Not even Tom Hardy can save convoluted 'Havoc'

By Mark Meszoros

mmeszoros@news-herald.com

English actor Tom Hardy is starring in a new British crime drama series on Showtime/Paramount+, "MobLand," and his unique screen presence is the biggest reason the show rises to a level above middling.

The mumbling. The sly retorts. The measured but terrifying threats of violence if his character does not get the results he's seeking.

It's all just very Tom Hardy in the best way.

On the other hand, his particular set of acting skills is not enough to prop up "Havoc," a disappointing action drama TV movie debuting this week on Netflix.

"Havoc" offers the entirely enticing pairing of Hardy, whose myriad credits also include Christopher Nolan films such as "The Dark Knight Rises" and "Inception," and Welsh writer-director Gareth Evans, who's become a star in the realm of action directing thanks to 2011's "The Raid" and its similarly well-regarded 2014 sequel, "The Raid 2," aka "The Raid: Retaliation."

To be sure, "Havoc" boasts a few sit-up-and-take-notice action sequences. They're inventive. They're stylized. They're uber-violent. They're fun — if, you know, you go for that sort of thing.

They're also not the norm in "Havoc," which relies more heavily on Evans' storytelling and dialogue.

Houston, we have a problem.

That problem is hinted at from the clichéd opening narration of Hardy's character Walker, a dirty police detective, in a deliberately unnamed American city. Walker rambles on about the choices you make, how you justify them and how, eventually, you can't justify them and they result in your life being worthless. This is all set over a montage of criminal behavior being conducted by Walker and other cops.

And hey, perhaps all of that would be fine if it were truly setting up the tale told in "Havoc." As it happens, Walker's sins are just a piece of a needlessly complex puzzle. Along with the dirty cops, Evans presents us with a crooked mayoral candidate and his missing estranged son, washing machines containing cocaine, a drug deal going badly, a furious high-ranking member of an Asian drug syndicate and

In the press notes for "Havoc," Evans says he came up with the basic idea for the movie while promoting his previous film, the stronger "Apostle," a 2018 Netflix release.

"I said, 'All I want to do is this 100-minute action film,' and all I had at that moment in my head was an image of a cop at a crime scene scooping a mound of cocaine into an empty coffee cup," says Evans. "And that's all I had."

Despite all the moving parts that now comprise "Havoc," he doesn't have much more in any meaningful way.

Watching "Havoc," you are virtually smothered by all the try-hard, from the convoluted plotting of Evans, to the film's overly grimy look courtesy of his longtime director of photography, Matt Flannery, to the overacting of Hardy and the likewise talented Forest Whitaker ("The Last King of Scotland"), who portrays the candidate for mayor, shady real estate mogul Lawrence Beaumont.

Hardy and Whitaker share a scene early on, in which Beaumont coerces Walker into trying to find Beaumont's son, Charlie (Justin Cornwell), who's wanted by the syndicate after the disastrous drug deal. It should be fire, but, despite some yelling, it doesn't even generate much smoke.

Better work, if only because it's turned down a couple of notches, is offered by Timothy Olyphant ("Deadwood"), as Vincent, one of Walker's partners in police crime, with whom he now finds himself at odds; and Jessie Mei Li ("Shadow and Bone"), as Ellie, a green officer partnered with Walker early in the story whom he keeps at a distance but whose help he quickly will need.

Honestly, it feels as if Li is performing in a different movie — one you may be a little more interested in watching.

Other members of the "Havoc" ensemble include Malaysian actress

'Ticket to Ride'

"Ticket to Ride," a tribute to the Beatles, will take place Saturday at 2:30 p.m. at the Trinidad Heart Center, 426 Trinity St., Trinidad.

General admission tickets are sliding scale, $10 to $20. Children's tickets are $5. Tickets are available at the door.

Opera workshop

The Cal Poly Humboldt Department of Dance, Music, and Theatre will present "The Cal Poly Humboldt Opera Workshop," performing a live adaptation of the classic and beloved "Schoolhouse Rock!"

The programs are set for Saturday at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. at the Arcata Playhouse, 1251 Ninth St., or Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the Fulkerson Recital Hall on the Cal Poly Humboldt campus in Arcata.

Tickets for the Saturday performances are $15 general, $10 for children or $40 for a family of four. Tickets are available online at playhousearts.org. Tickets for the Monday performance are $10 general, $5 for children and free for Humboldt students with ID. Tickets are available at the door or online at tickets.humboldt.edu/dance-music-and-theatre.

