and adult leagues and tournaments, ranging from soccer to lacrosse. During the winter, you can reach into your closet and grab your swim trunks for a few laps at the North Arundel Aquatic Center in Glen Burnie.

The annual St. John's College vs. U.S. Naval Academy Croquet Match – known as the Annapolis Cup – is another popular attraction every April. It is considered the largest croquet event in the world.

Don't overlook the other local college and professional sports teams. For more information on the area's spectator sports, go to www.visitannapolis.org.

DIVE INTO THE RELAXED, CONVENIENT ANNE ARUNDEL LIFESTYLE

Anne Arundel County's vibrant economy and natural beauty attract prospective residents from around the world. Scenic views of the Chesapeake Bay and its tributaries characterize many of our communities, but you'll also find chic urban spots and pristine farmland. While Anne Arundel's peaceful communities can help you forget your daily cares, you're still only a short drive from Baltimore, Washington, D.C., and the BWI Thurgood Marshall Airport.

ANNAPOLIS

Colonial-era homes line narrow brick streets that lead to the historic City Dock, which has been the heart of the city for more than 300 years. Atop a hill, the Maryland State House – the oldest U.S. state capitol in continuous legislative use – overlooks a maze of bustling streets populated by locally owned businesses and restaurants. The National Trust for Historic Preservation recently recognized Maryland's capital city as one of "America's Dozen Distinctive Destinations."

National Geographic Adventure magazine named Annapolis one of the nation's best waterfront towns in which to "live and play." Likewise, Barron's magazine put it among the top 10 places in the world to retire, considering the great number of residential options, ranging from large waterfront homes and historic properties to townhouses and condominiums.

Some residents even choose to live aboard their boats!

NORTH COUNTY

Northern Anne Arundel County residents benefit from an easy commute to downtown Baltimore, plus access to several public parks, a variety of shopping options and numerous employment opportunities. BWI Thurgood Marshall Airport and the Motor Vehicle Administration headquarters are nearby. Also, Anne Arundel Community College has a branch campus at the Arundel Center North in downtown Glen Burnie.

Brooklyn Park, an older, more established neighborhood, has been the focus of business development and revitalization initiatives, while newer developments have emerged around Glen Burnie and Linthicum.

SENIOR HOUSING

Anne Arundel County and Annapolis are popular destinations for active seniors looking to retire along the scenic Chesapeake Bay. As a result, local developers have created many 55-and-older communities that offer living arrangements to suit an active retirement as well as long-term care. Contact the Anne Arundel County Department of Aging and Disabilities for more information: 410-222-4464, www.aacounty.org/aging.

is located in Highland Beach, America's oldest African-American resort community.

Main Street at South River Colony offers high-quality shopping amid a charming atmosphere with both large retail outlets and small stores.

EAST COUNTY

Neighborhoods along the Chesapeake Bay range anywhere from moderately priced apartments and townhouses to gated waterfront communities.

Pasadena is convenient to Marley Station Mall, which offers a mix of department and specialty stores. Gibson Island, one of

SOUTH COUNTY

Farmers, horse breeders and watermen living in restored cottages and farmhouses call South County home. This picturesque area has its share of pastoral country lanes, white picket fences and horse farms.

Edgewater is the home of Historic London Town, Maryland's largest active archeological site. Twin Oaks, a summer cottage built for abolitionist and orator Frederick Douglass, Maryland's wealthiest ZIP codes, boasts large homes, a private golf course, a harbor and a marina.

WEST COUNTY

Odenton, which was a boomtown during World War II, is booming again, thanks to the economic activity revolving around Fort George G. Meade, one of the state's largest employers. Fort Meade has the third-largest workforce of any army installation in the continental United States, employing more than 40,000 military, civilian and contractor personnel. The Odenton MARC station is one of the Maryland Transit Administration's busiest passenger train stations, and the region has convenient highway access to both Baltimore and Washington, D.C.

On Fort Meade's north side is Severn, from which many residents commute not only to the military installation, but also to employment centers such as Columbia and Glen Burnie. It's also close to Arundel Mills, one of the state's primary entertainment and shopping destinations. Next door is the Live! Casino, a gaming, dining and entertainment destination open 24/7. In 2018, the casino plans to open Live! Hotel – a 17-story tower with 310 guest rooms that is poised to become a major conference destination.

Arundel Preserve is a mixed-use community that allows people to live, work and play within the same neighborhood.

Crofton began as a planned community back in the late 1960s, and today is still known for pleasant living. Several golf courses are located nearby.

MULTITUDE OF OPTIONS FOR K-12 AND HIGHER EDUCATION HELPS STUDENTS THRIVE

County officials, business leaders and residents in Anne Arundel County value the importance of learning. In particular, the county is at the forefront of providing the technology skills students need in today's job market. In Anne Arundel's public schools, all classrooms have internet access and there is one computer for every 1.4 students. A thriving community college and state-of-the-art libraries add to the county's rich tapestry of learning.

