P astor's Ponderings

Greetings Our Lady of Sorrows Community.

It is with great pleasure that I, Deacon Tyrone Gutierrez, accepted the bishop's assignment and reported to this beautiful church and loving community this week. Prior to this appointment I was the Pastoral Administrator at Guardian Angels Parish in Westport for three years and assigned to St. Thomas More prior to that.

I have been married to my lovely and wonderful wife, Nikki, for seventeen years; and we have three grown children from a previous marriage. She has been instrumental in keeping me grounded in my ministry and has been wonderfully patient with me as my vocation sometimes takes away from our family time.

We were greatly pleased to find out that at one time this parish was staffed by the Franciscans, because Nicki and I are both secular Franciscans, having taken our final profession two years ago.

I know changes at a parish can bring some anxiety about possible changes to how the parish functions, especially when it involves a highly thought of Pastor such as Fr. Randy Sly. I have had the pleasure, over the last 6 months, to get to know Fr. Sly and I am greatly impressed with all the good work he has accomplished here.

Please be assured that I do not intend to come in and make any radical changes. I feel it is most prudent for me to take the time and get to know all the good people here and understand their vision going forward for this wonderful parish. I am always happy to meet with individuals who have concerns or ideal, but I ask that you please call first because some of my duties, as administrator, may cause me to be away from the parish at times, and I would hate not to be available for you.

I ask that you pray for me and my family as we make this adjustment and we will pray for all of you as well, as you adjust too.

Pax Et Bonum (Peace and All Good)

Dcn Tyrone

LIGHTHOUSE CATHOLIC MEDIA DISPLAYS BY WHAT AUTHORITY? – Mark Shea

In this popular work of apologetics, Mark Shea presents a lively and entertaining look at his conversion to Catholicism from Evangelicalism and his discovery of Christian Tradition. As an Evangelical, Shea accepted the principle of Sola Scriptura (Scripture alone) as the basis of faith. Now as a Catholic convert, he skillfully explains how and why Sacred Tradition occupies a central role in divine revelation.

Tracing his own journey of intellectual and spiritual awakening, Shea begins by looking for a rejoinder to those modern-day false prophets who would claim that Scripture itself is not to be trusted, and he ends with his conviction that Tradition, as explained by the Catholic Church, is the only sure guarantee of the truth of the revelation of Jesus Christ.

"A crystal clear and compelling case for Sacred Tradition, on the basis of logic, history, and Scripture. It is simply the best I have found." - Scott Hahn, Author of Rome Sweet Home

"This is not just another book of Catholic apologetics. It is not only a good thing; it's also a good read. Concrete, clear, compelling arguments." - Peter Kreeft, Author of Handbook of Catholic Apologetics

"An important service for Catholics, Evangelicals, and all those seeking a firm grounding for faith. Shea argues powerfully for the extra-biblical authority of Sacred Tradition as a depository and source of revelation side by side with the Bible, to which it testifies and which it interprets with authority." - Russel Shaw, Author of American Church