On the morning of his first day, newly credentialed teacher Tom turns on the TV to help calm his nerves. Different parts of his personality immediately spring to life and lead him on a whimsical and educational journey through grammar, math, science and civics. Part inspirational tale and part concert, "Schoolhouse Rock Live!" is an upbeat and positive romp that is fun for the whole family. Come sing along to favorites like "Conjunction Junction" and "I'm Just a Bill," and help introduce these tunes to a whole new generation.

The spring 2025 Opera Workshop features 10 cast members and a three-member band. Eight of the singers are current students, and two graduated in December of last year. The band features Justin Ross playing keyboard, Cal Poly Humboldt alum Andre Erbach on bass and Chrysanthemum Colosi on percussion. The show features many props created by Emma Lubin and her team of student assistants. Stuart Juodieka, Marisa (Meeka) Day and Jeremy Webb created a simple but effective stage backdrop using the official "Schoolhouse Rock!" logo.

Singers perform

The Cal Poly Humboldt Department of Dance, Music, and Theatre will present Mad River Transit Singers performing "Bringin' it Back Home," an eclectic program featuring a variety of musical styles — from jazz standards to more modern tunes. The program is on Sunday at 2 p.m. at Fulkerson Recital Hall on the Cal Poly Humboldt campus in Arcata.

The concert program takes off with Rosana Eckert's tight swing "Bringin' it Back Home," with lyrics by Rosana and Gary Eckert. The group continues with George and Ira Gershwin's "A Foggy Day," introduced by Fred Astaire in 1937 in the film "A Damsel in Distress." Rosana Eckert takes Irving Berlin's "How Deep is the Ocean," slows it down, and gives it a contemporary, ethereal feel. The group keeps it fun with Rosana Eckert's arrangement of Mose Allison's blues tune "Your Mind is on Vacation," and has a moment of tender expression with Kirby Shaw's a cappella arrangement of "When I Fall in Love." You will want to take out your top hats and canes with Sylvia Dee and Arthur Kent's nostalgic "Bring Me Sunshine."

Tickets can be purchased at the door or online at tickets.humboldt.edu/dance-music-theatre. Tickets are $15 general, $5 for children and free for Humboldt students with ID. Ticket can be purchased at tickets.humboldt.edu/dance-music-and-theatre.

Yeo Yann Yann, as Mother, the vengeful power player with the crime syndicate, the Triads; Quelin Sepulveda, as Min, Charlie's girlfriend, who's also a target of the Triads and of Vincent; and Luis Guzmán, Mia's uncle Raul, who works to keep her safe. None moves the needle, although veteran actor Guzmán and Hardy share one of the movie's more enjoyable scenes.

Yet that scene and the nifty action sequences are not enough to recommend "Havoc," even if it's just a few clicks of your smart TV's remote away.

Maybe scroll over to Paramount+ to check out "MobLand," though.

"Havoc" is rated TV-MA.

'Urinetown' balances comedy, chaos and social commentary

The Times-Standard

North Coast Repertory Theatre will present its spring production of the Tony Award-winning musical comedy "Urinetown," opening May 9 and running through June 9.

With biting satire, catchy tunes and a storyline that's both absurd and all-too-relevant, "Urinetown" takes audiences on a hilarious ride through a dystopian world where water is scarce and even a bathroom break comes at a cost.

This bold production is directed by Nanette Voss, who also leads the musical direction, with Isabel Semler assisting in direction and Shawn Wagner providing sharp, inventive choreography. Stage management is handled by Ivy Carter, with Caleb Bartlett and Kyler Robbins as assistant stage managers.

The creative design team includes Calder Johnson as scenic and property design. Lighting design is by Spike Foster, sound design by Blue Waites, and costumes are created by Taylor DePew. The production features a talented ensemble of performers including David Powell, Jessi Sheiman, River Keller, Alex Blouin, Tina Toomata, Lily Herlihy, Curtis Harder, Jo Kuzelka, Filip Ambroski, Meaghan Sharrard, Mychal Evenson, Mollie Ranario, Rigel Schmitt, Holly Couling, Brandy Rose, Sam Pietanza and Gianne Lee.

Together, this cast brings to life the rich, satirical world of "Urinetown," balancing comedy, chaos and social commentary with energy and heart.

Summer movies

'Superman,' 'Fantastic Four,' 'Freakier Friday' and more coming to the screen

By Mark Meszoros
mmeszoros@news-herald.com

OK, so there's nothing YUGE. There isn't that movie right around the corner that's so big it's all some folks will be talking about.