Anne Arundel Community College (AACC) provides students with a wide array of skills to meet their academic and workforce goals. In addition to a comprehensive curriculum, the college enriches its students' lives through clubs, sporting events and other activities outside of class. AACC offers a unique education in unique areas of study. For example, the AACC Interior Design program has been granted full National Kitchen and Bath Association (NKBA) accreditation. AACC is one of only two higher education institutions in Maryland to be awarded this accreditation.

Area libraries have also stayed on the cutting edge of technology, with support from the county. In 2016, the City of Annapolis awarded a $12,000 grant to the Anne Arundel County Public Library (AACPL) to buy and install SMART Tables at the Annapolis and Eastport-Annapolis Neck libraries. This will enable children between the ages of 2 and 8 to build literacy, problem-solving and collaborative-learning skills. AACPL also offers 3D printing services and digital library cards that provide students with access to online research libraries and courses, a digital tutoring service and Rosetta Stone.

Anne Arundel County Public Schools (AACPS) employs more than 6,600 teachers at 126 schools serving approximately 81,000 students. Ranked 2nd in the state with 451 National Board Certified teachers, AACPS is known for some of the nation's highest performing schools. These teachers have a considerable amount of experience and are highly qualified educators for eager students.

Overall, Anne Arundel has 17 National Blue Ribbon Schools and 21 Maryland Blue Ribbon Schools. In 2017, Shipley's Choice Elementary in Millersville received the coveted designation.

Along with these achievements, AACPS has been recognized for its outdoor education program as well as its award-winning centers of applied technology. The county's public high schools also have close active partnerships with schools such as Anne Arundel Community College, Johns Hopkins University and the University of Maryland. These relationships allow students to transition more smoothly to higher education and guide them to become leaders of tomorrow.

What's more, Anne Arundel offers a broad spectrum of learning experiences outside the traditional classroom setting. For example, AACPS provides students with magnet programs, advanced placement programs and international baccalaureate programs, to name a few. The multitude of programs offered caters to any student's needs and learning capabilities. All of the high schools here in Anne Arundel thoroughly prepare students for postsecondary education. On the 2017 SATs, Anne Arundel students averaged scores of 541 for reading and 530 for math, handily beating both state and national averages.

The supportive, innovative environment at Anne Arundel schools means students have a bright future to look forward to.

ANNE ARUNDEL HAS A BROAD EMPLOYER BASE, GREAT GROWTH PROSPECTS

Anne Arundel County's economy is rich and diverse. Maryland's largest employer, Fort George G. Meade, is located here, as are many small, family-run businesses. The county's economy remains one of the strongest in Maryland, consistently producing one of the lowest unemployment rates in the region. Anne Arundel has a strong job base in both the public and private sectors, with some of the major industries including defense, technology, education and healthcare.

Hanover's highly successful Live! Casino & Hotel Maryland is set to open Live! Hotel in 2018. At 17 stories high and with 310 guest rooms, the hotel is designed to be a major destination for conventions and professional conferences. A grand event center, banquet-seating capacity for up to 800 people, a 1,500-seat concert venue and state-of-the-art AV systems will add to the hotel's appeal.

Businesses in Anne Arundel County have access to a wide variety of attractive incentives. The Anne Arundel Economic Development Corporation maintains a Small Business Resource Center that provides services free of charge, including advice on business-plan development, financing, market research, workforce development and marketing. In 2017, the Anne Arundel

Economic Development Corporation launched the Runway to Success Program Powered by Southwest Airlines. That program will help small businesses in the county travel to out-of-state conferences and meetings so they can grow sales and better train their workforce.

Speaking of Southwest Airlines, BWI Thurgood Marshall Airport is a major hub for the popular carrier, which employs some 3,500 workers in Anne Arundel. BWI itself continues to experience major growth. In 2016, a record 26.1 million passengers traveled through the airport – an increase of 5.5 percent over the previous year. It also ranked highest on Thrillist's "Top 10 Most Surprisingly Great Airports in America." The airport was noted for its fitness, rest, relaxation, cultural enrichment and outdoor opportunities. More than 9,700 individuals work at BWI, making it one of Anne Arundel's major employers.

The county's unemployment rate has declined consistently since the end of the Great Recession and stood at 3.7 percent in the summer of 2017, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics. At the same time, the labor force is highly qualified, with nearly 40 percent of residents having a bachelor's degree or higher, according to Census data.

The county's top employer is Fort George G. Meade, with 53,733 employees. Northrop Grumman, the leading global aerospace and defense company, is the largest private-sector employer, with 7,725 employees in Anne Arundel.

Another major source of employment is Booz Allen Hamilton, a provider of information operations and signal intelligence solutions, with 2,100 employees. Lockheed Martin, an engineering firm, has 925 employees. Live! Casino has experienced rapid growth since its opening in 2012 and now boasts 3,000 workers.

Education is also a driving force for employment. Anne Arundel County Public Schools has 14,000 full-time, part-time and contractual employees. Higher-education institutions account for another large part of the workforce, particularly with the U.S. Naval Academy (2,340 employees) and Anne Arundel Community College (1,849 employees).

In the healthcare industry, the Anne Arundel Health System and University of Maryland Baltimore Washington Medical Center account for a combined 6,901 jobs.

