

The image shows the interior of the Palihouse, a historic hotel in West Hollywood. The space is characterized by extensive wood paneling on the walls and ceiling. A large, round, white pendant light with a gold 'P.' logo hangs from the ceiling. In the foreground, a round, dark wood table with a twisted pedestal holds three white ceramic vases filled with flowers. The floor is covered in a green and white checkered tile pattern. In the background, a man in a dark suit stands behind a counter. Two large potted plants in terracotta pots are positioned on either side of the counter. On the left and right walls, there are circular signs that read 'Restaurant' and 'Lodging' respectively, with arrows pointing towards the respective areas.