In May 2026, on the other hand, movie goers will be treated to the biggest Marvel movie in years, "Avengers: Doomsday," which boasts a cast the size of a small village, and the first big-screen "Star Wars" offering since 2019's "Episode IX — The Rise of Skywalker" in "The Mandalorian & Grogu."

Still, the 2025 summer movie season is bringing what could be the final entry in the long-running "Mission: Impossible" franchise, a couple of intriguing Marvel Cinematic Universe affairs, a new Superman and a few sequels coming years after their predecessors.

Plus, there's this, that and the other that should pique the interests of movie fans.

Here's a look at some of what's coming to a theater near you — and to the streaming box in your living room — through August. And remember that, as always, dates are subject to change.

"ANOTHER SIMPLE FAVOR" | MAY 1 | PRIME VIDEO » Paul Feig is back in the director's chair for this straight-to-streaming sequel to the enjoyable 2018 black comedy "A Simple Favor." Stars Anna Kendrick, Blake Lively and Henry Golding are returning, as well. This time, there's a murder at the wedding of Live-ly's Emily.

"THE SURFER" | MAY 2 | THEATERS » Nicolas Cage stars in this well-received psychological thriller that debuted in autumn at the Toronto International Film Festival

"SHADOW FORCE" | MAY 2 | THEATERS » Joe Carnahan ("Narc," "The A-Team") is at the helm of this action thriller about a multinational special forces outfit that stars Kerry Washington and Omar Sy."

"THUNDERBOLTS*" | MAY 2 | THEATERS » Four times since 2012, an "Avengers" movie from Disney-owned Marvel Studios has served as the unofficial kickoff of the summer movie season, with megahits "Avengers: Infinity War" and "Avengers: Endgame," in 2018 and '19, respectively, getting things going in April instead of the more traditional first weekend in May. "Thunderbolts*," which — and we say this lovingly — looks to be a poor man's version of an "Avengers" flick, with a rougher-around-the-edges gang of MCU heroes getting together. Jake Schreier is at the helm for this adventure featuring Florence Pugh's Yelena Belova; her colorful father, David Harbour's Alexei Shostakov/Red Guardian; Sebastian Stan's Bucky Barnes, Wyatt Russell's John Walker/U.S. Agent and a mix of new and semi-familiar faces. The villain is a newcomer, The Void, portrayed by Lewis Pullman.

"CLOWN IN A CORNFIELD" | MAY 9 | THEATERS » Eli Craig directs a cast led by Katie Douglas and Carson MacCormac in this seemingly self-explanatory horror comedy.

"JULIET & ROMEO" | MAY 9 | THEATERS » Clara Rugaard and Jamie Ward star in this musical reworking of Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet."

"NONNAS" | MAY 9 | NETFLIX » Vince Vaughn's Joe Scavella, with some grandmotherly help, opens an Italian restaurant to honor his late mother in this comedy helmed by Stephen Chbosky, who wrote and directed the 2012 adaptation of his novel "The Perks of Being a Wallflower."

"FINAL DESTINATION: BLOODLINES" | MAY 16 | THEATERS » Kaitlyn Santa Juana, Teo Briones, Richard Harmon and Owen Patrick Joyner star in this sixth big-screen entry in the supernatural horror franchise, whose roots trace back decades, to creator Jeffrey Reddick's spec script for an episode of "The X-Files."

"HURRY UP TOMORROW" | MAY 16 | THEATERS » Given the talents of filmmaker Trey Edward Shults ("It Comes at Night," "Waves") and music star The Weeknd, aka Abel Tesfaye, you can't help but be intrigued by this film. Billed as a musical psychological thriller, it stars Tesfaye as a heightened version of himself, the singer going on a mystical journey, with Jenna Ortega and Barry Keoghan playing secondary figures. Tesfaye — who, as The Weeknd, released an album of the same name in January — co-wrote the screenplay with Shultz and another scribe.

"FEAR STREET: PROM QUEEN" | MAY 23 | NETFLIX » The streaming giant welcomes you back to Shadyside High in this prom-season installment of the "Fear Street" franchise, the cast of which features India Fowler, Suzanna Son, Fina Strazza, Chris Klein, David Iacono, Ella Rubin, Ariana Greenblatt, Lili Taylor and Katherine Waterston.

"FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH" | MAY 23 | APPLE TV+ » Guy Ritchie directs the latest Skydance Media film with some big names to debut on Apple's streaming platform, in which estranged siblings (John Krasinski and Natalie Portman) go looking for the legendary Fountain of Youth. The supporting cast boasts Eiza Gonzalez, Stanley Tucci and Domhnall Gleeson.