AREA MEDICAL CENTERS GET TOP MARKS ON SPECIALTY CARE

Like many parts of the Baltimore-Washington metropolitan area, Anne Arundel County enjoys topnotch health care – most of it provided by two major institutions that have branched out across the county. The Anne Arundel County Health Department also provides a variety of services, from counseling to immunizations, at its six health centers.

Both the University of Maryland Baltimore Washington Medical Center (UM BWMC) in Glen Burnie and Anne Arundel County Medical Center (AAMC) in Annapolis provide inpatient and outpatient care in a variety of settings and locations.

For the first time this year, one of those settings could be your own home. UM BWMC recently introduced home-based emergency care. Residents who cannot travel to an emergency room or urgent care center can receive same-day treatment for non-life-threatening illnesses and injuries. This new service, which operates 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Mondays through Fridays, dispatches a doctor or other health care provider to treat burns, cuts, eye injuries, sprains and similar ailments. There is a standard fee for each visit.

This is just the latest innovation from UM BWMC. The medical center performed the county's first joint replacement surgery more than 40 years ago and remains at the forefront of that specialty. It has about 2,200 employees and 700 affiliated physicians, operates a 288-bed hospital in Glen Burnie, treats more than 100,000 emergency patients annually, and has satellite services in Millersville and at Arundel Mills in Hanover. UM BWMC has a wide array of quality centers at its main campus: the Aiello Breast Center; Tate Cancer Center; Maryland Vascular, Spine and Pain Center; Wound Healing Center; and Joslin Diabetes Center. It is also a designated Stroke Center.

AAMC operates a 425-bed hospital, medical group, imaging services, substance-abuse treatment centers and a research center. It has outpatient centers in Bowie, Kent Island, Pasadena, Odenton and Waugh Chapel, and the medical group members practice in 55 locations throughout the region.

With 4,700 employees and more than 1,100 volunteers donating more than 152,000 hours, AAMC has a wide reach in the county.

A leader in women's services, it delivers about 5,500 babies annually and has a Level III neonatal intensive care unit. AAMC is nationally recognized for its joint replacement center, cancer care and emergency heart-attack response. U.S. News & World Report ranked AAMC fifth in Maryland and the Baltimore area for 2016-2017.

Transportation

EXCELLENT TRANSPORTATION INFRASTRUCTURE MAKES IT A CINCH TO GET AROUND

Anne Arundel's County's strategic location in the mid-Atlantic corridor, along with easy access to neighboring Baltimore and Washington, D.C., makes the area an efficient, easy and environmentally friendly place to travel. The county also offers a number of public transportation options.

Savvy commuters use mass transit and help to significantly reduce the impact of cars on the environment. Through new, more sustainable transportation methods such as "green" locomotives, hybrid MTA buses, and electric Amtrak rail systems, using mass transit has become even safer for the environment.

Various transportation plans have been implemented in Anne Arundel County to help residents get to their destinations and decrease their carbon footprint. For example, expanded pedestrian and bicycle routes allow residents to easily walk or pedal to work as an alternative to driving their cars.

PROXIMITY TO EVERYTHING

Anne Arundel County is home to interstate highways, Amtrak and Maryland Rail Commuter (MARC) service, Light Rail and the state's primary airport, making transportation simple for both residents and travelers who are going to Baltimore, Washington, D.C., or any points beyond.

AIRPORT

Providing convenient passenger and cargo services on nearly 700 national and international flights daily, BWI Thurgood Marshall Airport is served by 36 airlines, which include passenger, commuter, charter and cargo airlines. More than 26 million passengers flew into and out of the airport in 2016. BWI Marshall also has recently started offering flights to Havana, Cuba.

HIGHWAYS

I-97 connects Baltimore and Annapolis and provides easy access to BWI Thurgood Marshall Airport from most sections of the county. The Baltimore-Washington Parkway (Md. Route 295) runs north/south along the county's western edge, providing easy access to I-95 and Md. Routes 100 and 32, major east/west limited-access highways. Route 175 now accommodates additional commuters to Fort Meade as a result of BRAC. Connecting Annapolis and Baltimore, Ritchie Highway

Diamond Thief

Most diamonds relieve you of too much of your money, because they pass through way too many hands.

Our diamonds, however, come straight from the cutter's hand to ours, bypassing the multiple traders, wholesalers and distributors who each tack on their markup.

Twice a year, we fly 6,000 miles to the diamond capital of the world to select only the finest stones directly from the source.

When fewer hands touch your diamond, the only thing that gets taken is your breath.

Main Street, Annapolis

Ritchie Hwy, Severna Park

More than a jewelry store. A jeweler.

A woman with long brown hair, wearing a green sweater, is laughing heartily while holding a young child with curly brown hair. The child is wearing a blue shirt and pink pants. They are outdoors, with a blurred background of green trees and foliage. A blue speech bubble is in the top left corner.

Laughing 15 minutes a day can burn up to 40 calories.

The human body is a fascinating thing. Whether you're looking for a fitness class or nutrition counseling, or someone to deliver your baby or fix broken bones — your health is our passion. Find free health tools at LivingHealthierTogether.org.
