Pastoral Thoughts

Greetings Brothers and Sisters,

Here at Our lady of Sorrows we have been blessed with having some wonderful volunteers who always seem to appear once a need is identified. So, today I would like to introduce you to two wonderful people who have stepped-up during this pandemic.

Elizabeth Bower, who is now taking charge of our volunteer recruiting and scheduling for the masses. Elisabeth and her husband Steven are parishioners who were married here and have decided to be involved. The work she is doing is critical to the parish and really helps the staff be able to concentrate on other projects. Elizabeth brings a ton of knowledge about organizing that is greatly appreciated.

Also a few months ago we welcomed Sr. Linda Barringer to our volunteer list. Sr. Linda recently retired from her position at Guardian Angels Parish where she oversaw Religious Education. Sr. Linda and I worked together for 3 years when I was the Pastoral Administrator of Guardian Angels. Sr. Linda brings a great amount of knowledge which is welcomed, and she will volunteer in the office on Tuesday and Thursday mornings.

Please be sure to thank both these individuals when you meet them.

There is an important event that will take place here at OLOS on October 27th at 6:30pm. We will be having a town hall meeting to inform the parishioners on where the parish is at financially during this pandemic and some things we need to consider for our future. Such as: how to maintain the parish on less income, handling increased numbers during the Christmas season if COVID guidelines are still in effect, also the need to consider our Sunday Mass times that are getting harder to fill with priests due to the pandemic and shortage.

This meeting will last only 1-hour, but as members of the parish you should be aware of possible major decisions, the reasons why, and how they may affect you. Even if you have not formally registered but consider Our Lady of Sorrows your home parish you too are invited and will be able to register at this meeting. The meeting will be held in