"FRIENDSHIP" | MAY 23 | THEATERS » Getting a limited release on May 9 before going wider two weeks later, this comedy stars Paul Rudd and the namesake of the sketch show "I Think You Should Leave with Tim Robinson."

"LILO & STITCH" | MAY 23 | THEATERS » Disney continues to work through its library of animated films to reimagine as live-action affairs, and next up is 2002's "Lilo & Stitch," built around the bond between a child and an alien. Maia Kealoha portrays Lilo, a 6-year-old orphan, while extraterrestrial Stitch is voiced again by Chris Sanders. Dean Fleischer Camp, director of 2021's offbeat and adorable "Marcel the Shell With Shoes on," is at the helm, and the supporting cast includes the reliably funny Zach Galifianakis.

"MISSION: IMPOSSIBLE — THE FINAL RECKONING" | MAY 23 | THEATERS » The trailers have seemed intent on convincing you that this film — the sequel to 2023's "Mission: Impossible — Dead Reckoning Part One" and the eighth installment in the "M:I" franchise — will be the, well, final chapter. And we do think that's the case — unless, you know, Paramount Pictures believes a ninth movie will be at all profitable and series star Tom Cruise is physically up for another taxing shoot. (Um, he's Tom Cruise. He doesn't age. He WILL be up for it.) With its sillier-than-standard AI menace-driven plotline, "Dead Reckoning" was a tad underwhelming. However, we trust that Cruise and filmmaker Christopher McQuarrie — who have been making the "Impossible" possible cinematically since 2015's "Mission Impossible: Rogue Nation" — will deliver the action-packed, table-turning goods again this time. "Reckoning" will boast lots of familiar faces, including Ving Rhames, Simon Pegg, Vanessa Kirby and Hayley Atwell.

first "Karate Kid" film since 2010's "The Karate Kid" would — despite the presence of the original Karate Kid, Ralph Macchio, exist in a universe parallel to that of Netflix's successful sequel series "Cobra Kai." Now, it's said this film — which also features Jackie Chan, a star of the 2010 flick — is set a few years after the events of "Cobra Kai." (This is all very exciting, isn't it?) Anyway, look for Macchio's Daniel LaRusso and Chan's Mr. Han to help

"THE PHOENICIAN SCHEME" | MAY 30 | THEATERS » Working with frequent writing collaborator Roman Coppola, endlessly creative filmmaker Wes Anderson offers this latest comedy, in which a wealthy man (Benicio del Toro) entrusts his estate to his daughter, a nun (Mia Threapleton, daughter of Kate Winslet), with outsiders wanting a piece of that action. As usual, Anderson has put together an outstanding ensemble, this one including Michael Cera, Riz Ahmed, Jeffrey Wright, Bryan Cranston, Bill Murray, Benedict Cumberbatch and Tom Hanks.

"TORNADO" | MAY 30 | THEATERS » In this film set in 1790s Britain and helmed by John Maclean, a young Japanese woman (Kōki) finds herself caught in a perilous situation when she and her father (Takehiro Hira) cross paths with a gang of ruthless criminals led by Sugarman (Tim Roth). The cast also boasts "Slow Horses" star Jack Lowden.

"BALLERINA" | JUNE 6 | THEATERS » The idea for this action film, alternatively titled "From the World of John Wick: Ballerina" and starring Ana de Armas as a deadly dancer, dates back years, to a script inspired by but not yet part of the action franchise centered around Keanu Reeves' seemingly unkillable assassin, John Wick. Reeves will appear in "Ballerina" — likely briefly — while the key supporting players include Anjelica Huston, Gabriel Byrne, Ian McShane and Norman Reedus. Lee Wiseman ("Underworld") directs.

"DANGEROUS ANIMALS" | JUNE 6 | THEATERS » Has-sie Harrison's Zephyr, a rebellious surfer, is abducted by a shark-obsessed serial killer (Jai Courtney) and held captive on his boat. She must figure out how to escape before he carries out a ritualistic feeding to the sharks below in this survival drama directed by Sean Byrne.

Night Fury dragon Toothless and Hiccup, portrayed by Mason Thames, are shown in a scene from the live-action update of "How to Train Your Dragon."

faces a series of unfortunate events that lead her down an unexpected path and circumstances beyond her control. Fueled by desperation," press materials from Netflix state, "she finds herself at the center of suspicion in a world that seems indifferent to her existence."

"DEEP COVER" | JUNE 12 | PRIME VIDEO » Bryce Dallas Howard and Orlando Bloom head the cast of this British crime comedy about improv actors being recruited to work in police stings. It counts "Jurassic World" pals Colin Trevorrow and Derek Connolly among its writers.

