Winter on the PA Highlands Trail

It's November, and we're inching closer and closer to winter. With that, activities on the PA Highlands Trail are beginning to slow down a bit. For the month of November, we have two more events before taking a break for the month of December:

- A trail workday this Sunday, November 15th at the Tollgate Landing Trail Gap in Quakertown, PA
- A guided hike at the Bridgeton Nature Preserve in Upper Black Eddy, PA on Monday, November 30th

But don't worry, AMC is still hosting plenty of winter events. Check those out here! Stay warm everybody!

Trail Markers Installed on the Schuylkill River Trail

On November 1st, volunteers came out after Halloween to install PA Highlands Trail Markers on a five mile section of the Schuylkill River Trail. Volunteers, Schuylkill River Greenways staff, and AMC staff used bikes to efficiently reach the mile markers placed every half mile, totaling 10 mile markers total and 20 Highlands blazes overall. It was the perfect autumn bike ride.

Take a walk or ride on the Schuylkill River Trail between the Union Meadows East Trailhead and the Universal Trailhead to see the Highlands markers!

Poems for the Trail

NOVEMBER NIGHT BY ADELAIDE CRAPSEY

Listen...
With faint dry sound,
Like steps of passing ghosts,
The leaves, frost-crisp'd, break
from the trees
And fall.