"HOW TO TRAIN YOUR DRAGON" | JUNE 13 | THEATERS » Dean DeBlois, who directed the animated "How to Train Your Dragon" trilogy, is back for this live-action update of the 2010 series launcher. But while Gerard Butler returns to portray the character he's voiced, Stoic the Vast, his son — awkward saga hero Hiccup Horrendous Haddock III, who, of course, befriends a dragon — is portrayed by newcomer Mason Thames of "The Black Phone." The animated movies, based on Cressida Cowell's book series, has its legion of fans, so DeBlois and company had better not screw up a good thing. (Universal Pictures obviously believes they have not, as evidenced by the studio having a sequel on the slate for June 2027.)

"BRIDE HARD" | JUNE 20 | THEATERS » We've all thought it, right? That 1988 action classic "Die Hard" should be crossed with the uproarious 2011 comedy gem "Bridesmaids"? That's what we appear to be getting with this action comedy starring "Bridesmaids" alum Rebel Wilson. She'll share the screen with her "Pitch Perfect" pal Anna Camp, "Only Murders in the Building" and "The Holdovers" stand-out Da'Vine Joy Randolph, Justin Hartley ("This Is Us," "Tracker") and others. This one might be stronger in the action department than you'd expect, with Simon West ("Con Air," "The Expendables 2") directing.

imation Studios looks to play off that fantasy you have as a kid involving encountering otherworldly beings and having a great adventure. That's what happens to the alien-obsessed titular character in "Elio" (voiced by Yonas Kibreab), who is believed by visitors from space to be our planet's leader. Will this be the next great effort from the studio behind classics including "Toy Story," "Up" and "Soul"?

"28 YEARS LATER" | JUNE 20 | THEATERS » It hasn't quite been 28 years since acclaimed filmmakers Danny Boyle and Alex Garland teamed up, as director and writer, respectively, for "28 Days Later." That post-apocalyptic film, about the breakdown of society after myriad humans are infected with a virus, was followed in 2007 by "28 Weeks Later," with others steering the ship. However, Boyle and Garland are back with this third entry, which features actors Jodie Comer, Aaron Taylor-Johnson and Ralph Fiennes.

"F1" | JUNE 27 | THEATERS » Brad Pitt may be behind the wheel of a high-performance machine as a Formula One driver looking to mentor a younger racer (Damson Idris), but it no doubt will be "Top Gun: Maverick" director Joseph Kosinski who will be putting the pedal to the metal to deliver the high-octane thrills an action drama like this demands. The supporting cast features Kerry Condon, Javier Bardem and Tobias Menzies.

"HOT MILK" | JUNE 27 | THEATERS » Emma Mackey, Fiona Shaw and Vicky Krieps star in this romance drama "set in the scorching heat of a Spanish summer" that's directed by Rebecca Lenkiewicz.

"M3GAN 2.0" | JUNE 27 | THEATERS » She's back, the little human-like robot who kills, and she's been upgraded. (Gulp.) Returnees for the sequel to 2022 horror hit "M3GAN" include star Allison Williams, director Gerard Jonstone and writer Akela Cooper. We may all want to unplug for a stretch after this one.

"HEADS OF STATE" | JULY 2 | PRIME VIDEO » In this action comedy, John Cena portrays the American president and Idris Elba the prime minister of the United Kingdom. The leaders will have to team up to save the world in an affair boasting a nice supporting cast that includes Priyanka Chopra Jonas, Jack Quaid, Carla Gugino, Stephen Root and Paddy Considine, who was amazing as King Viserys Targaryen in the first season of “House of the Dragon.” “Nobody” director Ilya Naishtat is at the helm.

“JURASSIC WORLD REBIRTH” | JULY 2 | THEATERS » “Godzilla” director Gareth Edwards now gets to play with dinosaurs in the seventh “Jurassic” flick, which is being positioned as a stand-alone to 2022 guilty pleasure “Jurassic World Dominion.” (Call us cynical, but if this one does dino-sized business at the box office, we’re expecting a follow-up affair.) The cast is led by the two-headed monster of Scarlett Johansson and Mahershala Ali. The story is set five years after “Dominion,” with the Earth’s dinosaurs having retreated to secluded, more hospitable tropical locations. The action centers on an island where a team of humans go hunting for dinosaur DNA, an endeavor that surely will go flawlessly.

“THE OLD GUARD 2” | JULY 2 | NETFLIX » We have a soft spot for 2020’s “The Old Guard,” an unusual superhero offering headlined by Charlize Theron, as it was one of the better streaming options at a time — early summer — when going back to the theaters was still a bit theoretical and more than a little scary. In the sequel, Andy (Theron) and her team of immortal warriors are back to protect the world from a new threat.

“Madea” affair about fast-approaching nuptials in the Bahamas.

“SUPERMAN” | JULY 11 | THEATERS » With the filming a year ago in and around Cleveland very apparent in the footage we’ve seen so far, the DC Universe — the successor to DC Comics and Warner Bros. Pictures’ DC Extended Universe — gets underway with this new heroes-packed adventure. But with apologies to the likes of Nathan Fillion’s Guy Gardner/Green Lantern, Cleveland native Isabela Merced’s Hawkgirl and Anthony Carrigan’s Rex Mason/Metamorpho, the action will revolve around David Corenswet’s Man of Steel. Rachel Brosnahan is portraying Supes’ traditional love interest, Lois Lane, while a bald Nicholas Hoult will cause Earth’s most powerful adopted son a lot of trouble. The film is written and directed by James Gunn (Marvel’s “Guardians of the Galaxy” movies), the co-chairman and co-CEO of DC Studios. Word of not-so-hot reactions to test screenings for the film have surfaced, but we’ll believe Gunn — a longtime admirer of Superman — has dropped the proverbial ball here when we see it.

“EDDINGTON” | JULY 18 | THEATERS » Pedro Pascal and Joaquin Phoenix star in this contemporary blend of a Western and a black comedy from gifted filmmaker Ari Aster (“Hereditary,” “Midsommar”).

“I KNOW WHAT YOU DID LAST SUMMER” | JULY 18 | THEATERS » This fourth film in the slasher franchise is said to be a direct sequel to the 1998 film of the same name that launched the series, with alums Jennifer Love Hewitt reprising their roles and being surrounded by a cast of newcomers including Madelyn Cline (“Outer Banks”).

“SMURFS” | JULY 18 | THEATERS » Our little blue buddies get the computer graphics-meets-live action treatment again in this franchise reboot, which sees music star Rihanna voicing Smurfette and a host of other notable names voicing the myriad other Smurfs, including the great Nick Offerman as Papa Smurf’s brother, Ken. (Ken the Smurf? We don’t think this is a “Barbie” tie-in, but we’ll see.)

“THE FANTASTIC FOUR: FIRST STEPS” | JULY 25 | THEATERS » While some of the players from the season’s earlier MCU entry, “Thunderbolts*,” have been announced as being part of summer 2026’s highly anticipated “Avengers: Doomsday,” this is poised as the more significant lead-in, with the latter movie’s big bad, Dr. Doom — played (gasp!) by Iron Man actor Robert Downey Jr. — likely to be introduced, possibly in a post-credits scene. Regardless, with Marvel Studios finally able to use comic book staples the Fantastic Four, following Disney’s acquisition of 20th Century Fox, which had held the movie rights to the characters, the quartet may finally get the big-screen treatment it deserves. The casting appears to be, well, fantastic, with Pedro Pascal as Reed Richards/Mister Fantastic, Vanessa Kirby as Sue Storm/Invisible Woman, Joseph Quinn as Johnny Storm/Human Torch and “The Bear” standout Ebon Moss-Bachrach as Ben Grimm/The Thing. In this other part of Marvel’s multiverse on an alternate Earth, the Fantastic Four will battle giant foe Galactus (Ralph Ineson) before (presumably) arriving on Earth-616. Matt Shakman, who has been involved with great TV projects — such as “The Great” and the first MCU series, “WandaVision” — directs.

“HAPPY GILMORE 2” | JULY 25 | NETFLIX » Man, time flies like a golf ball soaring toward a fairway. Adam Sandler introduced us to hockey player-turned-golfer Happy Gilmore way back in 1996. He’s back in this sequel for his pals at Netflix, as is Julie Bowen, as his “Happy Gilmore” love interest, Virginia Venit, and Christopher McDowald, as everybody’s favorite cocky golf pro, Shooter McGavin. Scads of actual professional golfers are said to show up in the romp, as well.

“THE BAD GUYS 2” | AUG. 1 | THEATERS » Set five years after the events of the 2022 animated hit about a gang of animal criminals-turned-good guys, “The Bad Guys 2” sees voice work by returnees such as Sam Rockwell, Marc Maron, Awkwafina and Craig Robinson and newcomers including Natasha Lyonne and Maria Bakalova, both of whom voice members of the Bad Girls. Pierre Perifel also returns to direct.

“THE NAKED GUN” | AUG. 1 | THEATERS » Liam Neeson passing as the son of the bumbling but beloved Frank Drebin, played by Leslie Nielsen in the zany comedy series? ... Maybe? The teaser trailer looks ... OK-ish? Are you sick of ellipses? ... Probably? One person who seems wholly uninterested in the franchise’s first entry since 1994’s “Naked Gun 33½” is the director of the first two movies, “The Naked Gun: From the Files of Police Squad!” (1988) and “The Naked Gun 2½” (1991), David Zucker. (“I can’t unsee it,” Zucker reportedly said of the aforementioned teaser.)

“FREAKIER FRIDAY” | AUG. 8 | THEATERS » The summer of sequels arriving decades after their predecessors continues with this follow-up to 2003 Disney fave “Freaky Friday.” We still do not know a ton of story details, but Jamie Lee Curtis and Lindsay Lohan are back as Tess and Anna Coleman, who are now a grandmother and a mother, respectively, and who somehow ensnare a couple of younger family members into the body-swapping fun. This “Freakier Friday” is directed by Nisha Ganatra (“The High Note”).

“WEAPONS” | AUG. 8 | THEATERS » If you’ve seen writer-director Zach Cregger’s 2022 horror thriller “Barbarian,” you likely haven’t been able to shake a few of the jump-out-of-your-seat moments. And perhaps you and whomever you watched it with still say “Mama” a certain way. (If you know, you know.) This new scary affair involves the disappearance of several kids one night in a small town and features Josh Brolin, Julia Garner, Alden Ehrenreich and Benedict Wong, among others.

“ANIMAL FRIENDS” | AUG. 15 | THEATERS » This is said to be a live-action-meets-digital animation road trip comedy for adults and features Ryan Reynolds, Jason Momoa, Vince Vaughn, Lil Rel Howery, Aubrey Plaza, Dan Levy and other fun folks. Call us intrigued.

“CLIKA” | AUG. 15 | THEATERS » Jay Dee stars as Chito, a small-town musician determined to make it big whose break comes when one of his songs go viral. But trying to carve his niche in the new world of Mexican-American music proves to be dangerous in this film from “Live” director Michael Greene.

“NOBODY 2” | AUG. 15 | THEATERS » Bob Odenkirk’s assassin-turned-suburbanite Hutch Mansell is pulled back into the world of violence and killing in this sequel to 2021’s decent “Nobody,” which features other returnees including Connie Nielsen and Christopher Lloyd and newcomers such as Sharon Stone and Colin Hanks.

“AMERICANA” | AUG. 22 | THEATERS » This rural crime drama starring Sydney Sweeney and Paul Walter Hauser, written and directed by Tony Tost, made its debut all the way back at the South by Southwest festival back in March 2023

“EDEN” | AUG. 22 | THEATERS » Ron Howard directs this survival thriller set at the turn of the 1930s that he co-wrote with Noah Pink (“Tetris”), which stars Ana de Armas, Vanessa Kirby, Jude Law, Sydney Sweeney and Daniel Brühl. After debuting at last year’s Toronto International Film Festival, the film recently was acquired by entertainment company Vertical and given this late-summer release date.

“HONEY DON’T” | AUG. 22 | THEATERS » As he did with last year’s colorful “Drive-Away Dolls,” director Ethan Cohen wrote the script for this film with spouse Tricia Cooke. “Dolls” star Margaret Qualley is back as a detective in this second film in Cohen and Cooke’s “lesbian B-movie trilogy,” which also boasts Aubrey Plaza, Chris Evans and Charlie Day.

“RELAY” | AUG. 22 | THEATERS » Riz Ahmed and Lily James star, respectively, as a fixer and a woman in need of his protection in this thriller from “Hell or High Water” director David Mackenzie that premiered at last year’s Toronto International Film Festival.

“THE THURSDAY MURDER CLUB” | AUG. 22 | NETFLIX » Already sharing the screen as husband-and-wife crime family heads in the Showtime/Paramount+ series “MobLand,” Pierce Brosnan and Helen Mirren star along with Ben Kingsley and Celia Imrie as amateur sleuths out to solve a murder in this crime comedy from director Chris Columbus. It’s based on Richard Osman’s 2020 bestselling novel

“CAUGHT STEALING” | AUG. 29 | THEATERS » Bold but hit-and-miss director Darren Aronofsky (“Black Swan,” “Mother!”) helms this crime thriller about a former basketball player getting into some hot water. Austin Butler, Matt Smith, Zoë Kravitz, Regina King and Vincent D’Onofrio play some of the key characters in the film, adapted by Charlie Huston from his 2004 novel of the same name.

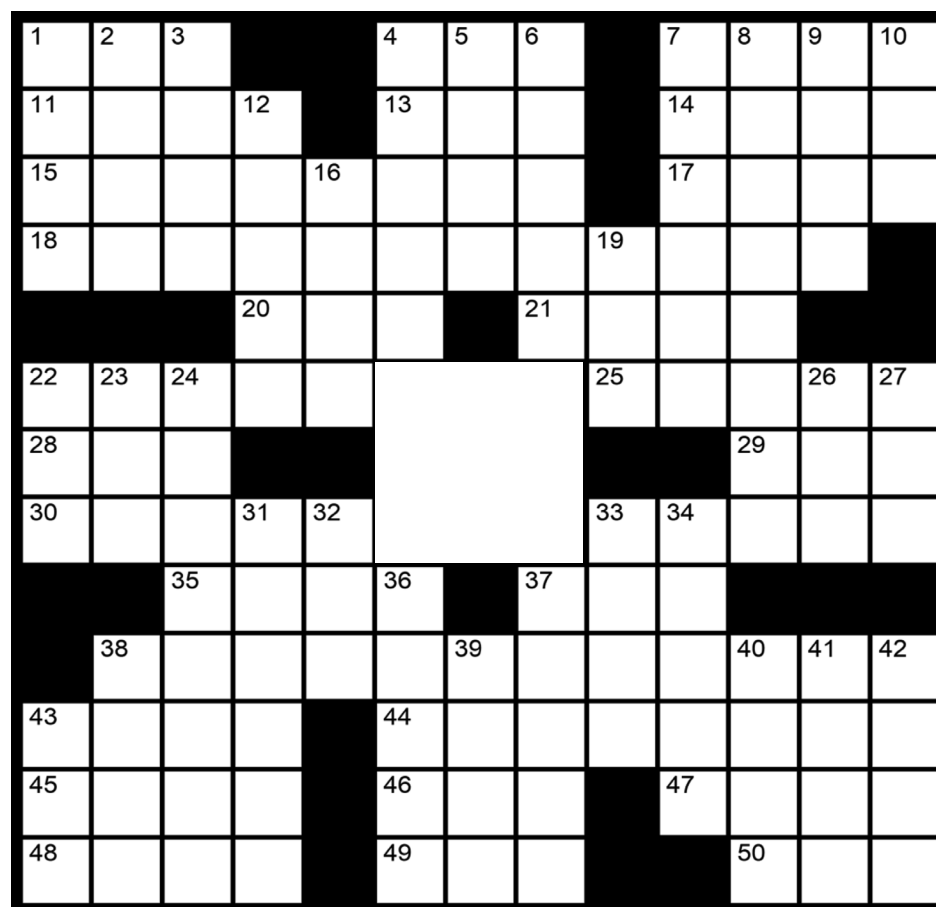

“THE ROSES” | AUG. 29 | THEATERS » Benedict Cumberbatch and Olivia Colman star as a seemingly ideal couple with issues simmering below the surface in this new take on the 1981 Warren Adler novel “The War of the Roses,” which was made into a 1989 movie. Tony McNamara, who penned 2023’s “Poor Things,” also a book adaptation, did the screenwriting honors here, with Jay Roach (“Bombshell”) directing.

At the first trick, look down the road

In “Peanuts,” Peppermint Patty struggled greatly at school. In one cartoon, she cries, “I know the answer! The answer lies within the heart of all mankind!”

There is a pause as the reader moves to the next panel.

If you go down in a contract, especially one for 12 tricks that you should have made, you will probably wish you had chosen to visit a different building.

Let’s see if you made a good choice to come to this bridge game when you reach six spades in this deal. After West leads the diamond king, what should you do?

North’s bidding was optimistic, despite the known nine-card-or-better spade fit.

You have at least one spade loser and a potential loser in hearts. You must get lucky in spades, and it looks as though you also need the heart finesse to win. However, a quick peek at the diagram shows that it is losing.

There is a solution, which is hard to spot if you have not seen the theme before.

The best play is to ruff a diamond in your hand at trick two.

Then cash the spade ace, play a club to the queen, ruff another diamond, return to dummy with a club, trump the last diamond, and cash the club ace. With the minors eliminated, exit with a trump.

Here, East wins and must play a heart away from the queen. But if East had the last club, you would ruff and still have the heart finesse available.
